A Small Adjustment to Our Mass Schedule - Starting June 29th

Throughout our country and here in the Chatham area, parents are frustrated with their children's progress towards a mature faith. Our staff has heard this from many of you. We're going to address this and make it better for everyone. Moving forward, we will soon make a small adjustment to our weekend Mass schedule to accommodate this.

We needed to be creative in finding a little more time for the sake of our children's lifelong faith formation. There will be one minor change in the starting time of one of our Sunday Masses. Beginning Sunday, June 29th, the 9:00AM Mass will begin at 8:45 AM (15 minutes earlier).

Our new 8:45 AM Mass will provide a specific focus on our children. During the school year, on two Sundays each month, children and their families will be invited to join for Mass in the Church. Our homilist at the new 8:45 Mass will preach in a way that is accessible to children. This bimonthly Children's Mass will be followed by our Family Faith Formation Program, where both children and their parents will grow in their knowledge of our faith. On the other two Sundays of the month, children will be invited to hear the Children's Liturgy of the Word in the Atrium Conference Room as we currently offer it. All our parishioners, of all ages, are welcome to attend the 8:45 AM Mass!

To summarize, beginning on Sunday, June 29, the starting time of the 9:00 AM Mass will be permanently changed to 8:45 AM. As a parish family, we have a special opportunity to help the children of Corpus Christi. I appreciate your support and cooperation in this important initiative for our youth! Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions and I will be happy to share more with you.

Thank you all in advance for your support, and may God bless our families and our children!

Peace,

Fr. Kevin

The Jubilee Year with Fr. James

The Jubilee of Seminarians

The Jubilee of Seminarians, celebrated on June 23-24, is a special moment to pray for and encourage those discerning a call to the priesthood. Pope Francis reminded us that seminarians are not only preparing for ministry; they are signs of hope for the future of the Church. We are blessed that Fr. Joseph DeMarzo III, who grew up in our parish, was ordained a priest on June 7th and celebrated his First Mass on Pentecost morning here at Corpus Christi. Fr. Joseph's First Mass was a sign of hope for the Diocese of Paterson, and I was honored to be his Master of Ceremonies for it.

In addition to celebrating with Fr. Joseph, we have accompanied seminarian Jairo Jaramillo during his time in College Seminary, who will begin First Theology next year at the Immaculate Conception Seminary of Seton Hall University and join a new parish community for his pastoral assignment. We wish him all the best! Jairo's response to his vocation and his commitment to formation has encouraged us all to support those who are discerning the priesthood. As we celebrate this Jubilee, let us pray for Jairo and all seminarians of the Diocese of Paterson. May our parish always be a place where vocations are welcomed, nurtured, and sent forth in the joy of the Gospel.

Fr. James

CORPUS CHRISTI - ST. PATRICK

SOWING SEEDS IN FERTILE GROUND

Despite harsh economic realities, immense spiritual needs and a general decline in priestly vocations across Ukraine, the Knights of Columbus is helping chart a path forward for the country's future priests.

The Order has fostered a dynamic expansion of seminary councils around the world, thanks in part to the Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP), which provides seminarians with both financial assistance and moral support.

Nearly 90 seminarians now participate in Ukraine's three seminary councils. Last year, 17 seminarians in Ukraine received Knights of Columbus scholarships.

Councils identify talented, capable and committed seminarians who present a significant financial need. Through RSVP, the Supreme Council funds about 20% of the scholarships, with local councils covering the remainder. All seminarians in need qualify for K of C support, regardless of whether they are members of the Order.

To learn more about the Knights of Columbus in the Chathams, call John Kelly 201-213-6967.

Celebrating Corpus Christi

Each week at the beginning of Mass, we hear the parish mission statement: We are Corpus Christi. Christ's Joy, Hope, and Healing Received and Shared. Do we internalize it each time we hear it? This weekend as we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi – the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – how can we consider these words more deeply? How can it go beyond just the name of our parish?

St. Thomas Aquinas – who we celebrate on the 800th anniversary of his birth in 2025 – wrote several famous and important texts on the Eucharist. I'd like to share two of these texts here. Pange Lingua is a text that we hear most often at Adoration or after Communion on Holy Thursday during the procession to the Place of Reposition.

