DAILY MEDITATION: LUKE 13:22-30

Strive to enter through the narrow gate. (Luke 13:24)

Jesus didn't mince words. As he passed through the towns, he warned his listeners. There's a gate, and passing through it won't be easy. But you've got to get through it. This image of a "narrow gate" illustrates Jesus' mission perfectly: he traveled from village to village, "teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem" (Luke 13:24, 22). Jesus' whole life pointed toward Jerusalem, where he would fulfill his mission. There he would unveil his Father's plan of salvation as he freely offered his life for us. He never stopped moving toward the cross. And as he went, he visited town after town, teaching all who would listen. This was Jesus' "narrow gate," and he did not avoid it (Luke 13:24). Even more, he invited everyone to follow him through that gate of obedient, self-giving love. That's because he knows that the narrow gate is the way to eternal life. His warnings might frighten us, but Jesus doesn't want to scare us; he wants to save us. And so every day, he offers us the chance to enter the narrow gate—by our acts of love and our obedience to his commands.

Just as he visited the towns near Jerusalem, Jesus visits your town, your house, and your heart. He comes to teach you how to follow him all the way to heaven. He invites you to "strive to enter" the gate that leads to eternal life (Luke 13:24). And the best news? He is the gate (John 10:7), and his arms are open wide to help you. He is always offering you the grace you need to follow him.

So open your heart to Jesus. If the gate feels too narrow, the path too difficult, or your resistance too great, confess your need to the Lord. Ask for his help! He loves you immeasurably. He embraced the cross so that the narrow gate could open wide for you.

"Lord, help me to follow you through the narrow gate."

WOMEN'S MORNING OF RECOLLECTION

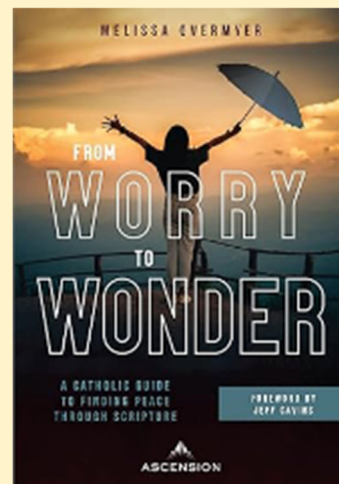

All women parishioners are invited to a special morning of recollection with author and parishioner Melissa Overmyer as we reflect on her inspiring book From Worry to Wonder: A Catholic Guide to Finding Peace Through Scripture.

Join us for a time of prayer, Mass, fellowship, and spiritual renewal as we journey from anxiety to deeper trust in God.

FALL 2025

MARIAN CONSECRATION:

If you would like to participate in Epiphany's Fall Marian Consecration (or a reconsecration for those who consecrated last year), please get in touch with Tanya Wetenhall at tanyawetenhall@gmail.com for details.

We will start on September 7th.

Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did.

St. Maximilian Kolbe

WHAT IS MARIAN CONSECRATION?

“Consecration” is the act of dedicating something to a “sacred purpose.” “Marian” refers to Mary, the most Blessed Virgin, and Mother of God. When we put the two terms together, we understand that Marian Consecration is the act of entrusting our souls to Mary. We look to Mary as our spiritual Mother and ask for her guidance to grow in holiness and deepen our relationship with Him.

ORIGIN

Traditionally, Marian consecrations include thirty-three days of preparation, culminating in a formal Act of Consecration to Mary on the final day. This structure comes from St. Louis de Montfort, who lived during the seventeenth century and wrote True Devotion to Mary. While St. Louis de Montfort is known for popularizing the thirty-three-day Marian Consecration, people have long looked to Mary to grow closer to Jesus.

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son.” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.
