THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

In my column today I want to continue listing some pointers on parish etiquette. These reflections were first presented by Barbara Budde in a pamphlet (which is no longer in print) for the National Pastoral Life Center. Today I want to make some suggestions about what to do if Mass has already begun or if you need to leave early.

ARRIVING AND LEAVING

At theatre productions and concerts latecomers are asked to remain in the lobby, waiting until an intermission to be seated. Some parishes follow this model and do not open the doors to latecomers until there is a break in the liturgical action of the Mass. Others ask latecomers to remain in the vestibule or in the back of the church if they arrive during the readings, psalm, or homily. What's the point? To help those who are assembled to pray together without interruption or distraction...Every parish, of course, wants all who gather to participate from the moment they arrive to the closing sound of our common prayer and song. Good planning helps us to be on time most of the time. Here are some habits to develop for arriving and leaving:

- Greet others as you arrive.
- Pick up any worship aids or hymnals you will need to participate fully.
- Make space for others to sit in any empty pews or chairs near you, even if you prefer to remain near an aisle.
- Turn off any pagers, watch alarms, or cell phones (unless you must carry such for medical emergencies or other serious reasons).

If Mass Has Already Begun...

- Use the church entrance that will be least disturbing to others who have already gathered.
- Search out seats before walking down the aisle or ask an usher or hospitality minister for assistance in finding a seat.
- Choose an appropriate time to join the assembly, such as during a song, but not during the readings or prayers. It is best to wait for the right moment to enter.
- Know that it is better to be present even if late than it is to be absent from the assembly altogether.
- Be hospitable to those already gathered (smile and use body language if you have to ask someone in a pew to move down, for example) as you silently join the assembly.

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How can I allow the Spirit to guide me more fully? How will that affect how I treat both those who treat me well and those who mistreat me?

THE SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER IS ALMOST HERE

Usher in Lent this week by joining us for the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper from 5-8 pm Tuesday, February 25, in the Parish Center. Bring your whole family to enjoy hotcakes, eggs, bacon, sausage, hash browns and plenty of sweet treats to dress up your pancakes. Admission is $8 for adults; $5 for kids six to 12; free for children under five; and $25 for families. Interested in helping? Please contact Special Events Ministry Coordinator Sylvia Jones at (301) 762-6564. Hope to see you there!

JOIN US IN OUR PARISH'S DAY TO TAKE A STAND FOR LIFE

On Saturday, March 21, all parishioners are invited to stand up for life at St. Francis of Assisi Parish's Day, part of the Bethesda 40 Days for Life Spring Campaign. Join your fellow parishioners from 10 am to 5 pm in praying, fasting and keeping vigil at LeRoy Carhart's late-term abortion clinic, 10401 Old Georgetown Road, in Bethesda. The campaign runs from February 26 through April 5, which tracks the 40 days of Lent from Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday. Attendees will meet on the public sidewalk along the white fence on Old Georgetown Road. For more information, please e-mail Director of Social Concerns and Adult Faith Formation Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfadw.org.

If You Need to Leave Early...

- Move at a time when the assembly is also in motion. Walk toward an exit during the Communion procession, for example.
- On leaving, remain in place until the Mass is over and the procession has left the church. The time after Communion and the concluding rites (with announcements) are both important to the communal aspect of the liturgy as a whole.
- Replace worship materials and hymnals at the end of the service.
- Clean up your personal belongings before you leave and leave the worship space tidy for the next congregation.

*Until next week,
Fr. John*

ALL ARE INVITED TO COMMEMORATE FILIPINO SAINT PEDRO SALUNGSOD ON MARCH 28

The Archdiocese of Washington, together with its Filipino communities, will commemorate the Feast Day of San Pedro Calungsod, the first Filipino saint from the Visayan region, with a series of events on Saturday, March 28, at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Kensington, MD. Beginning at 12:15 pm, the events will lead off with an opening prayer and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a service project, culminating with a Mass in Tagalog at 3 pm to be celebrated by Fr. Ryan Pineda. The event will close with a potluck reception beginning at 4 pm. All are welcome to honor San Pedro Calungsod, who worked with Spanish Jesuit missionaries at the age of 14 to help catechize natives of Guam. He was martyred in 1672 while defending his faith and was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012. San Pedro Calungsod's feast day is celebrated on Thursday, April 2. For more information, please contact parishioner Medy DeAusen, at medy-deausen@comcast.net.

CAR NEEDED

The parish Pax Christi group needs your help in obtaining a used car in good condition for one of the families we assist on refugee/asylee status. If you have a car you would like to donate or sell cheaply, please contact Mary Kate Ryner at rynoslp@msn.com or Chris King at caking.home@gmail.com. If you donate your car to Pax Christi, you may be eligible for a tax deduction.

A REMINDER FROM FR. JOHN ... If anyone is living in a marriage that has not been recognized by the Catholic Church, it would be wise to consult with a priest to see whether that situation might be rectified. It could be as simple as repeating your marriage vows quietly in front of a priest and receiving the Church's blessing. In that way, one would become eligible to receive the Sacraments of the Church, especially the Eucharist.