Pange Lingua

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Pange, lingua, gloriósi
Córporis mystérium
Sanguisque pretiósi,
Quem in mún-di prétium
Fructus ventris generósi
Rex effúdit géntium. | 1. Sing, my tongue, the Savior's glory,
Of his flesh the myst'ry sing:
Of the Blood, all price exceeding,
Shed by our immortal King,
Destined for the world's redemption,
From a noble womb to spring. |
| 2. Nobis datus, nobis natus
Ex intácta Virgine,
Et in mún-do conversátus,
Sparso verbi sémine,
Sui moras incolátus
Miro clausit ór-dine. | 2. Of a pure and spotless virgin
Born for us on earth below,
He, as man, with us conversing,
Stayed, the seeds of truth to sow;
Then he closed in solemn order
Wondrously his life of woe. |
| 3. In suprémae nocte coenae,
Récumbens cum frátribus,
Observáta lege plene
Cibis in legálibus,
Cibum turbae duodén-ae
Se dat suis mánibus. | 3. On the night of that last supper,
Seated with his chosen band,
He, the Paschal victim eating,
First fulfills the Law's command;
Then as food, to the disciples
Gives himself with his own hand. |
| 4. Verbum caro, panem verum
Verbo carnem efficit:
Fitque sanguis Christi merum,
Et si sensus déficit,
Ad firmándum cor sincérum
Sola fides súfficit. | 4. Word made flesh, the bread of nature
By his word to flesh he turns;
Wine into his blood he changes:
What though sense no change discerns?
Only be the heart in earnest,
Faith its lesson quickly learns. |
| 5. Tantum ergo Sacraméntum
Venerémur cernui:
Et antiqum documéntum
Novo cedat ritui:
Praestet fides suppleméntum
Sénsuum deféctui. | 5. Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Over ancient forms of worship
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith will tell us Christ is present,
When our human senses fail. |
| 6. Genitóri, Genitóque
Laus et jubilátio,
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio:
Procedénti ab utróque
Compar sit laudátio. Amen. | 6. To the everlasting Father,
And the Son who made us free,
And the Spirit, God proceeding
From them each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might and endless majesty. Amen. |

*Latin does not have any diacritical marks (accents or any other markings) over letters. The accents in the text here are to help with pronunciation and to show which syllable has the emphasis.

Panis Angelicus

- | | |
|--|---|
| Panis angelicus
Fit panis hominum;
Dat panis coelicus
Figuris terminum:
O res mirabilis!
Manducat Dominum
Pauper, servus et humilis. | The bread of the angels
becomes the bread of mortals;
the bread of heaven
puts an end to prefigurations.
O wondrous thing!
the poor, the servant and the humble
feed on their Lord. |
| Te trina Deitas,
Unaque poscimus,
Sic nos tu visita,
Sicut te colimus;
Per tuas semitas
Duc nos quo tendimus,
Ad lucem quam inhabitas. | Of you, threefold and
one God, we ask:
Come to visit us
as we worship you;
lead us on your paths
to where we want to go:
to the light in which you dwell. |

Panis Angelicus is a Eucharistic text by St. Thomas Aquinas that was set to music by the French Romantic composer Cesar Franck. We'll hear this at Corpus Christi at the 11:00am Mass this weekend.

As the program year is winding down, excitement for upcoming events continues. Have you considered joining one of our choirs?

Please contact Paul Carroll, Minister of Music, for more information about Music Ministry opportunities and to join any of our parish choirs or ensembles in the new season!

Get Involved in Our Ministries!

EVA'S VILLAGE

We had another amazing outing to Eva's Village on Saturday, June 7th. Our group of generous volunteers gave their time, energy, and compassion to the work at hand. It's hard to overstate how helpful our Corpus Christi crew (always some wonderful regular volunteers, and always some brave new additions!) are at the soup kitchen: whether setting tables, filling water pitchers, dishing up food from the steam trays, stacking the rolling carts with plates full of food, or cleaning up afterward, their selfless service creates a truly welcoming space. It is sometimes hard to consider, in our convivial atmosphere at Eva's Village, that your warm welcome might be the first one our guests have had that day; your smile, the first one they've seen that day, that week. In this way, we are serving more than meals. We are sharing, as we are called to at Corpus Christi, Christ's joy, hope and healing. Our next outing is July 12th, and we look forward to again creating an inviting atmosphere for our brothers and sisters in need. Please join us!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

This Sunday is the last Children's Liturgy for 2024-2025. It was another wonderful year of sharing God's message with the children and of marveling at their openness and insights. Each session they reminded us of all the simple ways we can demonstrate that we are followers of Jesus. We are fortunate to serve in this ministry and look forward to resuming the program on September 14!

PRAYER GARDEN MINISTRY

Thank you to our Prayer Garden Ministry for hosting the Ministry Minute in June! We are excited that there is continued interest in participation and want to warmly welcome new members to our ministry! Recently, some of our youngest members decorated the garden with color by planting annuals and watering. There is always room for more, so if you're interested in joining the Prayer Garden Ministry, please reach out to Jean Dory.

MEN'S SOCIETY

The Men's Society has had great participation these past several months, since starting again in December 2024. They had their June meeting to recap past events and discuss ideas for the coming year, as their meetings will be on break for July and August, starting up again in September. Their faith sharing centered around Pentecost and the Holy Spirit. If you're interested in joining the Men's Society, save the date for our next meeting on Tuesday, September 9th at 7:30 pm.
