THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

Before I was ordained to the priesthood I was on the editorial board for Ancient Christian Writers, a book series of English translations of early Christian writers. The managing editor was Fr. Dennis Mc Manus, a priest of the Archdiocese of Mobile. Fr. McManus also worked as a liturgist for a number of years at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Camillo Barone, a staff reporter for the National Catholic Reporter (NCR) tells the story in a recent column in NCR about Fr. McManus and the late James Cardinal Hickey, former Archbishop of Washington. (Cardinal Hickey ordained me to the diaconate and priesthood in 1998.)

In 1997, Fr. McManus took a call from Cardinal Hickey who was badly shaken from a very recent experience when he visited Auschwitz, the former concentration camp in Poland. Dennis was known even then as an expert on the Holocaust and Jewish-Catholic history. Cardinal Hickey explained that he wanted to talk with someone who knew something about prayer and Jewish-Catholic relations in light of his experience at the crematorium at Auschwitz.

Cardinal Hickey had been part of a private tour of Auschwitz. As he walked through the gas chamber where hundreds of thousands were killed, he paused before one of the ovens where ashes and bones were still visible. Overwhelmed, he put his hand in the ashes and started to pray.

Suddenly he was surrounded by a group of men in stripped prison uniforms, speaking in German, Polish, and Yiddish—languages that Cardinal Hickey did not understand. He turned to them to say that he was sorry, but he did not understand what they were saying. Then the group of men vanished after a few seconds.

Cardinal Hickey flew to Rome to talk with Pope Saint John Paul II because he was badly shaken by the vision. In a private audience with the Holy Father, Cardinal Hickey related what happened to him at Auschwitz. Pope John Paul II listened and immediately nodded. "It has happened to other priests who visited Auschwitz," he said. "They are saying: This must never happen again." Pope Saint John Paul II also told the Cardinal that the voices he heard were imploring him to do something so that this wouldn't happen ever again. Cardinal Hickey then asked Pope John Paul II what he should do to answer their request. Pope John Paul said in reply, "Ask God."

Cardinal Hickey did that and then launched Bearing Witness—a joint program between the Catholic Church and the ADL (Anti-Defamation League)—to help Catholic educators examine the distressing history of Catholic-Jewish relations and to learn the Church's teaching on this important relationship since Vatican II. The program has continued to the present day. From July 23-26, 2025, there was a seminar for Catholic School Educators in New York City entitled "We Remember: Exploring the Holocaust and Antisemitism for Catholic School Educators."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

When has something I've said or done in accordance with my faith divided family or friends? How have I handled this? Could I have handled it better?

WOMEN ARE ENCOURAGED TO JOIN WALKING WITH PURPOSE THIS FALL

Walking With Purpose Bible studies combine personal study with small group discussion, linking our everyday challenges to the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. If you desire to grow in your faith—in a supportive community of Catholic women—Walking with Purpose is for you!

Using the book, “Touching the Divine,” this group will learn about divine qualities of Jesus revealed in the Gospel of John. We begin from 10:15-11:45 am Thursday, October 9. Using the book, “Viviendo en el amor del Padre,” and conducted in Spanish, a second group will learn about God’s unconditional love. We’ll meet from 11:15 am-12:45 pm September 14, 21, 28 and October 12, 19, and 26.

Order your book and learn more at walkingwithpurpose.com. Questions? Contact Lita (litasilva4@gmail.com) or Eileen (chaleygrams@gmail.com).

The seminar took its name from the 1998 Vatican document We Remember: A Reflection on the Shoah. The Catholic educators who participated not only reflected on the Holocaust but also confronted the tragic history of Jewish-Christian relations and the work done toward healing as they commemorated the sixtieth anniversary of Nostra Aetate (a declaration from Vatican II that emphasized the Catholic Church’s commitment to fostering positive relations with non-Christian religions, particularly Judaism and Islam, and condemned antisemitism). Catholic educators explored the profound responsibility of teaching the Holocaust within the context of faith, morality, and human rights through an agenda that included expert-led sessions, survivor testimonies, interactive workshops, the latest pedagogy, and opportunities for prayer and reflection.

Let me close this reflection by quoting the last paragraph of We Remember: A Reflection on the Shoah:

Finally, we invite all men and women of good will to reflect deeply on the significance of the Shoah. The victims from their graves, and the survivors through the vivid testimony of what they have suffered, have become a loud voice calling the attention of all of humanity. To remember this terrible experience is to become fully conscious of the salutary warning it entails: the spoiled seeds of anti-Judaism and anti-Semitism must never again be allowed to take root in any human heart.

