Church of Saint Ann
The City of Washington

The Saint John Bible Heritage Edition has been given to Saint Ann Church by the Subpriory of Our Lady of Lourdes of the Order of Malta and is located in the Mary Chapel (forward left) in the church under the stewardship of Monsignor Watkins, Pastor of Saint Ann Church and Chief Chaplain of the Subpriory of Our Lady of Lourdes. Here in the District of Columbia, this seven-volume set of this magnificent illuminated text is also housed at The Library of Congress and The National Cathedral.

Cover: Birth of Christ

Mary became pregnant while still betrothed, as “the divine family plan moves in ways that contravene traditional family values.” The artist, Donald Jackson’s choice to include all women – even Hagar – signals a strong feminist reading of Matthew’s genealogy, even as it lessens Matthews’s focus on outsiders and the marginalized.

In one subtle symbolic connection, Jackson emphasizes the miracle of maternity in the birth of Jesus. In Birth of Christ, the frontispiece to Luke, Jackson supplies the only illumination of Jesus’ mother Mary in The Saint John’s Bible. Here, she leans joyfully over the manger, with its Jesus absent because we are to place him there in our own lives.

The Saint John’s Bible was commissioned by Saint John’s Abbey and University and was created by Donald Jackson, Senior Scribe to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth’s Crown Office, along with a collaborative team of scribes and artists. This is the first illuminated, handwritten Bible of monumental size to be commissioned by a Benedictine monastery in more than 500 years. All 73 books from the Old and New Testaments using the New Revised Standard Version are presented in volumes of Approximately, 1,150 pages.

The work of the Saint John’s Bible was done in a scriptorium in Wales. Now compete, Saint John’s University in Collegeville, Minnesota, is the Bible’s home. The Saint John’s Bible was made using traditional materials such as vellum (calfskin), ancient inks, gold and silver leaf and platinum, and was written with quill pens fashioned from goose, turkey and swan feathers.

Artist: Donald Jackson

Jackson, born in 1938 in Lancashire, England, is a British calligrapher, official scribe and calligrapher to the Crown Office of United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Donald Jackson, MVO, the artistic director and scribe for The Saint John’s Bible, received one of the highest honors bestowed upon laypeople by the Vatican.

Jackson was inducted into the Order of St. Gregory the Great, a papal knighthood granted for outstanding service to the Catholic Church. Jackson received the honor in a special ceremony June 15, 2016 at Westminster Cathedral in London from Cardinal Vincent Nichols, the Archbishop of Westminster. Jackson was nominated for the award by Bishop Donald Kettler of the Diocese of St. Cloud. “In the course of its creation and since, The Saint John’s Bible has touched the lives of Catholics within our diocese as well as millions around the world,” Kettler said. “Mr. Jackson and the Benedictine monks of Saint John’s Abbey have once again pointed to the central role of the Bible to the vitality of the Catholic Church.” Jackson, one of the world’s leading calligraphers, has been the artistic director and principal illuminator of The Saint John’s Bible since 1998. For more than 50 years, he has also been responsible for the creation of official state documents in Great Britain as senior illuminator to the crown office of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Jackson resides in Wales and is a member of the Anglican Communion. It is rare for non-Catholics to receive papal knighthood.

“Mr. Jackson has made a singular contribution to contemporary Christian art,” said Rt. Rev. Nicholas Holtam, the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese of Salisbury, a longtime friend of Jackson’s. “There is no doubt in my mind that he has provided spiritual insight and inspiration to countless numbers of Anglicans and Roman Catholics alike.”

The honor further fulfills Saint John’s goal to share the Word of God with the world. “Through his talent, Mr. Jackson has demonstrated once again the power of the artist to be in service to the sacred,” said Abbot John Klassen, OSB, of Saint John’s Abbey. Jackson was at his Scriptorium in Wales when he learned about the honor. “I give my sincere thanks to His Holiness Pope Francis for this award and to those who proposed it,” said Jackson. “I am delighted to accept it as both a symbol of his recognition of what has been achieved and of his encouragement for Saint John’s mission to ‘ignite the spiritual imagination’ of all peoples. Long may The Saint John’s Bible journey continue to do that.” The Pontifical Order of St. Gregory the Great was established in 1831 by Pope Gregory XVI. This special honor is bestowed upon men and women in recognition of their personal service to the Holy See and to the Roman Catholic Church, through their unusual labors, their support of the Holy See and their excellent examples set forth in their communities and their countries.

