28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"My God will supply whatever you need..." - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Adoration Moment

"Remaining in silence before the Blessed Sacrament, it is Christ totally and really present whom we discover, whom we adore and with whom we are in contact."

Pope St. John Paul II

Note from Fr. Todd

I will be out of the office and away for some vacation from the afternoon of Tuesday October 17th until the afternoon of October 27th.
On the weekend of October 21/22 Msgr. John "Jed" Patrick will preside at our Masses. Msgr. Patrick works with Cross Catholic Outreach. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between our parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America. Please welcome them warmly.
While I am gone in case of emergency please contact Deacon Jim at Sacred Heart in Baudette at 218-634-2689 or Fr. John Kleinwachter in Roseau at 218-463-2441.
Peace and God Bless,
Fr. Todd

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next week, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Each year, the entire Church is invited to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the poorest of the poor. This year, we are invited to "Chat With The Pope" to learn more about his missions.

Empowering Catholic Churches and Ministries to Help the Poorest of the Poor Worldwide

Hunger and poverty are constant companions to millions of people in developing countries where jobs and resources are scarce, and struggling governments can't provide basic services such as water, sanitation, education and medical care. As a result, countless men, women and children suffer needlessly from chronic malnourishment, preventable diseases, homelessness, illiteracy and the despair of passing their poverty on to the next generation.

In these areas of the world, the Church remains a beacon of hope to the poor. Catholic priests, nuns and lay leaders in developing countries demonstrate Christ's love by striving to meet the needs of the poor in their midst.

Unfortunately, these servants of God lack the resources they need to respond to these impoverished communities effectively. They need a partner — Cross Catholic Outreach — to help them meet the needs. With the financial support of compassionate American Catholics, Cross Catholic Outreach fills this important role by providing the specific resources these Catholic leaders need to achieve their goals.

Together, Cross Catholic Outreach, its benefactors in the U.S., and its overseas ministry partners, are able to provide food to the hungry; safe water to the thirsty; medical aid to the suffering; shelter to the homeless; and hope, in the form of educational opportunities and self-help projects, to those struggling to break out of the cycle of poverty.

As an official Catholic organization, Cross Catholic Outreach (formerly known as Cross International Catholic Outreach) is registered with the Diocese of Palm Beach and is listed on page 992 of the 2012 Official Catholic Directory. Cross Catholic Outreach also has a collaborative relationship with Cor Unum, the Vatican's relief agency in Rome, enabling the charity to respond to natural disasters around the world with rapid emergency relief.

Our Mission

We are a Catholic ministry that serves the poorest of the poor internationally by channeling aid through dioceses, parishes and Catholic missionaries, cost-effectively helping the poor break the cycle of poverty while advancing Catholic evangelization.

You can help us impart this message of love and mission of mercy by hosting a Cross Catholic Outreach Priest at your parish this year. Call (800) 914-2420 to schedule a visit today!
