Dear Parishioners,

One of the important religious figures of Advent is Mary ---along with John the Baptist and Isaiah, the prophet ... We celebrate Mary on December 8 and again on December 12 ... there are 4 Marian dogmas which the church calls us to believe --- the Immaculate Conception that Mary was free from original sin from the moment of her conception, that Mary is the Mother of God, that Mary enjoyed perpetual virginity and that Mary was assumed into heaven at the time of her death ... these dogmas are part of Mariology, the study of Mary in our faith ... we study about Mary because Mary leads us to Jesus ... her divine motherhood was promulgated in 431, her perpetual virginity in 553, her immaculate conception in 1854 and her assumption in 1950 ... we pray THROUGH MARY TO JESUS.

Queridos feligreses,

Una de las figuras religiosas más importantes del Adviento es María, junto con Juan el Bautista e Isaías el profeta... Celebramos a María el 8 y el 12 de diciembre... Hay cuatro dogmas marianos que la Iglesia nos invita a creer: la Inmaculada Concepción, que María estuvo libre de pecado original desde el momento de su concepción; que María es la Madre de Dios; que María gozó de virginidad perpetua; y que María fue asunta al cielo en el momento de su muerte... Estos dogmas forman parte de la Mariología, el estudio de María en nuestra fe... Estudiamos a María porque ella nos conduce a Jesús... Su maternidad divina fue proclamada en el año 431, su virginidad perpetua en el 553, su Inmaculada Concepción en 1854 y su Asunción en 1950 ... Oramos por intercesión de María a Jesús.
