THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

For my message today, I want to use something that I wrote nearly seven years ago, as it remains very timely.

In addition to being the first day of the New Year, January 1, 2019, was the fifty-second World Day of Peace. Pope Francis has made several observations about good politics being at the service of peace in his message for the World Day of Peace. In talking about the challenge of good politics, Pope Francis noted that "Political office and political responsibility thus constantly challenge those called to the service of their country to make every effort to protect those who live there and to create the conditions for a worthy and just future. If exercised with basic respect for life, freedom and dignity of persons, political life can indeed become an outstanding form of charity.

In his message for the fifty-second World Day of Peace, Pope Francis recalled the "Beatitudes of the Politician," proposed by Vietnamese Cardinal François-Xavier Nguyễn Văn Thuận (1928-2002):

Blessed be the politician with a lofty sense and deep understanding of his role.

Blessed be the politician who personally exemplifies credibility.

Blessed be the politician who works for the common good and not for his or her own interest.

Blessed be the politician who remains constant.

Blessed be the politician who works for unity.

Blessed be the politician who works to accomplish radical change.

Blessed be the politician who is capable of listening.

Blessed be the politician who is without fear.

After quoting these "Beatitudes of the Politician," Pope Francis observed that every election and re-election, and every stage of public life, is an opportunity to return to the original point of reference that inspire justice and law. The Holy Father believed that it was certain that good politics is at the service of peace. Good politics also respected and promoted fundamental human rights, which were at the same time mutual obligations that enabled a bond of trust and gratitude to be forged between present and future generations.

At the end of his message for the fifty-second World Day of Peace, Pope Francis recalled that we celebrated the seventieth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which was adopted in the wake of the Second World War. In this context, it is also good to remember the observation of Pope Saint John XXIII: "Man's awareness of his rights must inevitably lead him to the recognition of his duties. The possession of rights involves a duty of implementing those rights, for they are the expression of a man's personal dignity. And the possession of rights also involves their recognition and respect by others."

Pope Francis continued his observations by noting that peace was the fruit of a great political project grounded in the mutual responsibility and interdependence of human beings. It was at the same time a challenge that demanded being taken up ever anew. Peace entailed a conversion of heart and soul. Peace was both interior and communal and had three inseparable aspects

DONATIONS THROUGH #IGIVECATHOLIC CAMPAIGN YIELD $15,000 IN FINANCIAL GIFTS

Thank you to the 39 parish households that contributed just over $15,000 to our #iGiveCatholic Giving Tuesday campaign! In response to an appeal from Fr. John Dillon and a letter detailing our parish's financial condition, our parishioners gave most generously to boost our parish income stream under the umbrella of this national giving campaign to encourage generosity among Catholics. These contributions will help pay for our parish's ongoing operating expenses – including paying salaries, keeping the lights on, and providing faith formation materials – and will help cushion our parish during leaner months. We are grateful to all our parishioners for offering their financial gifts, their talents, and their prayers to our parish. May God bless you all, as we look forward to the new year!

PARISH MINISTRY FAIR COMING UP IN JUST TWO WEEKS

Have you wondered how you might serve our parish better? If so, then please plan to stop by our parish Ministry Fair after all Masses on January 10-11 in the Gathering Space and the Kuehner Room. There will be displays set up throughout these spaces, so our church members can peruse, ask questions, and sign up for a ministry or three.

Sponsored by the Parish Pastoral Council, the Ministry Fair aims to help parishioners grow spiritually, and in community, by connecting them with ministry opportunities to serve. For more information, please contact

- Peace with oneself, rejecting inflexibility, anger, and impatience; in the words of St. Francis de Sales, showing a bit of sweetness toward oneself" in order to offer "a bit of sweetness to others;"
- Peace with others: family members, friends, strangers, the poor and the suffering, being unafraid to encounter them and listen to what they have to say;
- Peace with all creation, rediscovering the grandeur of God's gift and our individual and share responsibility as inhabitants of this world and citizens and builders of the future.

In his concluding remarks Pope Francis stated that the politics of peace, conscious of and deeply concerned for every situation of human vulnerability, can always draw inspiration from the Magnificat, the hymn that Mary, the Mother of Christ the Savior and Prince of Peace, sang in the name of all humankind: "He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arms; he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly...for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever" (Luke 1:50-55). Happy New Year! Fr. John

