CLERGY CORNER WITH FR. MELANCON

Grace and Peace to You, Dear Parish Family,

As you gather for Mass today, I am currently away taking a brief time for rest and renewal. Though absent in person, I carry each of you in my heart and prayers.

Our Gospel for this 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time brings us the Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16). In a world driven by strict fairness and precise compensation, Jesus turns our human logic upside down. The landowner pays the latecomers—those who worked only one hour—the exact same daily wage as those who labored all day under the scorching heat.

Our natural reaction is to protest. Yet, as Isaiah reminds us in today's first reading, God's ways are far above ours.

Human fairness calculates; divine mercy gives generously. The daily wage represents God's gift of salvation and love. He doesn't divide His grace into fractions based on when we answered His call. Whether someone has served Him their whole life or turned to Him in their final hour, the gift of His kingdom is given in full.

The early workers were not cheated; their anger grew from looking sideways at their neighbors instead of upward in gratitude. This week, let us ask ourselves: Where am I keeping score, and how can I better celebrate God's generosity toward others?

Thank you for your prayers while I am away. I look forward to being back with you next week!

In Christ's peace,

Father A. Melancon

A silent vocation of love

Behind-the-Scenes Care

Are you looking for a quiet, meaningful way to serve our parish? We are in need of dedicated individuals to join our Sacristan Team to help prepare for our weekday and weekend Masses.

Sacristans work reverently before and after the liturgy to ensure everything is ready for worship. Core tasks include setting out the sacred vessels, altar breads, wine, and liturgical books, as well as turning on the lights, lighting the candles, and managing the climate control.

Flexible Scheduling Options

No prior experience necessary. Full training will be provided. You can choose the commitment level that best fits your availability: serve as a regular Sacristan, or join our team as a substitute.

Please Pray About It
