Daily Meditation: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders?

If a little is good, wouldn't more be better? That seems to be the underlying logic of the Pharisees and scribes in today's Gospel reading. They saw the purity rules from the Law of Moses as a good thing—and they were. These rules set God's people apart among the nations and were meant to form his own character in them (see Deuteronomy 4:1, 6-7). But the thirst for "more" of a good thing led to the addition of extra rituals for washing and purification over the centuries. And by the time these Pharisees confronted Jesus about his disciples' behavior, they were trying to uphold countless detailed but unwritten customs that were considered by some to be just as binding as the Mosaic law. In the end, these attempts to revere God turned into what Jesus called "cling[ing] to human tradition" (Mark 7:8). The extra practices, though well-intentioned, focused attention in the wrong direction. Jesus' response gets to the heart of the matterour hearts! What we eat or how we wash our hands doesn't make us unclean. We defile ourselves by our thoughts, words, and actions that spring from within us (Mark 7:23). Growing in purity and godliness starts in our hearts and moves into our words and actions from there. That means that the answer to your thirst for holiness isn't about adding more "rules" to help you become even more pure. It's asking yourself questions like "What's going on in my heart? What's motivating me?" If you see sinful attitudes, repent. Let the Lord uproot them and replace them with his own thoughts and desires. Then receive God's power to change as you set your heart on loving him and loving the people he's put into your life. That's how you can get more of a good thing as you seek to follow God's laws.

"Lord, help me to follow you with all of my heart!"

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8 | James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27 | Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Korean Altar Servers Excursion

Last Sunday, August 25, our Korean Altar servers visited the Old Korean Legate. Located on Logan Circle, the building became the Korean Legation in 1889 and provided a main stage for the active diplomatic endeavors of the Joseon dynasty and Korean Empire for sixteen years. Today, the Old Korean Legation building is the sole example preserving its original appearance among the extant nineteenth-century diplomatic mission buildings in Washington D.C. and is highly valued for its historical significance.

Our next Mass will be on Saturday, September 7, at 8:00 am

The Mass will be celebrated in Latin - Novus Ordo.

LECTOR WORKSHOP

We are constantly looking for parishioners who are willing to be lectors at on of our Sunday Masses.

There will be Lector Workshops (ca. 15 min) on the weekend of September 21/22 after each Mass.