Music Notes

The beloved Christmas carol, "O Come, All Ye Faithful" is the work of two Englishmen, living 100 years apart, in two different countries. John Francis Wade, the author of the original Latin text, Adestes Fidelis, Laeti triumphantes, was a Catholic layman living in Lancashire, England. He endured persecution after the Jacobite rebellion of 1745, as did other English Catholics at that time, and was forced to flee to France. While in France, Wade worked as a musician and became a gifted copyist of musical scores. Seven manuscripts of this hymn are known, dating between 1743 and 1761, and all bear Wade's signature. Eventually, the situation improved for Catholics in England, and this hymn travelled back to England with English Catholics. In the mid 1800's, the Rev. Frederick Oakeley, an Anglican priest who later converted and became a Catholic priest, came across Wade's Christmas carol. Oakeley served as a translator of Latin hymns during the Oxford Movement and worked with Cardinal John Henry Newman, a leader in the movement. Oakeley gave us the English translation that we now sing. O Come let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

REMEMBERING OUR SERVICE MEN & WOMEN

Please continue to pray for all those parishioners, family members and friends who are serving in the military services. We have a prayer list posted in the Gathering Space for those who are serving in these areas. Please help us to keep it current by letting us know of any parishioner who is currently deployed so we can add them, and also those who have returned so that we can remove their names.

SCAN ME

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

As the tumultuous year comes to the end, what can I do for those who are strangers in a strange land?

OUR EXPERIENCE WITH THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

The call comes into the helpline, "My electricity (or my water) is going to be shut off. Can you help me?" Or "I am past due with my rent and I may be evicted. Could you call me back?"

The St. Vincent de Paul Society receives many such calls. And one wonders: why is this Neighbor in Need behind in their payments?

During the home visit, the story is given. Often, it involves a serious illness so someone hasn't been able to work. Or it could be a car accident where an injury is sustained and that person is unable to work, plus their car is damaged.

You or I could be this Neighbor in Need.

What would Jesus do? Did he help those who came to him?

We, as Vincentians, try to be compassionate, to be a listening ear, and, if appropriate, help alleviate this immediate need. Our help can give this person hope to keep trying.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society cannot assist every Neighbor in Need. Some financial and family issues are just too great. We provide information about other resources in the area. We pray with and for those who are in crisis.

Thank you to all those from this wonderful community at St. Francis of Assisi who have helped with a financial donation this year. We always have another call with another need.

Thank you also for your ongoing prayers. With your help, the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be able to continue Christ's work here in this area. If you would like to donate to the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Francis, then please write a check out to the 'St. Vincent de Paul Society' and either mail it or drop it off at the Parish Office. Thank you!

Sue and Milt Madison

Donaciones a través de la campaña #iGiveCatholic generarán $15,000 en donaciones financieras

¡Gracias a los 39 hogares de la parroquia que contribuyeron con más de $15,000 a nuestra campaña #iGiveCatholic del Martes de Donaciones! En respuesta a una solicitud del Padre John Dillon y a una carta que detallaba la situación financiera de nuestra parroquia, nuestros feligreses donaron $15,150 para aumentar los ingresos de nuestra parroquia en el marco de esta campaña nacional de donaciones para fomentar la generosidad entre los católicos. Estas contribuciones ayudarán a cubrir los gastos operativos de nuestra parroquia, incluyendo el pago de salarios, el mantenimiento de las luces y la provisión de materiales de formación en la fe, y ayudarán a nuestra parroquia a afrontar los meses de escasez.

Agradecemos a todos nuestros feligreses por ofrecer sus donaciones financieras, sus talentos y sus oraciones a nuestra parroquia. ¡Que Dios los bendiga a todos mientras esperamos con ansias el nuevo año!

Patrocinada por el Consejo Pastoral Parroquial, la Feria de Ministerios busca ayudar a los feligreses a crecer espiritualmente y en comunidad, conectándolos con oportunidades de ministerio. Notas Musicales ✝

El entrañable villancico “Oh Come, All Ye Faithful” (Venid, todos los fieles) es obra de dos ingleses que vivieron con 100 años de diferencia, en dos países diferentes. John Francis Wade, autor del texto original en latín, Adestes Fidelis, Laeti triumphantes, fue un laico católico residente en Lancashire, Inglaterra. Sufrió persecución tras la rebelión jacobita de 1745, al igual que otros católicos ingleses de la época, y se vio obligado a huir a Francia. Durante su estancia en Francia, Wade trabajó como músico y se convirtió en un talentoso copista de partituras. Se conocen siete manuscritos de este himno, datados entre 1743 y 1761, y todos llevan la firma de Wade. Con el tiempo, la situación para los católicos en Inglaterra mejoró, y este himno regresó a Inglaterra con los católicos ingleses. A mediados del siglo XIX, el reverendo Frederick Oakeley, sacerdote anglicano que posteriormente se convirtió al catolicismo, se topó con el villancico de Wade. Oakeley se desempeñó como traductor de himnos latinos durante el Movimiento de Oxford y colaboró con el cardenal John Henry Newman, líder del movimiento. Oakeley nos proporcionó la traducción al inglés que ahora cantamos. Oh Come let us adore him, Christ the Lord (Venid, adorémosle, Cristo el Señor).
