THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

An item that has been in the news lately is the discovery of the remains of over 200 children at a former indigenous residential school in Canada. Both Canadian bishops and indigenous leaders are pushing for a papal apology because this particular Indian Residential School in Kamloops, British Columbia, which was founded in 1890, was run by both the local Catholic Church and the Canadian government until it closed in 1978. Calls are being increased for Pope Francis to make a formal public apology for the crimes and abuses committed against indigenous children at the schools on behalf of the Catholic Church. Since similar schools were run in the United States, it is timely that we look at racism and the experience of Native Americans. The information that I am presenting on this comes from a background sheet entitled "Racism and the Native American Experience." Here is the link for this background position paper for those who wish to consult it directly: racism-and-native-american-experience.pdf \(usccb.org\).

In the November 2018 Pastoral Letter Against Racism, Open Wide Our Hearts, the Catholic bishops of the United States urge all Catholics to acknowledge "the scourge of racism" that still exists in our hearts, words, actions and institutions. Racism is rooted in a failure to acknowledge the human dignity of people of a different race. It does not reflect the inner life of God—the Triune unity of three-in-one—that we are called to imitate. Racism manifests itself in sinful individual actions, which contribute to structures of sin that perpetuate division and inequality. The Native American experience offers a particular illustration of racism in history and today.

When Europeans arrived on the shores of this country, they were often blind to the dignity of indigenous peoples. Colonial and later U.S. policies toward Native American communities were often violent, paternalistic, and directed toward the theft of Native American land. Native Americans were killed, imprisoned, sold into slavery, and raped. These policies decimated entire communities and brought about tragic death.

The results were massive forced relocations of people as endured by the Cherokee people on the "Trail of Tears" and of the Navajo in the "Long Walk." Thousands of men, women, and children died during those forced removals. Schools and orphanages began "Americanizing" Native children by forcing them to abandon all facets of their culture, including their native languages. The devastation caused by national policies of expansion and manifest destiny, fueled by racist attitudes, led to the near eradication of Native American peoples and their cultures.

The effects of this evil remain visible in the great difficulties experienced by Native American communities today. Poverty, unemployment, inadequate health care, poor schools, the exploitation of natural resources, and disputes over land ownership in Native American communities are the legacy of these evils today.

AS YOUTH MINISTRY PARTNERSHIP ENDS, OUR PARISH SEEKS INPUT IN REIMAGINING FAITH FORMATION FOR OUR TEENS

On July 1, St. Francis of Assisi Parish will end its youth ministry partnership with St. John Neumann Parish, based in Gaithersburg, opting to bring faith formation for teens back to our home parish. Our parish joined forces with St. John Neumann two years ago to convene the youth in neighboring parishes, leverage our collective resources and try out a new model of Youth Ministry. One of the realities of a joint Youth Ministry between parishes is that it offers shared leadership, but it also raises the challenge of keeping youth connected with their home parish. Since we begin a new fiscal year on July 1, this seemed like the right time for our parish to reevaluate and reassess what we are offering to the youth of our parish. Fr. John Dillon convened a virtual meeting with the parents of our parish's teenagers on June 22 to discuss how they would like a youth ministry program to form the faith of and influence the spiritual growth of their teens. More information will be shared with the parish, as a new program model takes shape. If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office at (301) 840-1407.

THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

In Heritage and Hope: Evangelization in the United States (NCCB [National Conference of Catholic Bishops] Pastoral Letter, 1990), the U.S. Catholic bishops wrote, "As Church, we often have been unconscious and insensitive to the mistreatment of our Native American brothers and sisters and have at times reflected the racism of the dominant culture of which we have been a part." All Catholics are called to give renewed attention to historical and present injustices resulting from racism against Native Americans, better integrate the needs and contributions of Native Catholics, and work for greater justice for the descendants of the first Americans.

Let me leave you with this closing thought:

"We ask the Catholic community to join us in seeking new understanding and awareness of their situation and in committing our Church to a new advocacy and action with our Native American brothers and sisters on issues of social justice and pastoral life which touch their lives." –U.S. bishops, 1992: A Time for Remembering and Recommitting Ourselves as a People.

Until next week,
Fr. John

ALL ARE INVITED TO RETURN TO THE IN-PERSON MASS!

Beginning June 26-27, St. Francis of Assisi Parish will resume its pre-pandemic Mass schedule, as the obligation to return to Sunday Mass and on holy days is reinstated throughout the Archdiocese of Washington. The Mass times will be:

- 5 pm Saturday
- 8 am, 9:30 am, 11:15 am and 5 pm Sunday

During this time of COVID-19, the parish has adopted in-church protocols that are aligned with federal, state and county health guidance but maintain strong consideration for those who are most vulnerable. In-church protocols include recommended mask wearing, although not required for those who are fully vaccinated; limited congregational singing; and a required three feet of distance to be maintained between separate households. See our in-church protocols at <https://www.sfadw.org/reopening-our-parish>.

The parish no longer offers any new virtual Masses nor an in-person Communion service on Sundays. The archdiocese still offers a Sunday TV Mass, which airs at 10:30 am every Sunday on WDCW-50 on the following channels:

- No cable; Dish or Direct TV subscribers: Channel 50
- Comcast: Channel 23 in Washington, DC and Montgomery County
- RCN: Channel 15
- Verizon: Channel 3

As we emerge from the pandemic, we are overjoyed to welcome everyone back to Mass! Please know we will continue a gradual adoption of former Mass practices put on hold by the pandemic, as COVID cases continue declining and vaccination rates tick up. For more information, contact the Parish Office at (301) 840-1407.

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY TO CONSIDER RCIA STARTING THIS FALL

Do you know someone who is interested in knowing Jesus Christ better in our Catholic faith tradition? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults will begin in September, so it is not too early to begin telling your friends and acquaintances about RCIA at St. Francis of Assisi Parish. If you know anyone who might be interested in entering RCIA, please ask them to call the Parish Office at (301) 840-1407 and leave their name and contact information. If you are interested in becoming a member of the RCIA team or a sponsor, please contact Director of Adult Faith Formation Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfadw.org.

A REMINDER FROM FR. JOHN ... If anyone is living in a marriage that has not been recognized by the Catholic Church, it would be wise to consult with a priest to see whether that situation might be rectified. It could be as simple as repeating your marriage vows quietly in front of a priest and receiving the Church's blessing. In that way, one would become eligible to receive the Sacraments of the Church, especially the Eucharist
