DAILY MEDITATION: LUKE 2:22-40

Mary and Joseph must have replayed this scene in their minds many times. When they presented their newborn son to the Lord in the Temple, they hadn't expected a man named Simeon to prophesy that Jesus would be "a light for revelation to the Gentiles" and "a sign that will be contradicted" (2:32, 34). But how and when would these things happen? And how would a sword pierce Mary's heart (2:35)? The couple left the Temple "amazed," but then returned to Nazareth and resumed their ordinary day-to-day lives (Luke 2:33, 39). Just like their neighbors, they worked, enjoyed Shabbat dinners, and attended synagogue each week. And while the question of what would ultimately happen to Jesus must have hung over them, they knew that God had given them a mission: to raise his Son. They couldn't let their concerns about his future deter them from doing what was required in the present, even when it involved the most mundane chores and duties. Do you often wonder—and even worry—about the future? You might ask yourself, "How will my life and those of my loved ones unfold over time? Will I be able to accomplish what I think God is calling me to do? Will my loved ones be safe and happy? Will I live a long and healthy life?" Whatever your concerns, however, like Mary and Joseph, don't let them prevent you from doing what God is calling you to do right now—today. That work might look pretty routine from your point of view, but it's nevertheless important in God's eyes. Today, on this feast of the Presentation, take some time to surrender any worries you might have about the future to the Lord. Ask for the grace to focus on the responsibilities right in front of you, and trust that God will be with you, no matter what the future holds.

"Jesus, as I go about my day, I will place my trust in you."

Malachi 3:1-4 | Hebrews 2:14-1 | Luke 2:22-40

Each year, on or near February 3, the Feast of St. Blaise, parishes offer the Blessing of the Throats. Traditionally, candles are crossed against the throat while the priest or another designated minister says the blessing.

Saint Blaise was a bishop who was martyred in Armenia in 316. According to legend, he was an excellent physician in his hometown of Sebastea and studied many of the great philosophers. When the Bishop of Sebastea died, Blaise was chosen to replace him, and many are said to have come to him seeking spiritual and physical healing. Although the Edict of Milan granting freedom of worship in the Roman Empire had been issued in 313 by co-ruling Emperors Constantine I and Licinius, persecution of Christians was still widespread. Fearing arrest, Bishop Blaise fled, living in a cave with only animals for company.

Eventually, however, he was found and imprisoned. According to legend, either while on his way to prison or while in prison, a mother came to him because her young son had a fish bone lodged in his throat. Upon Saint Blaise's prayers, the child was able to cough up the bone. That is why he is considered the patron saint for relief from throat ailments. Despite being beaten and tortured by Agricolaus, the governor of Cappadocia, Saint Blaise refused to deny his Christian faith. He was beheaded as a result.