My dear Parishioners and Friends,

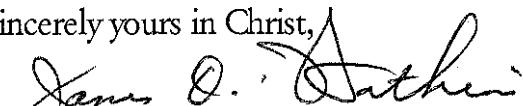

It is Christmas! Christ is born! It is my great joy to welcome all of you this holy night to Saint Ann Church and to express my warmest wishes to you and your families for a most blessed Christmas and joyful New Year.

To all of our parishioners who so faithfully take part in the life and prayer of the parish throughout the year, I want to extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation for all that you do to bring about the Kingdom of God in our corner of the world in the Tenleytown neighborhood. So many of you are volunteers who graciously devote so much time and energy to our many parish ministries, organizations, and activities. The Parish comes alive in the Spirit through you and continually depends upon you and your generosity to sustain it.

To all our friends and guests who come tonight, know that you are most welcome now and throughout the year at this gem of a church at Tenley Circle. I also look to you to help us by your prayers and generosity, which enable us to continue our many programs and activities and the on-going maintenance and restoration needs of this magnificent edifice in which we are all so privileged to worship. Help us to extend this hospitality to so many other visitors who come here, and allow us to remain a strong witness of the faith in upper northwest Washington.

Thank you for joining us this evening. May the Lord bless you now and always with the love of Jesus, born of Mary this day in Bethlehem.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Very Rev. Msgr. James D. Watkins, S.T.L., Ph.D.
Pastor

Candlelight Carol

How do you capture the wind on the water?
How do you count all the stars in the sky?
How can you measure the love of a mother,
or how can you write down a baby's first cry?
Or how can you write down a baby's first cry?

Find him at Bethlehem laid in a manger.
Christ our Redeemer asleep in the hay,
Godhead incarnate and hope of salvation.
A child with his mother that first Christmas morn.
A child with his mother that first Christmas morn.

John Rutter
(b. 1945)

Shepherds and wise men will kneel and adore him.
Seraphim round him their vigil will keep.
Nations proclaim him their Lord and their Savior but Mary will hold him and sing him to sleep.

Candlelight, angel light,
firelight, and star-glow.
Shine on his cradle till breaking of dawn.
Gloria! Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Angels are singing;
the Christ child is born.

O Holy Night
Timothy Augustin, Tenor

O holy night!
the stars are brightly shining.
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth!
Long lay the world in sin and error pining
'til he appear'd and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices, for yonder breaks
a new and glorious morn!

Adolphe Adam
(1803 - 1856)

Led by the light of faith serenely beaming, with glowing hearts
by His cradle we stand.
So led by light of a star sweetly gleaming, here come the wise men from Orient land.
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger, in all our trials born to be our friend.

Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night divine, O night divine!

There Is No Rose

Philip W.J. Stopford
(b. 1977)

There is no rose of such virtue as is the rose that bare Jesus;
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
For in this rose contained was Heaven and earth in little space.
Resmiranda, Resmiranda, Resmiranda, Resmiranda.
By that rose we may well see there be one God in persons three,
Pares forma, Pares forma, Pares forma, Pares forma.
The angels sungen the shepherds to: Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Gaudeamus, Gaudeamus, Gaudeamus, Gaudeamus.
Leave we all this worldly mirth, and follow this joyful birth;
Transeamus, Transeamus, Transeamus, Transeamus.

O Magnum Mysterium

O magnum mysterium
et admirabile sacramentum, ut animalia viderent Dominum natum, iacentem in praesepio.
Beata Virgo, cujus viscera meruerunt portare Dominum Jesum Christum.
Alleluia!

Morten Lauridsen
(b. 1943)

O great mystery,
and wonderful sacrament,
that animals should see the new-born Lord, lying in a manger.
Blessed is the Virgin whose womb was worthy to bear Jesus Christ the Lord.
Alleluia!

