Special Request to St. Pio Parishioners

During the holiday season we collect turkeys and hams to be given out to needy families in our area.

We will be giving gift cards to area grocery stores and allow our clients to purchase their own turkey or ham. We will be helping 50 families this Christmas.

We are asking for your help with donations of either cash or gift cards to Meijer and Kroger.

The amount of the gift card can be either $10 or $20. If you can sponsor more than one gift card, that would be greatly appreciated.

Your donation may be placed in an envelope marked "TURKEY OR HAM" and put in the collection basket at Mass, or dropped off at the Parish Office.

Thank you ahead of time for your generous spirit in helping those in need,
God Bless you

Mass Intentions - Did You Know?

A Mass can be offered for a person who is still living.

Though we often think of having a Mass said for those who have passed away, Masses can be offered for those who are still alive. The Council of Trent says that Mass may be said "for the living and the dead, for sins, punishments, satisfactions, and other necessities." In other words, if you know someone who could benefit from the spiritual graces that come with having a Mass said on their behalf, there is no need to delay in doing so.

You can have a Mass said in thanksgiving or for a celebration.

Again, most people remember to have a Mass said for the death of a loved one and a few may think to have a Mass offered for a special intention or friend who is suffering, but rarely do we think of having a Mass offered for a celebration! Is there a better way to show our gratitude to God? Masses can be said for birthdays, anniversaries, in celebration of the reception of the sacraments, or for prayers that have been answered!

Because the Mass is the highest form of worship on Earth, there are many fruits and graces that result from having a Mass said.

The reason that this tradition has been passed on for centuries is because of the many spiritual fruits that result from this form of prayer. The celebration of the Eucharist is the highest form of worship in the Catholic Church because we unite ourselves with Christ's sacrifice on the cross in worship of his Father.

St. John Paul II emphasized the graces that come when a Mass is offered. "The Church believes that she will be heard, for she prays in union with Christ her Head and Spouse, who takes up this plea of His Bride and joins it to His own redemptive sacrifice."

A Brief Account of Pentecost

The Christian Feast of Pentecost (from the Greek word for fiftieth) is celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday and commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit, the advocate of all believers as God's presence in the world, as He promised to those present at His Ascension.

The Apostles and other disciples assembled in Jerusalem that fateful day in the "Upper Room" (also scene of the Last Supper) ostensibly to celebrate the Jewish holy day of Shavuot, the time of harvest 50 days after Passover. (Acts 2:1–31) The appearance of the Holy Spirit was said to have sounded like the roaring wind. Those present were at first struck with fear when what appeared as tongues of fire rested on the foreheads of the Apostles, causing them to be transformed and begin to speak in languages they did not know. After this miracle, the Apostles went far and wide to evangelize as Jesus had commanded. Pentecost is considered the birthday of the Church.

St. Peter spoke of David in his Pentecost message saying that the reality of Jesus Christ came as the promised Messiah of God. In his words "God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of it. (Acts 2: 32-35)

The Seven Gifts bestowed by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Roman Catholics believe that initiates receive these seven gifts at Baptism—and that they are strengthened at Confirmation so that one can proclaim the truths of our Faith.

A Thanksgiving Prayer...

We thank you, Father, for the gift of Jesus your Son who came to our Earth and lived in a simple home. We have a greater appreciation of the value and dignity of the human family because he loved and was loved within its shelter. Bless us this day; may we grow in love for each other in our family and so give thanks to you who are the maker of all human families and our abiding peace.

from The Catholic Prayer Book

Fr. Greg wishes everyone a Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

Faith Formation & Youth Ministry News

Many wonderfully miraculous events happened at our Open House for Families. The Students' presentations were exceptional especially about the Miracles of Creation, Noah's Ark, The Last Supper, Loaves & Fish, Jairus' Daughter, Paraplegic Man and the Wedding Feast at Cana. Here is a sampling of what we learned written by Madeline Vanderford, (6th Grade), with an account of:

The Wedding Feast at Cana

I have been to multiple weddings in my life, but there was one I went to that was extraordinary. We were just seats as two people sat next to me. The wedding went as a normal wedding would, but as they were passing out wine to everyone they ran out. Now, I knew that this was not normal, but let it be. I couldn't do anything about it. I thought no one else could either. I was so wrong. The people that sat next to me were an older woman and a young man. The woman told the boy, "They ran out of wine, Jesus." "What do you want me to do about it?"

