DAILY MEDITATION: LUKE 6:17, 20-26

Blessed are you who are poor. (Luke 6:20)

Can you imagine telling someone without a job or a place to live, "Look at how much God has blessed you!" That's not something anyone should do, and it's not what Jesus is doing in today's Gospel. He is doing two things: he is proclaiming

God's care and concern for those who are materially poor, and he is announcing blessings on "his disciples," who have "left everything and followed him" (Luke 6:20; 5:11). He is blessing all those who have accepted the poverty, the hardship, and the rejection they are experiencing as followers of Jesus. The Greek word that is translated as "blessed" in today's Gospel carries a number of meanings, including "happy," "fortunate," or "enjoying divine favor." So Jesus is reinforcing for his disciples that the life they have chosen is ultimately a life of happiness. He promises them "the kingdom of God" (Luke 6:20). He promises them that the day is coming when they, along with all those trapped in poverty, will "laugh" and "leap for joy" (6:21, 23). He makes the same promises to you. Jesus knows how challenging it can be to live out the call to discipleship. He knows there are days when you feel as if you're always swimming against the current of the world. He sees the sacrifices you make to be generous with your resources. He sees your humility as you strive to forgive those who have hurt you. If this describes you in any way, then know that Jesus calls you blessed.

Know that he is promising you all the joys of his kingdom. And know that he is blessing you right now. As Jeremiah proclaimed in today's first reading, he is making you as strong as a "tree planted beside the waters" (17:8). Even if you don't feel particularly blessed today, you can still take heart because Jesus is faithful to all his promises.

"Lord, help me to trust in your blessings when the call to discipleship feels hard."

Jeremiah 17:5-8 | 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 | Luke 6:17, 20-26

2025
Annual Catholic
Services Appeal

Spirit of Hope

The Roman Catholic
Archdiocese of Washington

appeal.adw.org #adwappeal

The turning of the calendar to February means the Annual Catholic Services Appeal is at hand. On behalf of Cardinal Gregory, thank you to all our families who made a contribution in 2024 to help the archdiocese reach its goal.

Now, I ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to the 2025 Annual Catholic Services Appeal. If you are not familiar with the Appeal, you may wonder how it is different and separate from your offertory giving to the parish. The Appeal funds ministries that our parish could not sustain on our own, such as seminarian formation, campus ministry programs and Deaf and disabilities ministries. Third, the Appeal supports our parish ministerial life, from schools and catechesis, to family and pro-life ministries, to many more in between. The Annual Catholic Services Appeal is a call to stewardship. It is not mandatory. This means that the many vibrant ministries we have in the archdiocese are the result of families such as your own who have responded generously each year with your free will offering. I am particularly grateful, as a priest of the archdiocese, for your contribution which helps to inspire new vocations and form our new generations of priests.

Visit appeal.adw.org to learn more about how the Appeal benefits our parish and serves people in need throughout the archdiocese.

STATE OF PRIESTLY VOCATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (John 20:21)

These words of Jesus Christ to his apostles have reverberated throughout history as the catalyst for vocations to the holy priesthood, sending salvific ripples to the farthest corners of the Earth. A priest bears the works of God into the world, bringing forgiveness and grace to a culture without hope through the sacraments. Priests are the foundational mediators between God and humanity, ushering in the practical graces of a life lived with Jesus Christ: forgiveness of sins and the grace of the Eucharist. Unfortunately, the numbers of Catholic priests and vocations are on a consistent downward trend in the United States, even in dioceses that are doing comparatively well. But just because we recognize downward vocational trends does not mean we have to assume that continued diminishment of the priesthood is inevitable in the Church in America. The entire Church must encourage each individual's response to God's call. Praying for vocations is foundational and essential since vocations are always a gift from God. That is why from now on a prayer for vocations will be added to our general intercessions. Also, stay tuned: our "Vocations Tree" is coming soon!
