Daily Meditation: John 6:51-58

My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. (John 6:55)

In 1975, while traveling to Saigon, Vietnamese Bishop Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan was arrested and thrown into prison. His family sent him a bottle labeled “medicine,” which was actually wine, as well as some hosts broken into small pieces. With these essentials, he shared the power of Jesus in the Eucharist with his fellow prisoners: “The six Catholics in my group of fifty prisoners . . . slept close together in order to be able to pray during the night. At nine-thirty every evening . . . , I bent over my wooden board and celebrated Mass, by heart of course, and distributed Communion to my neighbors under their mosquito nets. We made tiny bags from cigarette paper to protect the Blessed Sacrament. “Every week there was an indoctrination session. . . . My Catholic companions took advantage of the break to pass around the Blessed Sacrament to other groups. Jesus Christ was at work, curing physical and mental suffering. Many of the others who had lost their faith came back during those days. “At night, the prisoners took turns and spent time in Adoration. The Blessed Sacrament helped tremendously. Even Buddhists and other non-Christians were converted. The strength of the love of Jesus is irresistible. The darkness of the prison turned into light, the seed germinated silently in the storm. “I spent nine years in solitary confinement, and during that time I said Mass every day at three o’clock, the hour of Jesus’ death on the cross. . . . They were the most beautiful Masses of my life.” (The Road to Hope) After thirteen years in prison, Bishop Nguyen Van Thuan was released. Named a cardinal in 2001, he died a year later. All his life, Jesus in the Eucharist was his “true food” and “true drink” (John 6:55). May the Eucharistic Lord always be ours as well! “Jesus, Bread from Heaven, nourish and sustain me all the days of my life!”

Proverbs 9:1-6 | Ephesians 5:15-20 | John 6:51-58

Community Food Security Program

No one should go hungry. With job disruptions, health risks, and school closures, thousands of people in our communities turn to food banks for much-needed support. The number of people served through our parish and school food security programs each month in our area has increased significantly. Your gift to the Community Food Security Program will help sustain and replenish parish and school food pantries where demand has skyrocketed throughout the archdiocese. Please check out the following homepage: <https://adw.org/ways-to-give/food-pantries/>