A Brief History of the Nativity Scene

Nativity sets, or crèches, are depictions of the birth of Jesus Christ, traditionally displayed during the Christmas season. Their history is rooted in Christian tradition, evolving with cultural and regional variations over the centuries - the earliest nativity scenes date back to the 13th century. Saint Francis of Assisi is often credited with popularizing the nativity scene when he staged a live recreation of the birth of Jesus in 1223. He used real people and animals in the town of Greccio, Italy, to bring the story of Christ's birth to life for those who could not read the scriptures. This living nativity inspired a lasting tradition of depicting the holy family, animals, and other figures related to the biblical story.

By the 14th century, static nativity scenes, often made of wood or clay, began to appear in churches throughout Italy and other parts of Europe. These early crèches were mainly displayed in churches and were often large, with life-sized figures. During the Baroque period (17th and 18th centuries), nativity scenes grew more elaborate. They became central to Christmas celebrations in Southern European countries like Spain, Portugal, and Italy, and began to be displayed in homes and churches. In Italy, especially in Naples, artisans began creating intricate nativity scenes, known as "presepio," with beautifully crafted figures, often including detailed background scenes of everyday life in 18th-century Naples.

In the 19th century, nativity sets became more widely available and were often mass-produced. They became common in homes across Europe and the Americas. In the 20th century, plastic and other modern materials made affordable nativity sets for the public. Today, nativity scenes can range from simple, minimalist designs to intricate displays with dozens of figures. They remain a central part of Christmas traditions in many Christian homes and communities, serving as a religious symbol and a cultural artifact.

Blessing of the Manger Scene

The Celebrant blesses the Manger Scene with Holy Water and incenses it.

Celebrant: *My brothers and sisters, I proclaim good news to you – tidings of great joy to be shared by the whole people.
This day in David's city a Savior has been born to you,
the Messiah and Lord.*

Assembly: This day Christ is born:
today the Savior has appeared.
This day the angels are singing on earth:
archangels are rejoicing.
Today the just are glad and say,
“Glory to God in high heaven.”

Celebrant: The Word became flesh.

Assembly: And made his dwelling among us.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

*God of every nation and people, from the very beginning of creation you have made manifest your love.
When our need for a Savior was great,
you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary.
To our lives he brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.*

*Lord, bless all who look upon this manger;
may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus,
and raise up our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all,
and who lives and reigns forever and ever.*

Assembly: Amen.

The Proclamation of the Birth of Jesus Christ

James Bailey, Tenor

The Twenty-fifth day of December, when ages beyond number had run their course from the creation of the world, when God in the beginning created heaven and earth,
and formed man in his own likeness;
when century upon century had passed since the Almighty set his bow in the clouds after the Great Flood, as a sign of covenant and peace;
in the twenty-first century since Abraham,
our father in faith,
came out of Ur of the Chaldees;
in the thirteenth century since the People of Israel were led by Moses in the Exodus from Egypt;
around the thousandth year since David was anointed King;
in the sixty-fifth week of the prophecy of Daniel;
in the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad;
in the year seven hundred and fifty-two since the foundation of the City of Rome;
in the forty-second year of the reign of Caesar Octavian Augustus, the whole world being at peace, Jesus Christ, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to consecrate the world by his most loving presence, was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
and when nine months had passed since his conception, was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judah,
and was made man:
The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.

The procession is reformed at the doors of the church.

After the Proclamation, the church lights are fully brightened.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

Greeting

Act of Penitence

All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

All strike their breast.

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Celebrant: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

READINGS FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:1-6

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom, a light has shone.
You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing,
as they rejoice before you as at the harvest,
as people make merry when dividing spoils.
For the yoke that burdened them,
the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster
you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.
For every boot that tramped in battle,
every cloak rolled in blood,
will be burned as fuel for flames.
For a child is born to us, a son is given us;
upon his shoulder dominion rests.
They name him
Wonder-Counselor,
God-Hero,
Father-Forever,
Prince of Peace.
His dominion is vast and forever peaceful,
from David's throne, and over his kingdom, which he confirms and sustains by judgment and justice, both now and forever.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this!

