For the Home Bound

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 6/27/21

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

Today's opening antiphon invites us to clap and shout with joy, for our God is a God of life. God brought life into the world at creation, making us in the divine image. Jesus brought new life to the world, redeeming us and preparing us for eternal life with the Lord. We come together here today, as we do each Sunday, to hear the word of God, to be nourished in the Eucharist, and to give praise and glory to God. May our lives, energized by the Holy Spirit, witness to the wonderful generosity of our God, our God of life.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

By the envy of the devil, death entered the world.

Psalm 30 "I will praise you Lord for you have rescued me."

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Your abundance should supply the needs of the poor.

Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

Little girl, I say to you arise!

 Today's readings assert God's power death. The author of Wisdom states that God created all things that the might have life. Paul teaches the Corinthians that just as Jesus graciously sacrificed his divinity, and in fact his life, so that we may share in his richness, in eternal life, we are called to sacrifice our abundance. Jesus brought life to two people, healing a woman with a lengthy illness and raising a girl from the dead. Let us imagine how we can give life to those living in the shadow of death.
 ~~~~~

~The Lord Jesus has the power to bring healing to the sick and new life to those on the threshold of death. Whenever you find yourself in need of new life, turn to the lord Jesus. His presence will drive out all fear and bring you healing and comfort. Take to heart the miracles of healing and life.

Question of the Week
 How does my faith in the Lord give me hope when I might otherwise feel hopeless?
