A Deeper Look With Father Kevin

Living Stones: Honoring Our Past, Building Our Future

In this weekend's reading, St. Peter reminds us: "Like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house..." (1 Pt 2:5). The Church is not simply a building - it is a people. Each of us is a "living stone," called to be part of something greater that God is building.

This vision is at the heart of our capital campaign, Honoring Our Past, Building Our Future. While we are addressing real needs such as caring for our facilities and enhancing our sacred spaces, we do so for a deeper purpose: to strengthen the life of our parish.

Our church exists to help us encounter Christ, especially in the Eucharist, and to grow together as disciples. From that encounter flows everything—our service, our generosity, and our mission to bring Christ's joy, hope, and healing to others.

St. Peter tells us, "Let yourselves be built." God is at work, but He invites our response. Through prayer, service, and sacrificial giving, each of us has a role to play.

As our parish celebrates our 60th anniversary, we give thanks to those who came before us. Their faith and sacrifice have built the parish we cherish today. Now it is our turn - to renew and strengthen it for future generations.

This week, we began our first campaign receptions, gathering parishioners to share the proposed vision. I am deeply grateful to our campaign committee who have worked behind the scenes - planning, organizing, and helping shape the scope of the projects. A special thank you to our Church environment committee, whose role is to oversee the renewal of the visual and sacred design of our church and atrium. I am also thankful for the support of our campaign advisors, Guidance in Giving, who continue to assist us throughout this process. Lastly, I am grateful to our parish staff for their dedicated work in supporting this initiative.

Fr. Kevin

Reflections with Father James

Jesus Christ, the Way to the Father

The Gospel for this Sunday gives us one of Jesus' most Christological and profound statements: "I am the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6). These words are spoken at the Last Supper when the disciples are uneasy. Thomas asks, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus offers himself as the answer. The first Christians understood this experience of relationship with Christ. In the Acts of the Apostles, Christianity is called "the Way" (cf. Acts 9:2). Christianity was never only a set of doctrines. It was a way of life, a path into communion with the Father through Jesus Christ, our Dominus.

St. Thomas Aquinas writes: "Christ is the way by which we go; the truth to which we go; and the life in which we remain" (cf. Commentary on John, ch. 14). Our Gospel asks a question to us. Is Christ the way that orders my life, or is he one concern among many? To follow him means allowing his Truth to shape our choices, his Life to sustain our souls, and his Way to guide us to the Father.

CORPUS CHRISTI - ST. PATRICK

ST. JOSEPH: MODEL FOR THE KNIGHTS

In the first year of his pontificate, Pope Francis received the Knights of Columbus' Board of Directors in a private audience, during which he said "I commend all of you in a special way to the intercession of St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family of Nazareth, who is an admirable model of those manly virtues of quiet strength, integrity and fidelity which the Knights of Columbus are committed to preserving, cultivating and passing on to future generations of Catholic men."

On this past Friday, the Church celebrated St. Joseph the Worker, which was established by Pope Pius XII in 1955. We give thanks to God for the gift of his fatherly example and dedication to his family. And we hope to imitate his courageous dedication to serving God.

To learn more about the Knights of Columbus in Chatham, call John Kelly 201-213-6967. To join online, visit www.kofc.org/joinus.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Thank you to our fellow parishioners for your generous donations last weekend, which will help us support a Corpus Christi family facing serious medical challenges. If your family is ever in need, we will do our best to be there for you as well.

Your continued generosity has also made it possible for us to visit the Lantern Hill and Chatham Hills assisted living communities, where we shared in winter and spring art projects with residents—bringing joy, laughter, and meaningful connection to all involved.

If you would like information about joining our Saint Vincent de Paul Society contact Patrick Martin. (862) 226-9559 | pwmartin817@optimum.net
