Morning Prayers

Stick a Post-It note on the bathroom mirror that says, "Thank you, God, for this new day!" Leave it there throughout the summer as a reminder to praise God first thing in the morning.

Sing prayer songs as you help little ones bathe and dress. It could be something as simple as, "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine!" Once one person starts to sing, the catchy tune will spread throughout the family.

At breakfast, pray this simple morning together as a family: "Lord, we offer you this day and all that we think, and do, and say." Remind everyone that these simple words turn their entire day into a prayer.

During breakfast, ask if there's something happening that day that anyone in the family wants to pray for. You might also want to pray as a family for family members or friends who are sick, traveling or going through a difficult time.

Remind your children that their Guardian Angel will be with them throughout the day. Teach them this traditional prayer to their Guardian Angel: "Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day, be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule and guide."

Take Out Magazine, Summer 2008

A MARRIAGE MOMENT

In healthy marriages spouses strive to be good and strong. But in recognizing our weakness we can grow stronger. "...for when I am weak, then I am strong." (2 Cor. 12:10) Can you identify a weakness in yourself that has punctured your pride and made you a better spouse?

A PARENTING POINTER

"Is he [Jesus] not the carpenter; the son of Mary...?" (Mark 6:3) We inherit both physical and personality traits from our parents. It can be a source of parental pride, but also consternation. Talk with your child about what strengths and weaknesses they might have received from you.

CAN: CHURCH & COMMUNITY ABOLITION NETWORK

Hackettstown, NJ will be the location of the 9th
Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution (SOAP) outreach in NJ. In a SOAP outreach, teams of 3—4 are given posters with pictures of area missing children, packets of indicator information, and bars of hotel soap labeled with the national human trafficking hotline number to give to the hotel staff. Participants can expect to finish in less than 3 hours.

This year SOAP will infiltrate hotels in the Bethlehem/Easton area in advance of the MusikFest in August. This event has had over one million attendees in the past, and is potentially the largest SOAP outreach in the nation. When hotels are filled, demand for victims goes up as does the supply. This gives hotel staff ample opportunity to supply possible victims with a way of escape.

CAN exists to empower church and community
to do abolition including prevention, detection, action, advocacy and survivor care. CAN is based out of NJ and has been Nationally Appointed. To learn how you can participate and partner, visit CANfreedom.org.

If several teenagers from Corpus Christi would like to be part of this, let Psomi know. We'll work out rides, and a way to be involved.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We're not alone

"Through him, with him, in him." This phrase from the Eucharistic Prayer we hear at every Mass says a lot with a few well-chosen prepositions. Whatever it is we're out there doing, we're never doing it alone. It's through Christ that we serve the needs of our families, friends, and strangers too with our charity. It's with Christ that we suffer burdens of loss, betrayal, sickness, loneliness. It's in Christ that we're strengthened to speak the truth, seek justice, and promote peace with our words and actions. Take a moment to ground yourself in Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 7:12-15; Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10; Mark 6:7-13 (104). "In him we have redemption . . . in him we were also chosen . . . in him you also . . . were sealed."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Our Lady of the hour of death

Death has a way of focusing one's attention. You may intend someday to pay more attention to your faith and "get right with God." But, as you learned in school, you shouldn't postpone studying until the night before finals. Today is the Memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, who in 1251 appeared to Saint Simon Stock, an English Carmelite, and bestowed on him the scapular and the promise to intercede at the hour of death for all who wore it in life. The original scapular was the brown sleeveless tunic that is still a part of the Carmelite habit today. The best way to prepare for a good death is to live a better life—starting today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 1:10-17; Matthew 10:34—11:1 (389). "Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

Empty the schedule for a while

As you take some time for fun and pleasure this summer, remember that what you are doing is holy. It is our duty to rest, repair, and restore ourselves. Several times a year that actually means vacating our normal routine and residence. The word vacation comes from the Latin vacare, "to be empty, be free." Taking a vacation is a separate and very different act from making a retreat (from the Latin for "withdraw"), though that, too, is often a holy act. Without the release a vacation provides, our lives can easily get thrown off balance, which leads to stress, exhaustion, apathy, and eventually hardness of heart—a trait Jesus condemns in today's gospel.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:1-9; Matthew 11:20-24 (390). "If the mighty deeds done here had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until now."

MEMORIAL OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST

Using what ails us

A six-foot-six-inch-tall soldier, strong and commanding, Camillus was brought low by pain and disease. His addiction to gambling led him to poverty. Instead of giving up, he worked to heal others and brought others to toil with him. Now he is the patron saint of hospitals and the sick as well as of nurses. He used the limitations, pain, and shortcomings of his own life to bring healing to others and to sanctify himself. What ails us today that we can use to help others and ourselves?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 10:5-7, 13b-16; Matthew 11:25-27 (391). "Although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike."

