6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:20

The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear – it's the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of a modern day Pharisee.

Adoration Moment

"The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life,"

St. Thomas Aquinas

"Trust all things to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and to Mary, Help of Christians, and you will see what miracles are."

St. John Bosco

Lenten Bible Study: The Seven Last Words of Christ Monday, Feb. 27th through April 10th; 6:00 p.m. This scripture study of the seven short sentences uttered by Jesus as he endured his crucifixion will draw you closer to Jesus' Passion to make the real meaning of Easter come alive. Please sign up today in the gathering space so that we can order books. Cost $9.

DAA

Please make your commitment, gift or pledge to the Diocesan Annual Appeal this weekend. You may use an envelope and prayer card here at our parish or the one you have received at home. Fill out the pledge card completely. You may make a gift by check or cash, by credit card or automatic withdrawal from your checking account over the course of 12 months. Consider increasing your gift by 10% this year if you haven't changed your gift for several years. For questions about online giving please contact Renee' Tate at rtate@crookston.org or call toll free 1-855-297-8252. View the excellent DAA video at www.crookston.org/daa and consider making a sustaining gift.

Sidewalk snow shoveling

Your help is needed to keep the sidewalks clear. If you are able to help out to keep the sidewalks clear and safe, the shovels are in the closet in the entryway.

Saint of the Day

February 13th

Saint Giles Mary of St. Joseph

Saint Giles Mary of Saint Joseph's Story

In the same year that a power-hungry Napoleon Bonaparte led his army into Russia, Giles Mary of Saint Joseph ended a life of humble service to his Franciscan community and to the citizens of Naples.

Francesco was born in Taranto to very poor parents. His father's death left the 18-year-old Francesco to care for the family. Having secured their future, he entered the Friars Minor at Galatone in 1754. For 53 years, he served at St. Paschal's Hospice in Naples in various roles, such as cook, porter, or most often as official beggar for that community.

"Love God, love God" was his characteristic phrase as he gathered food for the friars and shared some of his bounty with the poor—all the while consoling the troubled and urging everyone to repent. The charity which he reflected on the streets of Naples was born in prayer and nurtured in the common life of the friars. The people whom Giles met on his begging rounds nicknamed him the "Consoler of Naples." He was canonized in 1996.

Reflection

People often become arrogant and power hungry when they forget their own sinfulness and ignore the gifts God has given to other people. Giles had a healthy sense of his own sinfulness—not paralyzing but not superficial either. He invited men and women to recognize their own gifts and to live out their dignity as people made in God's divine image. Knowing someone like Giles can help us on our own spiritual journey.
