THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

We are now in the second week of a new liturgical year. Often people make resolutions at the beginning of the year in the hope that they can make small improvements in their lives that will help us grow in virtue. One of the things that we could look at is how we spend our time, and notably how we spend our Sundays. What might we do now in the midst of the COVID-19 restrictions on our time and activities? What might we do when we return to a more “normal” schedule? Here are some thoughts.

A number of years ago Saint John Paul II wrote an apostolic letter on Sunday (Dies Domini) in which he made the following suggestion:

Through Sunday rest, daily concerns and tasks can find their proper perspective: the material things about which we worry give way to spiritual values; in a moment of encounter and less pressured exchange, we see the true face of people with whom we live. Even the beauties of nature—too often marred by the desire to exploit, which turns against man himself—can be re-discovered and enjoyed to the full.
(Dies Domini, no. 67)

It is true that certain people must work on Sundays. These include healthcare providers and public safety workers, including first responders. They need to work on Sundays to keep the rest of us safe and healthy. Other people must work for economic reasons that are beyond their control.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church provides us with good advice about appropriate activity on the Lord’s Day:

Sunday is traditionally consecrated by Christian piety to good works and humble service to the sick, the infirm, and the elderly. Christians will also sanctify Sunday by devoting time and care to their families and relatives, often difficult to do on other days of the week. Sunday is a time for reflection, silence, cultivation of the mind, and meditation which furthers the growth of the Christian interior life (CCC, no. 2186)

Here are some suggestions that may help us to celebrate the Lord’s Day more fully:

- Don’t use Sundays as your catch-all day for errands and household chores.
- Share a family dinner after Mass. Have the whole family join in the preparation and cleanup.
- Go for a walk or bike ride and give thanks to God for the beauty of nature.
- Spend time reading the Bible or a spiritual book.
- Pray the Rosary or the Liturgy of the Hours, alone or with others.
- Volunteer in a local food pantry.
- Visit parishioners and others who are homebound.
- Read Bible stories to your children.
- Turn off gadgets and enjoy the silence.

Many of the ideas I have taken from “Celebrating the Lords Day” copyright @2010, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops., Washington, D.C. Used with permission. All rights reserved. If you would like a complete copy of the document, please let me know and I’ll be glad to send it to you.

Until next week,

Fr. John

Second Sunday in Advent

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What concrete action can I take this week to prepare myself for Jesus' coming?

ADVENT ACTIVITIES

During this Advent season, St. Francis parishioners are invited to take part in prayer, penance and preparatory sacrifices, as we anticipate celebrating the birth of our Lord and his return to us as our Redeemer and Savior. We invite you join in some of the following events and liturgies happening this Advent:

Digital Advent Mission: December 6, 13, and 20 from 8-9 pm. Join a multi-part online mission, titled, "The Fulfillment of All Desires," led by Catholic thought leader and author Ralph Martin. The event is free and registration is required at www.renewalministries.net/advent-mission.

Alternative Christmas Gift Program: Through December 16. This popular Advent program invites you to purchase a gift or service from a local or global charity and receive a card that can be given to a loved one in lieu of a material gift. Download the flyer and order from the parish web site at <https://www.sfadw.org/advent-christmas>; please return your selections and money to the church by December 16. For more information, contact Ministry Coordinators Pat O'Connor or Doris Chung.

Community Gifting Opportunities (Spirit Tree Gift Program, Christmas Stocking Help Line and St. Patrick Catholic Church's Holiday Giving Program): Now through early December. Instead of wrapped Christmas gifts, the Pope Francis Outreach Center at Assumption Church in Washington DC is asking this year for $10 and $25 gift cards from Safeway, Giant, and Aldi to be distributed to families in need. Alternately, the St. Patrick Catholic Church's Holiday Giving Program invites St. Francis parishioners to donate $10, $25 or $50 gift cards from area grocery stores or big-box retailers, such as Target or Giant. Parishioners wishing to participate can:

- Put cash or gift cards in an envelope marked 'Spirit Tree Gift Program' or 'St. Patrick Holiday Giving Program' and place it in the Rectory mailbox, in the marked basket at the back of church during in-person Mass or in the marked basket in the Gathering Space during the Sunday Communion service. Donations for the Spirit Tree Gift Program are due by Monday, December 7, and for the St. Patrick Holiday Giving Program by Tuesday, December 21.
- Religious Education families can also help Christmas be extra special for area families served by Catholic Charities of Montgomery County through the Christmas Stocking Help Line Program. In lieu of gifts, families are invited to donate department store gift cards.

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

RACIAL JUSTICE & THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Join Fellow Parishioners in Reading and Discussing Racial Justice and the Catholic Church The parish Ad-Hoc Committee on Racism has selected Racial Justice and the Catholic Church by Fr. Bryan Massingale for its inaugural book discussion on racial justice topics. This is a challenging book to read, and it raises some important points that bring awareness and clarity to racial justice issues. Parishioners are invited to the first virtual meeting from 3-4:15 pm Saturday, December 12. Discussion topics will include how culture affects racism and how the Catholic Church's position on racism has evolved. For more information, please contact Ann Pierre, pierrea35@hotmail.com, Ron Hays, Hays4mail@gmail.com, or Chris King, caking.home@gmail.com.

SUPPORT THE AGING RELIGIOUS

Next weekend, the second collection is for the Retirement fund for Religious. Many senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for little or no pay. Today, religious communities often do not have enough savings to meet retirement needs. Your gift helps provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders. Please be generous.

FAITH DIRECT - ONLINE GIVING

I want to invite you in joining me and many others at St. Francis of Assisi in setting up recurring eGiving through Faith Direct. Thanks to eGiving, your weekly offertory will be automatically taken care of, which saves you time and saves our parish money by eliminating all those unused offertory envelopes. To sign up for electronic contributions visit www.faithdirect.net. The code for St. Francis is MD110 or text the word ENROLL to 301-804-2584.