Until next week,
Fr. John

USE YOUR INTERCESSORY & EVANGELIZING GIFTS IN TELLING OTHERS ABOUT OCIA

As Catholics, we are called to be both intercessors and evangelizers to those who may want to better know Jesus. If you have the gift of offering your prayers and your faith witness, then consider inviting others to our Order of Christian Initiation program. Led by our dedicated OCIA teams, the OCIA program is for those interested in being baptized, becoming Catholic, or completing their Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist).

St. Francis of Assisi Parish offers two program tracks – one for English speakers and one for Spanish speakers. On Tuesday, September 16, Spanish speakers curious about our faith will begin meeting in small groups in the Rectory’s Youth Room, while English speakers will begin exploring our Catholic faith on Wednesday, September 17, in the Kuehner Room.

Over a 10-month period, the OCIA teams will meet with interested persons to help facilitate discussions and answer questions about the Catholic faith. If these participants commit to their journey of faith, they will be welcomed next spring as full members of the Church at the Easter Vigil. For more information, please contact Fr. Grzegorz Okulewicz at gokulewicz@sfdw.org about OCIA in Spanish or Director of Social Concerns and Adult Faith Formation Tony Bosnick at abosnick@sfdw.org about OCIA in English.

And we would like to thank Patrice for her leadership in many ministries, including as a Religious Education catechist, Bingo team member, Confirmation Team member, and coordinator of writing the Prayers of the Faithful.

Our program will kick-off in mid-September.

Use sus dones intercesores y evangelizadores para contarles a otros sobre OCIA

Como católicos, estamos llamados a ser intercesores y evangelizadores para aquellos que quieran conocer mejor a Jesús. Si tiene el don de ofrecer sus oraciones y su testimonio de fe, considere invitar a otros a nuestro programa de Orden de Iniciación Cristiana. Dirigido por nuestros dedicados equipos de OCIA, el programa de OCIA es para aquellos interesados en ser bautizados, convertirse en católicos o completar sus sacramentos de iniciación (Bautismo, Confirmación y Eucaristía).

La parroquia de San Francisco de Asís ofrece dos programas: uno para angloparlantes y otro para hispanohablantes. El martes 16 de septiembre, los hispanohablantes curiosos sobre nuestra fe comenzarán a reunirse en pequeños grupos en el Salón de Jóvenes de la Rectoría, mientras que los angloparlantes comenzarán a explorar nuestra fe católica el miércoles 17 de septiembre en el Salón Kuehner.

Durante un período de 10 meses, los equipos de OCIA se reunirán con personas interesadas para ayudar a facilitar las discusiones y responder preguntas sobre la fe católica. Si estos participantes se comprometen con su camino de fe, serán bienvenidos la próxima primavera como miembros de pleno derecho de la Iglesia en la Vigilia Pascual. Para obtener más información, comuníquese con el P. Grzegorz Okulewicz en gokulewicz@sfiadw.org sobre OCIA en español o con el Director de Preocupaciones Sociales y Formación en la Fe de Adultos, Tony Bosnick, en abosnick@sfiadw.org sobre OCIA en inglés.

Se anima a las mujeres a unirse a Caminando con Propósito este otoño

Los estudios bíblicos de Caminando con Propósito combinan el estudio personal con la discusión en grupos pequeños, vinculando nuestros desafíos cotidianos con las soluciones que se nos dan a través de las enseñanzas de Cristo y la Iglesia Católica. Si desea crecer en su fe, en una comunidad de apoyo de mujeres católicas, ¡Caminando con propósito es para usted!

Usando el libro, "Tocando lo Divino", este grupo aprenderá acerca de las cualidades divinas de Jesús reveladas en el Evangelio de Juan. Comenzamos de 10:15 a 11:45 am el jueves 9 de octubre. Usando el libro, "Viviendo en el amor del Padre", y conducido en español, un segundo grupo aprenderá sobre el amor incondicional de Dios. Nos reuniremos de 11:15 am a 12:45 pm el 14, 21, 28 de septiembre y el 12, 19 y 26 de octubre.

Ordene su libro y obtenga más información en walkingwithpurpose.com. ¿Preguntas? Póngase en contacto con Lita (litasilva4@gmail.com) o Eileen (ehaleygrams@gmail.com)
