THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

From February 21-24, 2019, the Vatican hosted a Meeting on the Protection of Minors in the Church. Over two hundred bishops representing 180 Bishops' Conferences from around the world were in attendance. In addition several different bishops or patriarchs in charge of different Eastern Rites of the Catholic Church participated in this historic gathering. Cardinal Séan O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston, participated in the Conference. He reported in his most recent blog post (<http://www.cardinalseansblog.org>) that all the talks were excellent. He was particularly moved by the address of Dr. Valentina Alazraki, a veteran Vatican journalist from Mexico who gave a compelling presentation on the role of the media and what the Church's relation to the media needs to be. Another very compelling testimony was given by Sister Veronica Openibo. Pope Francis gave the concluding address at the conference in which he underscored dimensions of the problem of sexual abuse of minors both inside and outside the Church. There are the eight points of action with which he ended his speech. I will give the first four in this week's column and the other four in next week's column:

1) The protection of children. The primary goal of every measure must be to protect the little ones and prevent them from falling victim to any form of psychological and physical abuse. Consequently, a change of mentality is needed to combat a defensive and reactive approach to protecting the institution and to pursue, wholeheartedly and decisively, the good of the community by giving priority to the victims of abuse in every sense. We must keep ever before us the innocent faces of the little ones, remembering the words of the Master: "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fashioned around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of scandals! For it is necessary that scandals come, but woe to the man by whom scandal comes (Mt 18:6-7).

2) Impeccable seriousness. Here I would reaffirm that "the Church will spare no effort to do all that is necessary to bring to justice whosoever has committed such crimes. The Church will never seek to hush up or not take seriously any case" (Address to the Roman Curia, 21 December 2018). She is convinced that "the sins and crimes of consecrated persons are further tainted by infidelity and shame; they disfigure the countenance of the Church and undermine her credibility. The Church herself, with her faithful children, is also a victim of these acts of infidelity and these real sins of "peculation" (ibid). [Peculation is the wrongful appropriation or embezzlement of shared or public property, usually by a person entrusted with the guardianship of that property.]

First Sunday in Lent

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

*Where do I encounter temptation? When do I give in?
How do I withstand it?*

WEDNESDAY

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Beginning Wednesday, March 13th, Wednesday Adoration will be held in the Church, 9:30 a.m. - 7:15 p.m. This only applies to Lenten time. Once Lent is over, Adoration will move back to the Rectory (Wednesday, April 24th).

PAX CHRISTI MEETING

A Pax Christi meeting will be held on Monday, March 11th at 7:30 pm in the Youth Room of the Rectory. Due to the recent inclement weather, this will be a joint meeting with the members of the St. Rose Pax Christi Group. All are welcome to attend.

3) Genuine purification. Notwithstanding the measures already taken and the progress made in the area of preventing abuse, there is need for a constantly renewed commitment to the holiness of pastors, whose conformity to Christ the Good Shepherd is a right of the People of God. The Church thus restates “her firm resolve to pursue unstintingly a path of purification, questioning how best to protect children, to avoid these tragedies, to bring healing and restoration to victims, and to improve the training imparted in seminaries...An effort will be made to make past mistakes opportunities for eliminating this scourge, not only from the body of the Church but also from that of society” (ibid.). The holy fear of God leads us to accuse ourselves—as individuals and as an institution—and to make up for our failures. Self-accusation is the beginning of wisdom and bound to the holy fear of God: learning how to accuse ourselves, as individuals, as institutions, as a society. For we must not fall into the trap of blaming others, which is a step toward the “alibi” that separates us from reality.

4) Formation. In other words, requiring criteria for the selection and training of candidates to the priesthood that are not simply negative, concerned above all with excluding problematic personalities, but also positive, providing a balanced process of formation for suitable candidates, fostering holiness and the virtue of chastity. Saint Paul VI, in his encyclical Sacerdotalis Caelibitatus, wrote that “the life of the celibate priest, which engages the whole man so totally and so sensitively, excludes those of insufficient physical, psychic and moral qualifications. Nor should anyone pretend that grace supplies for the defects of nature in such a man” (No. 64).

Until next week,
Fr. John Dillon

This collection is directed toward the Church in Latin America, Central and Eastern Europe, and Africa. It supports evangelization, the education of clergy and laity, youth ministry, catechesis, social service programs, and church construction and renovation. The faithful in these areas are often limited in what they can contribute, so your generosity will provide support for areas of ministry we often take for granted in our archdiocese.

HOOPS FOR HAITI JUST AROUND THE CORNER

You heard them at the pulpit, and now see them on the court! Just two more weeks until our Hoops for Haiti basketball fundraiser will bring the Ol' Saints and the Swole Saints back into battle at 7:30p pm at the Our Lady of Good Counsel High School Gymnasium in Olney. The basketball game offers a great way to enjoy a fun family event, while supporting the Haiti Ministry. Come at 4:30 pm for the 3-on-3 basketball tournament and stay for Bible trivia, fun games, great food, face painting and the main game. For more information about Hoops for Haiti, please contact Fr. Jack Berard at sfayouth@sfadw.org or Youth Ministry CORE member Wendel Hall at wendel@halllawoffice.net.

RCIA - The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion will take place today at 3:00 at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion is a significant moment in the initiation process of the Catechumens and Candidates. This rite signifies God's choice of the Catechumens and their response to His call. After this rite the Catechumens will be called "the Elect". The St. Francis of Assisi community, represented by the godparents and sponsors, will give witness to God's election of the Catechumens and recognition of the Candidates. Please, pray for our Catechumens, Matt Perisin and Julia-Emma Mutombo and our Candidates, Clara Grothe, Emma Grothe, Erick Funte, and My-Linh Rouil as they move from the Rite of Election into the final period of preparation for initiation at the Easter Vigil.

The Penitential Rite will be celebrated at the 11:15 Mass on Sunday, March 17. The Penitential Rite is celebrated for the RCIA Candidates (those who are already baptized). It serves to mark the Lenten purification of the Candidates who are preparing to receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Along with the Candidates, the sponsors and the St. Francis community, also, participate in the celebration of the penitential rite. All participants, in their own different ways, will hear the comforting message of pardon for sin, for which we will praise the Father's mercy.

The Scrutinies will be celebrated Sunday, March 24th at the 5 pm Mass, Sunday, March 31st at the 11:15 Mass, and Sunday, April 7th at the 9:30 Mass. The scrutinies are rites of self-searching and repentance for the Elect (those who are not baptized) who are seeking initiation into the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil. They are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak or sinful in the hearts of the Elect; and to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. During our Lenten journey, we should use the penitential rite of the candidates and the scrutinies of the elect to prepare ourselves for Easter.
