THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

JOY AMIDST DARKNESS

A man stopped at a garage just at dusk one evening because something about the engine needed attention. A mechanic examined the trouble while a helper stood holding a light under the hood. The helper turned away and turned off the flashlight by accident. The mechanic looked up and exclaimed, "Shine your light. What are you here for?"

In the same way, John the Baptist appears to a people who were surrounded in darkness. They did not see God, but only their difficulties and struggles. John's purpose was to shine God's light to them – the light of hope, in the midst of their darkness. And people responded to this light!

During this time of Advent, we are all called like John the Baptist to shine the light that Christ has given to us generously. Maybe we won't stick out by wearing clothing of camel's hair, but we are called to stick out by going the extra mile. By our kindness, our selflessness, our forgiveness, our charity, our faith, our presence, and our concern, we shine Christ's light into our world.

All that is needed is a minimal amount of light to help those around us see beyond their darkness -that there is hope. As disciples, the more that we chose to stand out in this way, the more we encourage others to radiate this light.

This weekend, we light the rose-colored candle on the Advent wreath – a sign of Joy. This Joy is a byproduct of being witnesses of Christ's light to those around us! Let us shine this light. This is why we are here!

Fr. Kevin

Ministry Highlights

Thank you to all who help prepare our tree in the Atrium each year! It's a beautiful tradition.

On December 3rd, Fr. Alphonse and the Orchestra of St. Peter by the Sea returned to Corpus Christi for the 31st time. They did not disappoint! The music touched our hearts and invited us to slow down during this Advent season – to be watchful and prepared for the coming of the peace and joy of Christmas later this month!

The December, Christmas-themed Senior Mass and Luncheon was a great way to come together in prayer and celebrate the most wonderful time of the year!

Welcome to our two newest Eucharistic Ministers, Peter Guerriero and Arlene Driscoll!

Advent at Corpus Christi

Thank you to the Children's Choir and Teen Handbells for singing and playing at the 9 am Mass on Sunday, December 8th! It was also a great weekend for Children's Liturgy!

Over 50 young adults made their Advent Retreat on Saturday

12/8 with Fr. Glenn Sudano, CFR, here at our church. It was a grace filled time of prayer and reflection for all. May St. Joseph intercede for all workers and the Young Catholic Professionals of North Jersey.

Thank you to the families who lit the Advent Wreath for each Mass for the Second Sunday of Advent!

Our Advent Small Groups are a wonderful way to share your faith with others throughout the season, and grow in your own prayer life. The session at Juniper is having a great time!

Rehearsals during the week for Advent Masses! All singers and instrumentalists are encouraged to participate in our Music Ministry!

This year, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary was celebrated on Monday, December 9th.

Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love

On Sunday, December 8th, several of our ministry leaders participated in an Advent Retreat. The retreat was led by Deacon Frank and titled "Entrusting Yourself to Mary: A Marian Reflection." Thank you to all who took time out of their busy lives to pray, reflect, and share with other leaders of our parish. It was a very meaningful afternoon!

Despite the cold weather, our Prayer Garden continues to find ways to shine. Here is a beautiful holly bush!

The Chargers held their annual Christmas Carol dinner event on Sunday, December 8th. They decorated shell angels and Santas for a craft., and enjoyed a meal with family and volunteers. Afterward, there was Christmas Caroling led by Ron Killian and Paul Carroll.

Bagels with Santa

On Sunday, December 8th, Corpus Christi hosted our annual Bagels with Santa event. It was a fun, joy-filled time for all the children and their families. A special thank you to the Riley, Salomon, and Enright families for their leadership, and all of our amazing volunteers!

A VANLOAD OF BLESSINGS

The Knights of Columbus' Chaplain Archbishop William Lori and Cardinal Edwin O'Brien blessed a new van for the Little Sisters of the Poor in Rome recently during a ceremony at the Order's flagship sports center in Rome, Centro Sportivo Pio XI.

The K of C was the principal donor for the van, with support from several benefactors and friends of the Little Sisters, including Cardinal O'Brien, a Knight and former archbishop of Baltimore, who attended the blessing ceremony. Informally called a "begging van," the new 2024 Fiat Scudo will be used to transport food, furnishings and other donations, as well as travel to other Little Sisters communities in Turin, Bologna and Sicily.

Since the order was founded 185 years ago, the Little Sisters of the Poor have expanded to more than 30 countries.
