Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"….giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light." COLOSSIANS 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or spend most of our time trying to acquire "things". Try putting God first in all things instead. Ask Him how He wants you to use your gifts.

Mass of Light.

Losing a child is one of the most difficult things that a Parent can endure. Whether your loss was recent or long ago, there is hope, healing, support and love. On Monday November 25th at 6:30 pm St. Mary's will hold a special "Mass of Light for those who have experienced Miscarriage, Still Birth, Infant and Child loss."
This Mass, is a way to commemorate the lives of our children who died before or after birth. Couples, family members, friends and all parishioners are welcome to attend this Mass as we pray for our children and for those who love and mourn for them.

If you would like to have your child prayed for by name during this Mass, please call the parish office at (218)-386-1178 or email Fr. Andrew at aobel@mncable.net. before 1 pm Monday, Nov. 25th.

Coffee and rolls are served downstairs after the 10:30am Mass. Everyone is welcome to come relax and visit.
Any additional volunteers are very welcome. Please be at the Care Center by 1:45 pm. If you are unable to attend, please make arrangements with another volunteer on the list, or call Rita Krause at 218-634-1691

Sacred Heart Christmas Tea and Bazaar

Sunday, December 1st, after mass, the ladies will begin decorating for the Christmas Tea. We will need several to help, please feel free to stay and help with the decorating project.

Saturday, December 7th,

Please remember to sell all your tickets and if possible an additional donation by Dec 7th to help with purchasing a Feed Grinder for Father Obel's village in Uganda.
All parishioners are encouraged to share their talents for the tea, by either baking, making crafts or providing a White Elephant Gift for purchasing. We are seeking volunteers to help with the tea, please contact Rita Krause at 218-634-1691.

St. Mary's Mission Appeal

This is the time of the year for St. Mary's Mission Appeal. Fr. Jerry Rogers and a dedicated team of teachers and lay ministers have been delivering a quality Catholic education to the children on the Red Lake Reservation. Your support has been critical to the success of the Mission. You can support the Mission again this year by responding to the mail you will receive in your home this week. Before Mass begins this weekend, we will watch a video prepared by Fr. Jerry and his staff about their ministry. Next weekend in our second collection, we will receive your gifts for that ministry. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Readings:
2 Samuel 5:1–3
Psalm 122:1–5
Colossians 1:12–20
Luke 23:35–43

Week by week the Liturgy has been preparing us for the revelation to be made on this, the last Sunday of the Church year.

Jesus, we have been shown, is truly the Chosen One, the Messiah of God, the King of the Jews. Ironically, in today's Gospel we hear these names on the lips of those who don't believe in Him—Israel's rulers, the soldiers, and a criminal dying alongside Him.

They can only see the scandal of a bloodied figure nailed to a cross. They scorn Him in words and gestures foretold in Israel's Scriptures (see Psalm 22:7–9; 69:21–22; Wisdom 2:18–20). If He is truly King, God will rescue Him, they taunt. But He did not come to save Himself, but to save them—and us.

The good thief shows us how we are to accept the salvation He offers us. He confesses his sins, acknowledges he deserves to die for them. And He calls on the name of Jesus, seeking His mercy and forgiveness.

By his faith he is saved. Jesus "remembers" him—as God has always remembered His people, visiting them with His saving deeds, numbering them among His chosen heirs (see Psalm 106:4–5).

By the blood of His cross, Jesus reveals His Kingship—not by saving His life, but by offering it as a ransom for ours. He transfers us to "the Kingdom of His beloved Son," as today's Epistle tells us.

His Kingdom is the Church, the new Jerusalem and House of David that we sing of in today's Psalm.

By their covenant with David in today's First Reading, Israel's tribes are made one "bone and flesh" with their king. By the new covenant made in His blood, Christ becomes one flesh with the people of His Kingdom—the head of His body, the Church (see Ephesians 5:23–32).

We celebrate and renew this covenant in every Eucharist, giving thanks for our redemption, hoping for the day when we too will be with Him in Paradise.
