Why did my contribution envelope number change?
This year as a conservative measure, we updated our contributors list, thus only purchasing what was needed, which was 75 boxes. Thus, if in years passed if your contribution number was greater than 75, you have been assigned a lower number this year 2022.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

God calls each one of us to greatness. We may not feel worthy of such a calling, but this is natural. We hear in today's readings that Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter-giants of our faith-felt unworthy when they were called by the Lord. Jesus calls each of us to discipleship as well. Let us reflect on how we are called to be a disciple and pray for the courage and confidence to follow him.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8 Here I am, send me!

Psalm 138 - *"In the sight of the angels
I will sing your praises, Lord."*

The Second Reading is from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians. 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 or 15:3-8, 11 I handed on to you what I received.

Gospel of Luke 5:1-11 They left everything, even their nets, and followed Jesus.

Isaiah reveals his calling in the first reading, describing a magnificent scene with the Lord surrounded by angels. Because he feels unworthy, one of the angels touches his lips with an ember, purging his sin. When Saul and Simon are called by the Lord they too immediately become aware of their sinfulness. Here in the presence in the Lord, we realize our own sinfulness and limitations. Let us also so realize that the Lord still call us to be disciples.

After Jesus had taught the crowd from Peter's boat, he asked him to do two things-"Put out into deep water and lower your nets"--neither of which Peter would normally do. He must have been quite impressed by this stranger's teaching to do either one. The Lake of Gennesaret (more commonly known as the Sea of Galilee) is eight miles wide and up to one hundred fifty feet deep. During the day fishing boats stayed close to shore, for sea squalls could easily capsize these boats. Moreover, during the day, the fish swam as deep as they could to avoid the bright sunlight. Knowledgeable fisherman fished at night. So Peter was faced with doing something both potentially dangerous and visibly foolish.

Questions of the Week

When I have felt frightened or foolish by doing something I felt called to do?

How has God reassured me and given me confidence?