The Word of the Lord. R./ Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING

Titus 2:11-14

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to Titus

Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope,
the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good.

The Lord be with you. R./ And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy gospel, according to Luke. R./ Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days

a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled.

This was the first enrollment when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town.

And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David,

to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son.

She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

HOMILY

LITURGY OF THE WORD

READINGS FOR CHRISTMAS DAY

FIRST READING

Isaiah 52:7-10

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

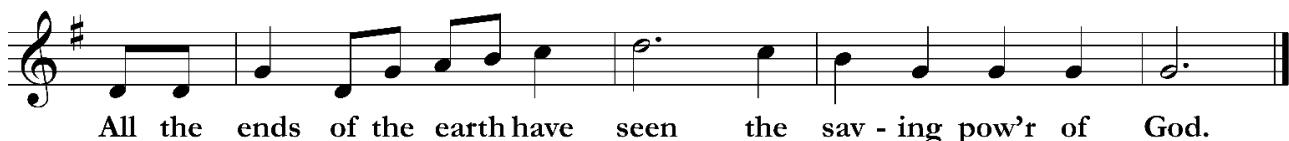

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings glad tidings, announcing peace, bearing good news, announcing salvation, and saying to Zion, “Your God is King!”

Hark! Your sentinels raise a cry, together they shout for joy, for they see directly, before their eyes, the LORD restoring Zion. Break out together in song, O ruins of Jerusalem! For the LORD comforts his people, he redeems Jerusalem. The LORD has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations; all the ends of the earth will behold the salvation of our God.

The Word of the Lord. R./ Thanks be to God.

PSALM 98: 1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6

James V. Marchionda

All the ends of the earth have seen the saving pow'r of God.

O sing to the LORD a new song, for he has worked wonders, His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

Repeat Antiphon

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song, and sing out your praise.

Repeat Antiphon

The Lord has made known his salvation, has shown his deliverance to the nations. He has remembered his merciful love and his truth for the house of Israel.

Repeat Antiphon

Sing psalms to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of a song. With trumpets and the sound of the horn, raise a shout before the King, the LORD.

Repeat Antiphon

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters:

In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son, whom he made heir of all things and through whom he created the universe, who is the refulgence of his glory, the very imprint of his being, and who sustains all things by his mighty word. When he had accomplished purification from sins, he took his seat at the right hand of the Majesty on high, as far superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say: You are my son; this day I have begotten you? Or again: I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me? And again, when he leads the firstborn into the world, he says: Let all the angels of God worship him.

and the Word was God.

He was in the beginning with God.

All things came to be through him, and without him, nothing came to be.

What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

A man named John was sent from God.

He came for testimony, to testify to the light so that all might believe through him.

He was not the light but came to testify to the light.

The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him.

He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him.

But to those who did accept him, he gave power to become children of God,
to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God.

And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

John testified to him and cried out, saying,

“This was he of whom I said,

‘The one who is coming after me ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’”

From his fullness, we have all received grace in place of grace because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God.

The only Son, God, who is at the Father's side, has revealed him.

The gospel of the Lord. R./ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All kneel at the words of incarnation:

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures;
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria

Josep Ollé i Sabaté
(b. 1987)

Translation from the Catalan by Clyde Moneyhun

Gloria, Jesus is born on Christmas morn, humble and poor, for us to adore.
He tells us that love is a gift from above,
and with faith in him we can all be friends.
Without hatred or war, we can open our doors to help each other as sisters and brothers.
Without pain or hunger we can cherish on another;
With good will and forgiveness every day will be Christmas.

Hodie Christus Natus Est

François Poulenc
(1899 - 1963)

*Hodie Christus natus est:
Hodie salvator apparuit:
Hodie in terra canunt Angeli, letantur archangeli:
Hodie exultant justi, dicentes:
Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Alleluia!*

Today Christ is born:
Today the savior has appeared:
Today the angels sing on earth,
the archangels rejoice:
Today righteous rejoice, saying,
Glory to God in the highest.
Alleluia!

Poem by Sarah Teasdale
(1884 - 1933)

Alone

Alone in the night on a dark hill with pines around me spicy and still, and a heaven full of stars.

