DAILY MEDITATION: REVELATION 1:9-13, 17-19

Do not be afraid. (Revelation 1:17)

Anyone would have been afraid! Most Jews believed that if they saw the glory of God face-to-face, they would die. This explains why St. John, who wrote the Book of Revelation, collapsed to the ground when he was brought into the presence of the “one like a son of man” (Revelation 1:13). Even John, who had walked with Jesus, witnessed his transfiguration, laid his head on Jesus’ breast, and watched as he ascended to heaven, was overwhelmed! Jesus’ response to John is perfect for today’s celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday: “Do not be afraid” (Revelation 1:17). He didn’t tell John that there was no reason to fear; he touched him, offered a word of encouragement, and raised him up. That expression of love and intimacy overcame John’s fears and enabled him to stand before his glorious Lord. That’s what mercy is all about! It’s the perfect love of God, which “drives out fear” (1 John 4:18). This is the same mercy Jesus showed to Thomas in today’s Gospel. Thomas doubted the resurrection because he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes. But Jesus came and invited Thomas to touch his wounds and “believe” (John 20:27). Like John, Thomas experienced a mercy that saw his unworthiness and still drew him close. We can experience that mercy, too. Jesus knows that in the light of his glory, we are all frail and flawed. He knows that in the light of his truth, we often doubt and distrust. He knows we are not worthy to come to him on our own merits. Yet in his power and holiness and glory, he is patient with us. As he did for Thomas, he sees our weakness and shores up our faith. As he did for John, he calms our fearful hearts and assures us of his love. So don’t be afraid to come to Jesus today. Don’t be afraid to let him see you as you truly are.

Come and hear him say, “Do not be afraid.”

“Jesus, thank you for the depths of your mercy!”

SOLEMN CENTENARY MASS

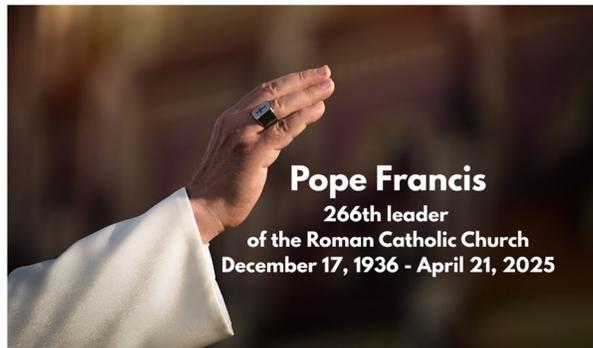

Our Parish is excited to celebrate our 100 Year Anniversary, a true testament to God's faithfulness and the hard work of our community.

I cordially invite you to join us for our Solemn Centenary Mass celebrated by His Excellency, Most Reverend Roy Campbell, in thanksgiving for all the blessings God has bestowed on our parish.

Please join us celebrating
Sunday, May 18, 2025
at 10:30 AM

EPIPHANY CATHOLIC CHURCH,
2712 DUMBARTON STREET,
NW WASHINGTON, D.C. 20007

Following the Mass, we will gather for a Parish Feast and enjoy a social gathering as we continue to celebrate this joyous milestone.

On Monday, April 21, 2025, Pope Francis died at age 88. With the death of Pope Francis on Monday, the Catholic Church has entered a mourning period, which will include nine days of Masses offered for the repose of his soul known as the Novendiales. According to Church law, the Novendiales will begin on the day of the pope's funeral, April 26, and will be followed by consecutive days of Masses until May 4.

Therefore, on May 3, we will celebrate our First Saturday Mass at 8 AM as Memorial Mass for Pope Francis.

OCIA Class 2024/2025

This Easter, 14 catechumens entered the Catholic Church. Nine Candidates were received into full Communion with the Church or completed their Sacraments of Initiation. Congratulations! What a wonderful sign that our Church is alive. Once again, my heartfelt gratitude to all who helped preparing them over the last couple of months.
