THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WE ARE THE BODY OF CHRIST

It is wonderful to see so many more families and individuals come back to the in-person Masses at Corpus Christi Parish each weekend. It reminds me that things truly are beginning to get back to normal. We were made to be in communion with each other. We are better together, and we come to know God much more clearly through those bonds with others in the Church that God establishes at baptism. We cannot reach our potential without others' gifts, and they cannot reach their potential without ours.

Although it was difficult for all of us, God quietly carried each of us and our families. Many lost relatives and loved ones. There were long periods of time alone. Although we do not see all the good that will come from these experiences, we trust that God will one day reveal them to us. The past year has taught me to trust God more deeply by having to walk blindly at times.

I encourage those who can come, to consider coming back to Mass at Church. Receiving the Eucharist is the central way that we grow in our faith, hope and love. The Eucharist gives us the strength to truly follow Jesus as his disciple, and to bring us where we cannot go on our own strength or good will. It begins to fill the heart-shaped hole in our hearts that cannot be filled by anything else in this world. This is also the sure path of happiness and joy.

For those who are not able to come at this time because of a vulnerability for themselves or a family member, please know that you are not alone. We will continue to livestream our Masses. God also continues to bless you through the spiritual Communion of being connected with our community online especially at Mass and through our prayers for you.

I pray that one day soon, we will all be reunited as the Body of Christ. This is the deepest desire of God and the pathway for us to become the best version of ourselves.

Fr. Kevin

Reflection...

by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

"People are difficult." I smile as I recall the story of a long gone Philly auxiliary bishop who reportedly used those exact words in reaction to not receiving the desired condiment at his lunch table where sat an impressionable seminarian. Pity the cook at the time. A more general agreement with that statement would surely come to any car driver who has been followed for miles by a tail hater who just won't pass.

In both of today's Gospel stories of Jesus' compassionate healing, we receive proof of people's occasional perfidy. In the first story, a poor woman suffering from a 12 year long affliction of hemorrhages we learn has been bankrupted by a series of "many doctors" who added "greatly" to her pains. What an indictment of the then existing medical profession! And this many centuries before many cases of Medicare fraud! Our Lord beautifully counterbalances all that negativity with His cure and His smiling compliment paid to the lady about her faith and then His comforting sendoff: "Go in peace."

Turning to the second story of Jairus' daughter's healing, placed as the "bread" of the "Scriptural sandwich," we meet a "large crowd" of naysayers ready for ridicule after Jesus tells Jairus not to be afraid and "just have faith." A bit later, when Jesus declared that the 12 year old was merely "asleep," What was the herd reaction? Mockery. Of course, after the healing of the girl, most of those same onlookers had to "eat their words." I'm sure that brought a sour taste as they became, in Mark's words, "utterly astounded."

Reflecting on all of this, it strikes me how serene Our Savior remained all throughout the two encounters with both sickness and sour people. All He did was ask two gentle questions: "Who touched Me?" and "Why this commotion?" You notice that He knew His power as God. Well did He also know that it was sin, "the envy of the devil," that brought sickness and death into the world. As a result, He had to tell people that faith in Him is the ultimate cure of our ills. From a human perspective I imagine that the crowd's shameful behavior must have hurt Him. Yet even that did not distract Him from His mission of healing sick sisters and brothers.

When mockery is made of our Catholic beliefs in the public square what do you do? Shudder into submission? Or do you push back? Jesus tells us today not to be afraid and "just have faith."

Some years ago, Dr. Kent M. Keith wrote "Anyway: The Paradoxical Commandments." They echo the gospel message. They answer the fact that "people are difficult." Here is the good doctor's list:

- People are illogical, unreasonable and self-centered. Love them anyway.
- If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway.
- If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway.
- The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
- Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway.
- The biggest people with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest people with the smallest minds. Think big anyway.
- People favor underdogs, but follow only top dogs. Fight for the underdog anyway.
- What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway.
- People really need help but may attack you if you do help them. Help people anyway.
- Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth. Give the world the best you have anyway.

God love you and give you His peace.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God is the champion of life

We're made for immortality. Christianity celebrates that death has no sting and life has no end. Our tenacious possession of the lives we're given is a sign of our refusal to accept death as the last word on the subject of our lives. We're impatient with limitations, reject gloom-and-doom projections, and insist on second opinions when the news is grim. We relentlessly cling to hope despite the odds of our predicament. God is on our side in this stubborn grip we have on life. God intends for death itself to pass away. Put your resources at the service of life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24; 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15; Mark 5:21-43 (98). "God did not make death, nor does [God] rejoice in the destruction of the living."

