SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FILLING IN THE GAPS

Thursday, April 23, 2020 will begin the NFL Draft. This year the NY Giants will have a first-round pick. With Daniel Jones solidifying his place as the starting quarterback, there has been talk about how to help him be more effective. The offensive line is an obvious place to start. To many, Alabama's Jedrick Wills Jr. appears to be someone who could immediately jump in and meet this gap in the Giant's line. "Wills is one of the most impressive tackles in the draft," NFL Media's Lance Zierlein wrote. "He has basketball-caliber foot quickness and the quick hands of a boxer.."

Knowing our strong and weak points is essential in any sport and also is true in our own lives. This coming week we will begin the season of Lent. Lent is a special time that we look honestly at ourselves to see where we have turned our focus away from God, where we have let other good things get in the way of family life, where we are in need of God's forgiveness and mercy, and where we need to consider changing. God loves us more than we could ever imagine or want. Yet, being totally honest before our loving God is not always easy. This is why we enter Lent together. I invite you to visit our bulletin and online for all the opportunities that we have available to assist you during Lent. Through extra prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we refocus our lives and allow God to fill in the "gaps" in our lives, so that we can be all that God has made us to be and that we open ourselves to experience all the joy that God wants in our lives.

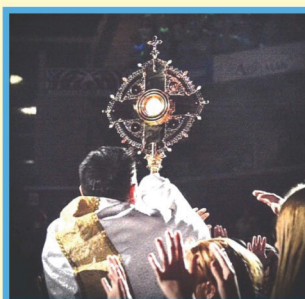

Fr. Kevin

GUIDELINES FOR FASTING AND ABSTINENCE DURING LENT

Roman Catholics are asked to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday and on all Fridays during Lent. The rule of abstinence from meat is for Catholics aged 14 and onwards, unless there are mitigating health concerns. In this case, one is able to do a good work in place of this.

On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, we are also asked to fast (for those 18 to 59). Fasting means a person is permitted to eat one full meal during the day. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but they are not to equal that of a full meal. For those with mitigating health issues who are unable to fast and/or abstain, one is able to do a good work in place of these.

While those are the only two days of full fasting and abstinence required, all of Lent should be a time of spiritual formation and preparation for Easter. Also recommended are spiritual studies, beginning with the Scriptures, as well as the traditional Lenten Devotions (sermons, Stations of the Cross, and the rosary), and other acts of sacrifice.

SISTERS AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

There were many people throughout the country who came together to “celebrate” and draw awareness to human trafficking. Most of these gatherings were led by Roman Catholic Sisters.

On January 11th, it was wear blue day. This was to give significance to the tragedy of human trafficking and in supporting survivors.

In our church, there is an office for Migrant and Refugee Services within the US Council of Catholic Bishops. (pictured)

College folks at Madonna University, run by the Felician Sisters put together S.O.A.P.s, just like we did two years ago.

These are small bars of soap wrapped in a sticker that has the national hotline that can be used (texted or called) by anyone who is in a situation against their will.

And, there were also those who marched to bring about awareness of the terrible crime in our world.

Matthew 5:38—48.
