

Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ September 4, 2022

Reflections from the Stewardship Office:

“Who can know God’s counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends?” In today’s Gospel, Jesus counsels us on three obstacles to discipleship: relationships with our neighbor, ourselves and our stuff. None of these can get in the way of following Jesus, but all three of these relationships can assist us in becoming missionary disciples. First, Jesus tells us we must hate our neighbor to be his disciple, boy, does that sound contrary to the Gospel. We might ask ourselves—who in my life do I put ahead of our Lord? Then he shared with us how we must carry our own crosses and follow him. What cross(es) have I not embraced? Or, am I carrying someone else’s cross—a cross too many? Lastly, we are to renounce all our possessions. Think time, talent and treasure, and try to give it, live it and share it!

4 de septiembre ~XXIII Domingo Ordinario

Tú, yo y ello

“¿Quién es el hombre que puede conocer los designios de Dios? ¿Quién es el que puede saber lo que el Señor tiene dispuesto?” En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos orienta sobre tres obstáculos para el discipulado: las relaciones con el prójimo, con nosotros mismos y con nuestras cosas. Ninguna de ellas debe ser un obstáculo para seguir a Jesús, pero las tres relaciones pueden ayudarnos a ser discípulos misioneros. En la traducción en inglés, Jesús nos dice que debemos odiar a nuestro prójimo para ser su discípulo. Esto parece contrario al Evangelio. Podríamos preguntarnos: ¿a quién pongo en mi vida por delante de nuestro Señor? Luego nos dijo que debemos llevar nuestra propia cruz y seguirle. ¿Qué cruz(es) no he abrazado? ¿O acaso llevo la cruz de otro, una cruz de más? Por último, debemos renunciar a todas nuestras posesiones. Piensa en el tiempo, el talento y el tesoro. ¡Intenta darlo, vivirlo y compartirlo!