MEMORIAL OF IRENAEUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

We're part of the Lord's great chain of being

It's fun to consider "six degrees of separation"—the theory that everyone on Earth is connected to any other person by a chain of five acquaintances. Perhaps you even know how you are connected to someone famous. Imagine being only three degrees separated from Jesus! Saint Irenaeus is known for that claim. He studied under Polycarp, who had been a disciple of the apostle John. We may be countless more degrees removed than Irenaeus, but all Christians are part of the chain that goes back to our Lord because we're the beneficiaries of what's been passed down the links along the way—as well as being links ourselves to the future. Keep those connections strong.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:16-33; Matthew 8:18-22 (377). "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Tuesday, Jun 29, 2021

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

Call me by my new name

Before Jesus, they were Simon and Saul; afterward, Peter and Paul. In the great biblical tradition, both experienced a name change to signify God's call to a new and greater destiny. They became the two pillars of the church. Jesus gave Peter the "keys" to unlock the "kingdom of God," on Earth as it is in heaven—the Kingdom Jesus preached about for three years. Paul received a "sword," the "sword of the Spirit" that's the word of God—which Paul used as he spread the gospel to new lands. Is there something new you can do for God today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18; Matthew 16:13-19 (591). "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Wednesday, Jun 30, 2021

You are part of God's agenda

Prayer has many forms and many expressions: It turns our hearts and minds to God with a desire to praise, to request, to give thanks, or to intercede on behalf of others. Prayer is conversation with God; sitting in silence with God; sharing with God every hope and fear we carry. But as Saint Thomas Aquinas reminds us, "We set forth our petitions before God, not in order to make known to Him our needs and desires, but rather so that we ourselves may realize that in these things it is necessary to turn to God for help." Go ahead, place your concerns on God's desk. There's always space.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 21:5, 8-20a; Matthew 8:28-34 (379).

"When the poor one called out, the LORD heard."

Thursday, Jul 01, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JUNÍPERO SERRA, PRIEST, RELIGIOUS, MISSIONARY

Man on a mission

Today the church honors Saint Junípero Serra, the Spanish Franciscan missionary who tirelessly evangelized native peoples in California in the late 1700s, founding the first nine of 21 missions in the region. His sainthood is not without controversy since missionaries were enmeshed in the brutal Spanish conquest of the Americas, but Serra's record also shows he endured many hardships late in life for the sake of the gospel, genuinely loved the indigenous people, and defended their rights against the worst Spanish abuses. His memorial is a good time to learn about and pray for greater justice for Native Americans and all Indigenous Peoples.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 22:1b-19; Matthew 9:1-8 (380). "He then said to the paralytic, 'Rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home.'"

Friday, Jul 02, 2021

Pray for us sinners

Sometimes denial, shame, and fear keep us from recognizing the harmful effects of our sin. Pope Francis encourages us to give even our sin over to God. As he put it in a 2013 homily, "In my own life, I have so often seen God's merciful countenance, his patience; I have also seen so many people find the courage to enter the wounds of Jesus by saying to him: Lord, I am here, accept my poverty, hide my sin in your wounds, wash it away with your blood. And I have always seen that God did just this—he accepted them, consoled them, cleansed them, loved them." Draw close to Jesus and be comforted.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 23:1-4, 19; 24:1-8, 62-67; Matthew 9:9-13 (381). "Go and learn the meaning of the words, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

FEAST OF THOMAS, APOSTLE

Let doubt deepen your faith

We have come to know today's saint as "Doubting Thomas," but in terms of his legacy, it was the missionary zeal that grew out of his doubt that endures. According to tradition, Thomas traveled far, reaching the Malabar Coast of southwest India, where he established a community still known today as "Saint Thomas Christians." A more diverse mix could not be found: the Nazranis, as they are called, are said to be "Indian in culture, Christian in faith, and Syrian in liturgy," with a dash of Jewish and Hindu influence for good measure. Your doubt can be the catalyst to a faith that endures and leaves a rich legacy. Ask God to help your unbelief!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; John 20:24-29 (593). "You are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
