BROTHERS JOIN ST. ANN DC FOR 6/19 MASS, SOCIAL & TALK

2 FRIARS, 11 WEEKS, 30 MLB STADIUMS, THE 'BLEACHER BROTHERS' ARE ON A 17,000-MILE ROAD TRIP TO SHARE THE GOSPEL — and they're visiting us!

St. Ann DC hosts Brothers Casey and Tito as they concelebrate Mass on Sunday, June 19 at 7:00pm and lead the community in group discussions following that Mass - at the Young Adult social - on the spirituality of baseball; being agents of reconciliation in a divided world; discernment and vocations. Plan to join us as St. Ann DC for the Mass and discussion and at the Nationals Game on Friday, June 17 at 7:05pm. Contact youngadults@stanndc.org

Brother Casey and Brother Tito are Franciscans that run the YouTube channel "Breaking in the Habit" and the movie themed podcast "Everyday Liminality."

Both are baseball fans inspired by St. Francis of Assisi's preaching to ordinary people in the spaces they gather in ways they understand. The Brothers are spending the summer visiting the ballparks of America's pastime and inviting people "home" to the Catholic Church and to find God, even in the ordinary.

Check out the brothers' great work here:

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

- Life Committee, Knights of Columbus Council 224

The recently leaked Supreme Court opinion draft authored by Justice Samuel Alito stated that Roe v. Wade was “egregiously wrong” from the start, and that there is no right to abortion in the Constitution. If the Court’s final opinion officially overturns Roe v. Wade, the pro-life movement will have finally achieved a goal we have been fighting for this past half-century and the regulation of abortion will be handed back to the states to be decided by the people, through their elected representatives.

Recognizing that victory is on our side, pro-abortion activists have spent the past few months spreading fear about a post-Roe world. This fear-mongering is a desperate ploy to prevent the regulation of abortion from going back to the states, where popular opinion in each state would decide abortion.

Their alarm is telling – if Roe were truly settled law, they would have nothing to fear.

Yet the size and persistence of our movement this past half century poignantly shows that Roe is not Constitutional, and it is by no means settled law. Even pro-abortion Ruth Bader Ginsburg admitted in 1985 that Roe appeared “to have provoked, not resolved, conflict.”

The continued growth of the March for Life and the recognition that abortion is unjust and unconstitutional, is exactly why we show up, year after year – drums beating in the distance, a crescendo of singing and upbeat voices, a massive, crowd of bright-eyed women, men, and children peacefully marching in formation down Pennsylvania Ave., proudly carrying the banner: MARCH FOR LIFE.

Thanks to the tireless work of the March for Life and the entire pro-life movement, our nation’s laws may soon be allowed to reflect that.
