A Deeper Look With Father Kevin

Catholic Schools Week

This weekend ends Catholic Schools Week. Having gone through part of my elementary years and all my high school years at Catholic schools, I now realize how much of a difference that it made in my life. It helped me to develop all of who I am today: body, mind and soul. I didn't always appreciate my time in Catholic schools as I was going through those years.

Yet looking back, the formation that I received truly prepared me for my life and my vocation as a priest. It helped me to see my education as part of my journey to know and love God more deeply. It taught me discipline and hard work. It challenged me academically. Catholic education also instilled in me a sense of service to others, to my community, and to the poor, as part of my discipleship and my walking with God throughout my life. It helped me to see service as not just a responsibility but a privilege.

I am so grateful for what my parents did for me and the sacrifices they made so that I could attend Catholic schools during those years. This is why I am such a strong proponent of Catholic education today!

I ask you to consider Catholic education as an option for your children. We are blessed with many Catholic schools to choose from in our area. I would like to highlight St. Vincent Martyr School in Madison and St. Patrick School in the borough. Also, Morris Catholic High School in Denville. It is right on the train line. They all have much to offer us and our families! For more information, contact www.patdioschools.org

Reflections with Father James

The Beatitudes

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus opens his teaching with the Beatitudes. They are a unified description of the interior life. The Beatitudes trace the formation of the Christian way of life, beginning with humility and culminating in peace and perseverance.

Saint Augustine describes this ordered structure:

"The order of these Beatitudes is most beautiful. First comes humility: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit,' for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. Then meekness follows: 'Blessed are the meek.' Third comes mourning: 'Blessed are those who mourn.' Fourth is the desire for righteousness: 'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.' Fifth is mercy: 'Blessed are the merciful.' Sixth is purity of heart: 'Blessed are the clean of heart.' Seventh is peace: 'Blessed are the peacemakers.' Eighth comes endurance of persecutions for the sake of righteousness. By these steps the soul is brought to perfection." (De Sermone Domini in Monte, Book I, Ch. 3)

For Augustine, the Beatitudes describe a progressive formation of the soul. Humility grounds the entire sequence and opens the soul to God. From this interior disposition comes mercy, purity of heart, and peace. Perseverance under trial marks the maturity of Christian life. Read in this way, the Beatitudes present a complete vision of Christian beatitude, that is, happiness.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Update: The Retirement Fund for Religious collection will now take place at all Masses on the weekend of February 7/8, 2026.

Support those who have given a lifetime! Women and men religious have dedicated their lives to service - praying, teaching, and caring for those in need - usually for little to no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your donation provides for the essential care, medicine, and daily needs of thousands of senior women and men religious. This year Salesian Sister Maryann Schaefer will speak at all the Masses. You can also donate by visiting our website or scanning the QR code.

Thanks for your care and concern for those who have served the Church so faithfully.

The "Ministry Minute"

One weekend each month, we host a "Ministry Minute" at all Masses. There is a different ministry highlighted each month, and a ministry leader or member speaks about their experience. We hope that these 60 seconds inspire you to learn more about the amazing things going on at Corpus Christi, and encourage you to join a new ministry!

PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council is a consultative body to the Pastor, comprised of committed parishioners with varied backgrounds, perspectives, skills, and talents. The Council is called to be aware of and help respond to the needs of the people of the Parish. The Council's ministry is to envision, plan, and oversee the implementation of policies and activities (present and future) in line with the Parish Vision/Mission Statement.

A SPACE TO GROW AND FLOURISH

Chana Gaskins still remembers how a maternity home supported by the Knights of Columbus changed her life – and her baby boy's. "I had the space to be with my child in a really good environment, in a really good neighborhood, and in my own space," recalled Gaskins, who lived at a Gabriel Network maternity home in Ellicott City, Maryland. "That part was everything I needed at the time."

Women like Gaskins are the reason why Knights of Columbus councils are helping crisis pregnancy centers with manpower and donations. Councils, including Parcells Council in Chatham, have also donated over 2,000 ultrasound machines so that mothers can see their babies in the womb.

It's part of our dedication to life, which includes helping to fund and run the recent March for Life in Washington, DC.

To learn more about the Knights of Columbus in the Chathams, call John Kelly 201-213-6967. To become a Knight, visit www.kofc.org/joinus.