What's in a name?

It makes a difference whether you know someone's name. To be introduced to a person involves learning their name. It puts you on personal terms. It was the same for the ancient Israelites, even when it came to God. When Moses asked God who he should say sent him, God revealed the divine name to Moses to tell the people. In this way they would know the Lord cared for them and would act on their behalf. Call on the Lord by name and ask God to be active in your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 26:7-9, 12, 16-19; Matthew 11:28-30 (392). "This is what you shall tell the children of Israel: I AM sent me to you."

Follow the law of love

The Pharisees were a sect that demanded strict interpretation and observance of Mosaic Law. They sometime preferred rules and regulations to thoughtful consideration of circumstances or the larger picture. It's not hard to see why: Laws are neat, impartial, neutral, clear. Moreover, when we simply follow laws, thinking is generally not required! Jesus, however, calls his followers to a higher standard: to love, which, as Archbishop Desmond Tutu rightly observed, "is much more demanding than law." Just for today, let's immerse ourselves in the "something greater" that Jesus talked about. Let's immerse ourselves in love. What would your day be like if you did so?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8; Matthew 12:1-8 (393). "I say to you, something greater than the temple is here."

MEMORIAL OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The gift of a broken heart

In his Personal Narrative, the early American sermon writer Edward Fitzgerald reveals something important about love when he says, "I have greatly longed of late for a broken heart, and to lie low before God." It is unlikely any of us long for a broken heart. But to consider a broken heart a gift, Fitzgerald must have seen something akin to what Saint Lawrence of Brindisi approached when he wrote, "Love stirs itself from sorrow; and love itself is in equal measure lanced with sorrow." The lower we lie in sorrow, the further we can experience God's sacrificial love that comes down to us. Moreover, the pureness of our emotions when we are steeped in sorrow allows us to offer up to God a supple material for his grace. Instead of fearing your brokenness, use it to open to God's grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 2:1-5; Matthew 12:14-21 (394). "Many people followed him, and he cured them all."

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson...

Pretend that it is 1918. You believe that this afternoon a man driving a colorful wagon will be coming to visit your town. He will step up onto a platform and make this announcement with a certain gusto: “Ladies and gentlemen, how much is your health worth? It’s priceless, right? Indeed, Ladies and Gents, and now for just fifty pennies, you can have a bottle of “Nature’s True Remedy.” This potion will succeed where doctors have failed. Only Nature can truly heal, and I have Nature right here in this little bottle. My secret formula, from God’s own laboratory, the Earth itself, will cure rheumatism, cancer, diabetes, baldness, bad breath, and curvature of the spine.”

Google offers you a lot of similar speeches made by the self-important salesmen in the days of the old time travelling medicine shows. Fast forward to today, and except for the modern updating, this old-fashioned scam has its counterpart. The lead story of the June 2018 issue of “Consumer Reports” magazine urges its readers to “protect yourself from scams” and goes on to list seven of them.

The townsfolk of Nazareth had a similar skepticism about claims of healing when they maliciously classified Jesus as no better than a fraud. Why? Because He was a “local boy.”

For the same reason, today’s celebrities are often rejected by the people they grew up with when they come home to visit. “Where did He, Jesus get all this?” they argued. They did not have to wrestle with what we have learned to call “fake news,” but they wanted proof. So they taunted Jesus, like another crowd would do on Good Friday.

They knew His roots so they foolishly denied Him credibility. What does St. Mark write about it? “So He was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying His hands on them, He was amazed at their lack of faith.” (My emphasis)

Lack of faith. There is a good topic for reflection. Not faith understood solely as acceptance of a creed. But faith in Jesus Christ. A faith that takes Jesus at His word. After all, He is the Word! Does he matter in my life? Does His opinion matter when I make my important decisions?”

Unlike the Nazarenes of old, I believe we do trust our hometown heroes, although the times we live in make us wary. Will there be some later revelation about their dark sides?

When it comes to Jesus, there is no dark side. No reason to be shy about our recognition of Him. Hesitancy. Granted, He might challenge us to be better at the task of being Christian. But that’s His right, indeed His loving obligation. We must also bear in mind that faith in Him means faith in the Church He founded, of which we are a part. The two are inseparable.

The good news in all this is that we have within us the grace and power of the Holy Spirit, who teaches us all we need to know, if only we will listen. We’re never asked by God to believe in any fakery like that offered up by the barker standing beside his garish wagon filled with little bottles of lies. Instead we have blessed assurance. Genuine faith is something like electricity. You can’t see it, but you can see the light!