Over my head white and topaz and misty red;
Myriads with beating Hearts of fire the aeons.
Cannot vex or tire;

Up the dome of heaven like a great hill.
I watch them marching stately and still.

And I know that I am honored to be witness of so much majesty.

Ave Maris Stella

Josep Ollé i Sabaté
(b. 1987)

Ave, maris stella, Dei mater alma, atque semper virgo, Felix celi porta.

Hail, star of the sea, Nurturing Mother of God, and ever Virgin happy gate of Heaven

Sumens illud Ave Gabrielis ore, funda nos in pace mutans Evæ nomen.

Receiving that “Ave” from the mouth of Gabriel, Establish us in peace, transforming the name of “Eva.”

Solve vincla reis, profer lumen cæcis, mala nostra pelle, bona cuncta posce.

Loosen the chains of the guilty, send forth light to the blind, Our evil do thou dispel, entreat all good things.

*Monstra te esse matrem, sumat per te precem
qui pro nobis natus tulit esse tuus.*

Show thyself to be a Mother:
Through thee may he receive prayer
Who, being born for us, undertook to be thine own.

Virgo singularis, inter omnes mitis, nos culpis solutos mites fac et castos.

O Unique Virgin, meek above all others,
Make us, set free from our sins, meek and chaste.

Vitam præsta puram, iter para tutum, ut videntes Jesum semper collætemur.

Bestow a pure life, prepare a safe way:
That seeing Jesus, we may ever rejoice.

Sit laus Deo Patri, summo Christo decus, Spiritui Sancto tribus honor unus. Amen.

Praise be to God the Father,
To the Most High Christ be glory, to the Holy Spirit
Be honour, to the Three equally. Amen.

At this time, the church lights are dimmed to concert setting.

POST-COMMUNION CHORAL MEDITATION

The Dream Isaiah Saw

Glenn Rudolph
(b. 1951)

Lions and oxen will sleep in the hay, leopards will join with the lambs as they play, wolves will be pastured with cows in the glade, blood will darken the earth that God made.

Peace will pervade more than forest and field:
God will transfigure the violence concealed,
deep in the heart of systems of gain, ripe for the judgment the Lord will ordain.

Nature reordered to match God's intent, nations obeying the call to repent,
all of creation completely restored, filled with the knowledge and love of the Lord.

Little child whose bed is straw,
take new lodgings in my heart.
Bring the dream Isaiah saw:
life redeemed from fang and claw.

Little child whose bed is straw,
take new lodgings in my heart.
bring the dream Isaiah saw:
justice purifying law.

Little child whose bed is straw,
take new lodgings in my heart.
Bring the dream Isaiah saw:
knowledge, wisdom, worship awe.

The GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Since many have undertaken to set down an orderly account of the events that have been fulfilled among us,² just as they were handed on to us by those who from the beginning were eye-witnesses and servants of the word,³ I too decided, after investigating everything carefully from the very first, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,⁴ so that you may know the truth concerning the things about which you have been instructed.

5 In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord.⁷ But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

8 Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty,⁸ he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord & offer incense.⁹ Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside.¹⁰ Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.¹¹ When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him.¹² But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John.¹³ You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth,¹⁴ for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit.¹⁵ He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God.¹⁶ With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."¹⁷ Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years."¹⁸ The angel replied, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.¹⁹ But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur."²⁰

21 Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary.²² When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak.²³ When his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

24 After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said,²⁵ "This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people."²⁶ In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth,²⁷ to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.²⁸ And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you."²⁹ But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.³⁰ The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.³¹ And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus.³² He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David.³³ He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."³⁴ Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?"³⁵ The angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God.³⁶ And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren.³⁷ For nothing will be impossible with God."³⁸ Then Mary said, "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

39 In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country,⁴⁰ where she entered the house of Zechariah & greeted Elizabeth.⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit⁴² and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.⁴³ And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me?"⁴⁴ For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy.⁴⁵ And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."⁴⁶

THEREFORE THE CHILD TO BE BORN WILL BE HOLY; HE WILL BE CALLED SON OF GOD