I thought that was a normal response. I found out Jesus was his name and her name was Mary. A little while later, Mary got up and told a servant, "Do whatever Jesus tells you to do." The man nodded and Mary walked away. I didn't question any of this. It was none of my business. Then Jesus told the same servant, "Fetch me one of your washing jugs." The servant did. Then Jesus asked the man to drink from the jug. Low and behold, the water turned into wine. The whole room went silent, as if everyone was watching. There was enough wine for everyone now.

The wedding was splendid. I now realize that Mary's words, "Do whatever Jesus tells you to do", is powerful for us, too! We have to listen to Jesus. He Helps us!

Thanks to all for your gifts of teaching and sharing that was done at the Open House. We are all God's Children, made beautifully in His image!

Don't forget our Santa Breakfast Fundraiser on Sunday, December 8th from 10 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. with our annual visit from Santa!

Also our Christmas Ham, Kielbasa and Pierogi Sale begins this weekend. Deadline for orders is December 9th so get your orders in and avoid the long lines at the store! See our flyers for details!

We give thanks to God for all He has given us especially during this Thanksgiving Season! Have a blessed Thanksgiving!

Meaning of Thanksgiving

The true meaning of Thanksgiving focuses upon relationship. Thanksgiving is a relationship between God and Man. Upon Their arrival at New Plymouth, the Pilgrims composed The Mayflower Compact, which honored God. Thanksgiving begins with acknowledging God as faithful, earnestly giving Him thanks, in advance, for h is abundant blessings. "...In everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God" (Philippians 4:6). Thanksgiving is an attitude of the heart that reinforces an intimate relationship with God.

Help Ensure the Future of The Cemetery

When you pick up your 2020 envelopes, you will notice that we have added four envelopes that are earmarked for the Sacred Heart Cemetery Perpetual Fund.

The Sacred Heart Cemetery provides a final resting place to those who have passed. We present a respectful and dignified environment for those who visit our cemetery to celebrate the memory of a loved one.

These additional collections will help us to ensure that that Sacred Heart Cemetery continues to provide a dignified environment for now and for years to come.

Music Notes

The offertory part of our mass is "when the bread and wine for use in the service are ceremonially placed on the altar. What about music for offertory? Offertory is traditionally instrumental in many churches. Personally, I believe that if we have a full choir in position in the loft then we should use them. Instrumentals can tend to lean towards a talent show of sorts. We need every opportunity we can get to have the congregation sing out. Offertory offers a time for reflection I think. I like a nice, subtle hymn and nothing to overbearing. It's not a terribly lengthy opportunity either. You usually have only a short time to play so I like to have a bit of an impact in the time allotted. I want to spend some extra effort on our offertory hymns in the New Year after the busy Christmas season. What are your favorite offertory melodies? Have a great week.

Advent by Candlelight

IS THERE A STAR IN YOUR EYE

Sunday, December 1st - 6:00 PM

As we once again get caught up in the many preparations of the Christmas season, we need to take time to prepare our hearts for our Lord's coming. Therefore, you are all invited to join us for "Advent by Candlelight," which is a beautiful TIME of Scripture, music, and fellowship. This year's theme "IS THERE A STAR IN YOUR EYE"?

NOTE: This year Advent by Candlelight will not be a potluck. Instead of a meal, we are having dessert and hot/cold beverages. We will not need table hosts. EVERYONE IS INVITED, but RESERVATIONS are needed.

We will begin our celebration in church for our Prayer Service which includes wreath lighting, a skit and a prayer service. After, we will gather in the Social Hall for fellowship and dessert.

If you wish to attend, please call Angie Ventimiglio 586-293-8166 to make reservations. DEADLINE IS NOVEMBER 24TH. PLEASE DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE LAST DAY!

Looking forward to another successful year of preparing for the birth of the Christ Child.

St. Pio Intercessory Prayer Ministry

Come join us after Mass in the church and experience the Holy Spirit at work. Prayer teams are available after all weekend Masses.

Intercessory prayer is a prayer that pleads with God for your needs and the needs of others.

Often the problems we face seem too big for us. No matter how much we try, we cannot solve them on our own.

It's times like these when we need to turn to the Lord in intercessory prayers.
