Dear Parishioners,

As your Administrator, I invite you to prayerfully consider participating in this year's Cardinal Annual Stewardship Appeal, which promotes and makes possible the works of mercy across our great archdiocese, including:

- Much needed COVID-19 relief within the Archdiocese.
- Financial support to vulnerable parishes so that they can better serve the faithful through the sacraments and other local outreach programs.
- Catholic Charities and pastoral programs including the prison apostolate.
- The important work of evangelization, faith formation and educational programs which are essential if we are to positively change the world.
- The education of new priests who will help us grow in our faith and take care of the retired priests who have dedicated their lives to the communities.

To contribute towards this work of the Gospel, our parish family of 2,015 households is responsible for a goal of $101,000. If you have supported the Appeal in past years, thank you for your loyalty. If you have never supported the Appeal, I invite you to make a first-time gift of any size, so that this can truly be a parish-wide effort.

Thank you to those who have already made a gift in response to Cardinal Dolan's letter last month. If you have not yet participated, our Appeal Commitment Weekend will be held on March 7th. Kindly complete your pledge card online by visiting cardinalsappeal.org place it in the mail, or drop it in the offertory basket at Mass.

Thank you for the many sacrifices you make for our Parish and our Archdiocese. St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, pray for us!

With prayerful gratitude,
Reverend Sebastian Pandarathikudiyil, VC Administrator

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL SOCIETY

Everyone needs a guardian angel, especially in these times of isolation and anxiety. Many members of our parish are living alone with no one present in the home to check on their welfare. Being alone does not mean that you are alone. Your Parish Family cares and would like to propose a new ministry, The Guardian Angel Society. If you would like a quick call or text message each day to check that you are well and to reaffirm that you are being thought of, please call Karen Pennington at 914-769-0637 or Nancy DeLorenzo at 914-769-7223.

Let's be sure to pray for one another

THE PARISH HAS A NEW FACEBOOK PAGE FOR LIVESTREAMING MASSES!

The 5:00pm Saturday Vigil Mass and the 7:30am Sunday Mass are livestreamed each week.

All livestream recordings will remain available for you to view, at your convenience, any time of the day. You do NOT have to have a Facebook account to watch.

To go to our Facebook Live page.

MIDNIGHT/BREAKFAST RUN UPDATE

The next Midnight Run is planned for late February. We will be looking for warm weather clothing, new or gently used jackets, hoody sweatshirts and new jeans. Kindly place the clothing in plastic bags not paper bags and drop off on weekends to the corner door of the school cafeteria, furthest away from the church. Thank you!!

Church-Family-Program Connection

Our Religious Education Program would not be possible without the generous donation of our volunteers' time and the support of our Church - its parishioners and families. We are grateful for the entire community's continued support. Thank you from our hearts to yours.

READINGS . . .

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading – Job 7:1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying: Is not man's life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of hirelings? He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?" then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

Responsorial Psalm –

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

Praise the LORD, for he is good;
sing praise to our God, for he is gracious;
it is fitting to praise him.

The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem;
the dispersed of Israel he gathers.

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

He tells the number of the stars;
he calls each by name.

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power;
to his wisdom there is no limit.

The LORD sustains the lowly;
the wicked he casts to the ground.

R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

2nd Reading – 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

Gospel – Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.
