A Deeper Look With Father Kevin

Divine Mercy Sunday

Trust can be the hardest part of our journey of faith. We trust God when life is going well—but what about when things fall apart? When our prayers seem unanswered? When our suffering makes us wonder where God is?

This devotion comes to us through St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who, in the 1930s, experienced profound encounters with Jesus. In those encounters, He revealed His deep desire that the world come to know and trust in His mercy. The image of Divine Mercy, with rays of light flowing from His heart, carries the message - that His mercy is always being poured out for us. And at the center of it all is this invitation, not just to know about God, but to trust Him.

Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us that we trust not because we have all the answers...but because we know who God is. A God who wants to lavish His mercy. A God who will never abandon us. A God who loves us where we are.

And this devotion does not end today. The call to trust in Jesus and to receive His mercy is something we carry throughout the entire year, in our daily prayer, in the Sacraments, and in the way we live.

To help us enter more deeply into this trust, we will have a Divine Mercy Holy Hour this weekend, Sunday, April 12 at 3:00 PM. All are welcome. Come as you are. Bring whatever is on your heart. And allow the Lord to meet you there—with His mercy. Jesus, I trust in You.

Fr. Kevin

Reflections with Father James

His Mercy Endures Forever

The Second Sunday of Easter has long been associated with the mercy of God revealed in the Resurrection. The Resurrection reveals that sin and death do not have the final word. Christ returns to his disciples bearing the wounds of the crucifixion, and through those wounds peace is given. Mercy enters where human weakness and failure are most visible.

St. Augustine reflects on the patience of God toward sinners:

“God’s mercy is greater than all human misery. For the Lord does not abandon the work of his hands. He patiently calls the sinner back so that the one who had fallen may rise again through grace.” (Enarrationes in Psalmos)

The Christian life therefore unfolds within a continual invitation to return to God. Divine Mercy Sunday places that invitation before us in a particular way. It encourages renewed trust in the Lord, a sincere confession of sins, and a willingness to extend mercy to others. The mercy revealed in the risen Christ remains active today, and the Church continues to proclaim that no situation lies beyond the reach of God’s grace.

Corpus Christi Parish Community | corpuschristi.org

HOLY WEEK 2026

A special thank you to all who took and shared photos!

Thank you for joining us for Palm Sunday Weekend! We continue to give thanks for all our liturgical ministries and the gifts that they share with our parish, especially at this time of year. We are so blessed!

Palm Sunday

Our Tenebrae: Music and Meditation was a beautiful evening of choral music and Scripture readings. The darkness or shadows in contrast with each candle's light being extinguished provided a somber and reverent experience. Thank you to all who participated and attended!

Tenebrae

At the Mass of the Lord's Supper, we commemorated the institution of the Eucharist and the Priesthood. During the Washing of the Feet, we were reminded of the importance of humility and serving others as Jesus taught. We would like to thank Fr. Kevin, Fr. James, and Msgr. Mahoney for the gift of their vocations and service at Corpus Christi! All were then invited for Adoration at the Altar of Reposition.

Holy Thursday

HOLY WEEK HIGHLIGHTS 07

April 12, 2026 | Divine Mercy Sunday

Triduum, which takes place over the course of three days, began on Holy Thursday, and continues through Holy Saturday. The Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday celebrates the redemptive death of Jesus on the Cross. We meditated on the Lord's Passion and venerated Jesus' Cross, while praying for the needs of the whole world.

Good Friday

The Easter Vigil marked the turning point of the Holy Triduum, as we celebrate Christ's Resurrection, and His passage from death to life. Congratulations to all who received the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. May God bless you all!

Thanks to everyone who came out for our annual Easter Egg Hunt! The weather was perfect, and we were even visited by a very special guest – the Easter Bunny! Thank you to Youth Ministry and all the volunteers!

Holy Saturday

On Easter Sunday, we celebrated the Mass of the Lord's Resurrection. It is the greatest of all Sundays, for Christ is risen! The Masses in the church and in the hall were all filled with parishioners - families who came together to celebrate Christ's triumph over death. We were so happy to have you with us! May God bless you and your families this Easter Season!

DIVINE MERCY REDISCOVERED

To crown the holy days of Lent and Easter, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday today, the last day of the Easter Octave.

By establishing this feast on the day he canonized Sister Faustina Kowalska, St. John Paul II fulfilled the desire Jesus expressed in a vision to St. Faustina nearly 70 years earlier: "My daughter, tell the whole world about my inconceivable Mercy." In the Divine Mercy image, we see rays pouring forth from Jesus' heart. They symbolize the purifying and life-giving merciful sacraments. He patiently waits for us.

Divine Mercy Sunday is a feast day to ask for the grace to see what God has done for us and is doing for us; to examine our conscience and to ask: How am I using my time and encounters with others to share the good news of God's great mercy?

To learn more about the Knights of Columbus in Chatham, call John Kelly 201-213-6967. To join online, visit www.kofc.org/joinus.

Become A Part Of Our Ministries!

THE CHOSEN

Our Chosen discussion group recently enjoyed viewing Season 3, Episode 7 "Ears to Hear," Jesus heals a deaf man, as discussed in Mark 7:31-37. We also talked about the parable of the Great Banquet, and how the show portrays the unrest in the area of the Decapolis, where Jesus' ministry is ramping up. Scripture from Esther served as a backdrop for illustrating the celebration of Purim. We'd love to have you join us for the last episode in this season, a Zoom discussion on Wednesday April 22nd. Please register on our website.

EASTER FOOD DRIVE

Thank you to parishioners for dropping off food donations and Men's Ministry volunteers who led our Easter Food Drive on Palm Sunday, March 29. We are grateful for all who were involved in the preparation, collection, and distribution of donations!

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Thank you to everyone who joined us for Stations of the Cross! A special thank you to our Men's Ministry for leading us on March 27.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

On Palm Sunday, Children's Liturgy focused on how the people in the village and on the way to Jerusalem prepared for and welcomed Jesus. The children talked about how they might have felt if they were there - excited, maybe a bit nervous, and in awe - and how making others feel welcome and special is a nice thing to do. Everyone decorated Palm Sunday frames with palms, "Hosanna," and a cross.

Made you look.
