Solemnity of Christ the King

Oscar Wilde expressed that "he who is in a state of rebellion cannot receive grace." On this feast day of Christ the King, I therefore ask myself if I acclaim Christ as my king and messiah, the head of the church, the ruler of the universe, and the ruler of my life? Do I always open my heart for His grace to guide me? Does Christ rule our hearts and direct our actions? I agree with the popular pearl of wisdom that "the sun cannot shine behind closed curtains." The sun shines in the room if we open the curtain. If we allow Christ into our hearts, He will come in with the graces that will guide and direct us to be better individuals for the Kingdom of God in Heaven.

Fr. Leo
