A Deeper Look With Father Kevin

Christ the King: To Which Kingdom Do We Belong?

There was an interesting article in National Geographic about the Mbuti people of central Africa, also known as Pygmies. The men there have a remarkable way of making music—and of strengthening community at the same time. They carve musical pipes out of soft wood, but each pipe can play only one single note. One man's pipe might play an A-flat, another's a D, and another's an F-sharp. Because each instrument produces only sound, everyone must work together to create music. If even one person is missing, the song loses its harmony and fullness.

That image beautifully captures what we celebrate this weekend—the Solemnity of Christ the King. “King” can sound like an awkward title for Jesus. Many of us don't have positive images of kings—earthly kings are often distant or self-serving. Yet the title is profoundly fitting as we come to the end of the liturgical year, because it points to God's ultimate purpose for us and for the world.

Jesus is our friend, yes, but He is also our King. He came 2,000 years ago not only to show us His love, but also to save us from sin and open the gates of heaven to those who accept His invitation. He came to establish a Kingdom—a Kingdom that begins here and now and continues forever in heaven. Scripture describes it as a Kingdom of truth and life, a Kingdom of holiness and grace, a Kingdom of justice, love, and peace. We pray for this Kingdom to come in the Our Father.

Some might dismiss this as pious language or wishful thinking. “Just be a decent person and look out for yourself.” But when God wants something to happen—it will! The real question is whether we want to take part in this Kingdom—here, in our families, in our parish, in our workplaces, and in our daily lives. The more that we follow Jesus' teachings, the more that we serve those in need around us, the more that we love like Jesus, we help to usher in God's Kingdom.

Like the Mbuti people, imagine that each member of our parish has a flute that plays one note. The only way Jesus, the great Conductor, can produce a symphony is if each of us shows up and plays our part—using our own time, talent, and treasure in harmony with Him. What would our world look like if we all did that? Through us, Jesus could truly transform our corner of the world. God created us for this very purpose. How beautiful the melody would be!

Fr. Kevin

Have you ever wondered about the meaning of Advent? Join Fr. James Platania, S.Th.D., as he explores the mysteries of this liturgical season.

In this series, you will discover the Catholic Church's teachings on Advent, reflect deeply on the Scriptural foundations that affirm Christ's coming in the flesh and at the end of days, and engage with fascinating philosophical insights on patience, hope, and the dynamics of human expectation in the life of faith.

Each session, Fr. James will offer an inspirational presentation followed by an open discussion, giving participants the opportunity to ask questions and share their reflections with one another. Let us embrace the season of Advent together and prepare ourselves spiritually for Christmas.

December 3rd, 10th & 17th

HARDWIRED FOR MISSION

The inaugural Symposium on Young American Men was held Nov. 3 in Washington, D.C. The daylong symposium was a bipartisan gathering of lawmakers, researchers and leaders of men's organizations convened to address the crisis of isolation and the search for meaning among young men in the United States.

In his opening remarks, Knights of Columbus Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly said, "We are hardwired, as men, for purpose and mission. That's why, last year, our members contributed more than 48 million hours of volunteer service. By serving shoulder-to-shoulder and making sacrifices to help those in need, men find the meaning they're looking for".

Kelly stressed young men's need for authentic human connection rather than its digital surrogates. The K of C helps men find authentic fraternity centered on their faith and identity in God. He said "Ultimately, these men grow together as friends, pursuing a life of virtue".

To learn more about the Knights of Columbus in the Chathams, call John Kelly 201-213-6967. To become a Knight, visit www.kofc.org/joinus.

10 MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

Corpus Christi Parish Community | corpuschristi.org

Get Involved in Our Ministries!

VETERANS DAY BLESSING & HOSPITALITY

On the weekend of November 8 & 9, Corpus Christi recognized veterans at all Masses with a blessing, and the Knights of Columbus gave each veteran a pin. We are grateful for your service! Thank you to Family Ministry volunteers who helped serve at our Hospitality on November 9. Parishioners enjoyed fellowship and patriotic cupcakes to celebrate our veterans.

MARY'S LITTLE HELPERS

We had a wonderful time learning about the life of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini during the November session of Mary's Little Helpers. We played, prayed, and took a mini field trip to the Atrium to see her statue and learn about her life, work, and dedication to immigrants, education, and the sick. We sang "Open My Eyes, Lord" and did a craft in her honor. We learned that she was the first American citizen to be declared a Saint! St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, please pray for us!

MEN'S SOCIETY

The Men's Society gathered on November 11 with a theme of Give Thanks! They opened with a Veterans Day prayer and reflected on gratitude. In addition to discussing upcoming service and spiritual opportunities, their faith sharing centered on "Praise in Chains," and how praise brings spiritual freedom even in the darkest circumstances. Please join us at our next session on Tuesday, December 9 at 7:30 pm.

CHRISTMAS IN A BOX

Volunteers gathered on November 11 to decorate the Atrium and trim the trees with all of the tags and ornaments for Christmas in a Box. Thank you to everyone who helped prepare! Parishioners are encouraged to support this ministry - with 625 gifts for children, teens, seniors, and families requested this year - either through individual gifts or by donating to Christmas in a Box on our website.
