A Deeper Look With Father Kevin

Update on the Capital Campaign

This past fall, I invited our parish family to participate in a parish-wide survey conducted by Guidance in Giving. I am very grateful to all who took the time to respond prayerfully and thoughtfully. The results were deeply encouraging and reflected a strong love for our parish and a shared desire to plan carefully for its future.

With the assistance of Guidance in Giving, we are continuing this important work by gathering additional information, evaluating available options, and seeking bids where appropriate. In addition, I have invited several parishioners—Hugo Barth, Janet Barth, and Kevin Zerrenner—to serve on a Capital Campaign Leadership Team. They will work closely with me, our parish staff, and Guidance in Giving throughout this process.

Together, this team will help identify our highest-priority needs, assist with thoughtful planning and oversight, and ensure that all funds raised are managed wisely, responsibly, and transparently. This period of preparation is an essential step, allowing us to move forward with care and good stewardship as we address necessary capital improvements to our church, parish community spaces, and rectory.

I see this process not simply as planning for buildings or projects, but as a time of discernment—asking how we can best support the mission of our parish, strengthen our ministries, and ensure that our parish remains a welcoming place of worship, prayer, and service for years to come. I ask for your continued prayers as this work progresses and for your patience as we take the time needed to do it well.

With hope and trust in God's providence, we look toward beginning a parish capital campaign after Easter this year (April 5th). The Easter season reminds us that God is always bringing new life and renewal. May we continue to walk forward together in faith, united as one parish family, grateful for all that God is doing among us!

Fr. Kevin

Reflections with Father James

On Time and Attention

Time is where our lives take place. It is the space in which God addresses us and draws us forward into his eternity.

Modern life encourages efficiency and constant movement. Days are often measured by output and deadlines. This reality can even enter our churches. The Catholic tradition invites a different posture. Time is first received by the soul as a sacred gift.

Ratzinger returned often to this theme. Because God has entered history in Jesus Christ, time carries weight and direction. Each moment belongs within a story shaped by God's presence. When we attend to time properly, we learn to remain with the present moment and to recognize how God works patiently.

Ordinary Time provides a steady rhythm for this way of living. The Church slows our pace and trains us to live each day well. In doing so, she teaches us to trust the gradual work of God. When time is received as gift, each moment becomes a place of encounter with God and those around us.

Fr. James

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Update: The Retirement Fund for Religious collection will now take place at all Masses on the weekend of February 6/7, 2026.

Support those who have given a lifetime! Women and men religious have dedicated their lives to service - praying, teaching, and caring for those in need - usually for little to no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your donation provides for the essential care, medicine, and daily needs of thousands of senior women and men religious. This year Salesian Sister Maryann Schaefer will speak at all the Masses. You can also donate by visiting our website or scanning the QR code.

Thanks for your care and concern for those who have served the Church so faithfully.

CORPUS CHRISTI - ST. PATRICK

MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE SCORE

At the 126th annual Army-Navy football game last month, more than 60,000 people watched cadets and midshipmen face off in one of college football's most storied rivalries. But when the action paused at halftime, college Knights from both military academies organized a display of spiritual strength: leading dozens of others in praying a rosary, a public witness to their faith.

Cadets from West Point and midshipmen from Annapolis huddled with over 200 other people in the stadium concourse to pray.

"It is so wonderful that you are here — Pro Deo et Patria, for God and country," said Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly, referencing the motto of the Army Chaplain Corps. "We live in a great country where we can do this — practice our faith in public. And we can do it because we have the armed forces to protect these freedoms."

10 MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

Corpus Christi Parish Community | corpuschristi.org

Get Involved in Our Ministries!

EVA'S VILLAGE

We again sent "snow angels" out in the storm this past Saturday, January 17, to be of service to our brothers and sisters at Eva's Village. Our lunch service was joyful, and we are grateful to be of assistance to those in need. We are always looking for new volunteers! Please sign up on our website for the next opportunity on February 7.

MEN'S SOCIETY

At the January gathering, the Men's Society prayed together and discussed upcoming retreat, social, and service opportunities. For faith sharing, we listened to Sea Turtles from Chris Stefanik on Hallow. It explored the dangers of distractions in the spiritual life and to avoid being drawn to the wrong lights, like baby sea turtles. We also read The Temptation of Jesus (Matthew 4:1-11) and discussed about Jesus facing the devil. When things are going badly, it's easy to listen to the voice of doubt. Jesus found strength because he relied on God. Please join us for our next session on February 10 at 7:30 pm.

ORNAMENT CONTEST

Congratulations to Nina Siva who won a prize for the Ornament Contest at our Bagels with Santa! Thank you to everyone who participated!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Last Sunday, Children's Liturgy spoke about how John the Baptist identified Jesus as the Lamb of God and that the spirit descended upon him like a dove recognizing Jesus as the Son of God. The Holy Spirit is like the wind - we can't see it, but we can know it is there. We gave other examples of things that we can't see but we know that are there. In our discussion, we talked about ways to be kind and how we can help others at school and in the home. We decorated sheep with cotton balls and colored them with a sign underneath that said, "Behold the Lamb of God."
