THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

As we celebrate the Epiphany today, I find myself thinking about the Holy Family. When they had to flee to Egypt to avoid the raging King Herod who wanted to murder the Christ child because Herod feared this child under two years of age was destined to seize his throne. The Holy Family was fleeing for their lives from murder and violence—just as many families are doing today. Herod wanted no rivals, so this child had to die. As we know so well, the Holy Innocents of Bethlehem perished instead. Both Christian and Muslim Arabs are fleeing today from danger in the hope of finding safety and a better life where they can survive and hopefully thrive. These are very legitimate aspirations. At the same time many are afraid of terrorist activity and want to remain safe in their homes, their schools, and their businesses. Ten years ago, Cardinal Séan P. O’Malley wrote about this on December 17, 2015, in the opinion section of TheBostonPilot.com. In “Walking in the Path of the Good Samaritan,” Cardinal O’Malley said that we must be careful about security, but we also must avoid allowing the darkness of hatred and prejudice to poison our hearts. Let me quote some of the things he mentions in his article as they are well worth pondering in this Christmas season:

We cannot afford to be sloppy about security, but we must guard against letting the darkness of hatred and prejudice poison our own hearts. Since there so few Muslims in our country, it is likely that there are many Americans who don’t have any Muslim friends or don’t even know anyone personally who professes Islam. American Muslims are much less apt to be radicalized than their European counterparts. The Muslims here are economically better off, better educated, and much better integrated into the mainstream. And although Muslims comprise only 1 percent of our population, 10 percent of our doctors (20,000) in the United States are Muslim, my own [Cardinal O’Malley’s] dentist, here in Boston, is Iranian and Muslim...

This Year of Mercy is an invitation to live our faith more fully by seeking ways to reflect God’s love and mercy in the way that we treat each other. In the beautiful parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus teaches us that the true neighbor is the one who shows mercy. In the case of the Samaritan, it was not just a matter of reacting with compassion in the face of a suffering human being, it also required him to overcome any personal prejudice or animosity that he would have felt toward the religion and ethnicity of the wounded man. The Samaritans felt rejected and despised by the people of the chosen race, and often acted accordingly, as when they refused Jesus and the Apostles hospitality. There was a Cold War between the Samaritans and the Israelites, and so the Samaritan’s act of kindness was at the same time an act of forgiveness, an act of renouncing prejudice and group hatred. Jesus ends the parable by saying, “Go and do likewise.”

As we mull over the debate about the refugees, let us remember the doors that were closed in the face of Mary and Joseph in Bethlehem. We must ask our leaders to be vigilant and protect our citizens, but at the same time we cannot turn our back on so many innocent people who are hungry, homeless, and without a country.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

As the tumultuous year comes to the end, what can I do for those who are strangers in a strange land?

2026 WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MASS

This year Bishop Evelio Menjivar-Ayala will celebrate the Annual Wedding anniversary Mass to honor the Vocation of Marriage on Saturday, February 14, 2026, 10:00 a.m. at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. This Annual Mass is a celebration of the living vocation of all couples who provide a Catholic witness to the beauty of the Sacrament of Matrimony. Couples must register with the parish office by Wednesday, February 4, 2026 to attend the Mass and/or receive a certificate from Cardinal Robert McElroy in honor of their anniversary year.

ALTAR GUILD MEETING
SATURDAY, JANUARY 24 @ 10 AM

If you are a current member of the St. Francis Altar Guild or would like to become an Altar Guild member please plan to attend a meeting on Saturday, January 24 at 10 am in the Kuehner Room. For additional information or questions, please call Donna in the Parish Office, 301-840-1407.

MONTHLY BLOOD PRESSURE SCREENING
ON JANUARY 10 AND 11

St. Francis Health Ministry volunteers will offer monthly blood pressure screenings after Masses in the St. Clare Room on the second weekend each month.

Why check my blood pressure? Because it is the only way for you to know! Often high blood pressure has no symptoms. Unless measured and treated if necessary, the damage high blood pressure causes can go undetected, leaving you at greater risk for heart attacks and strokes. Fortunately, having your blood pressure measured is simple, quick and provided free by your SFA Health Ministry Team.

I do not believe it is a matter of choosing one course over the other, we can be both vigilant and compassionate. America is truly great when we do not succumb to fear and prejudice, but rather when we walk boldly in the path of the Good Samaritan.

Until next week,
Fr. John

PARISH MINISTRY FAIR
COMING UP IN JUST ONE WEEK

It takes the full body of Christ to be a Church! If you would like to contribute to our church by serving in a liturgical, faith formation, administrative, or social concerns ministry, then please plan to attend the parish Ministry Fair after all Masses on January 10-11 in the Gathering Space and the Kuehner Room. There will be displays set up throughout these spaces, so our parishioners can walk around, ask questions, and sign up for a ministry.

Sponsored by the Parish Pastoral Council, the Ministry Fair aims to help parishioners grow spiritually, and in community, by connecting them with ministry opportunities to serve. For more information, please contact

Ministry Fair Coordinators
 Marianne Deausen at deausenmr@gmail.com,

The donations will be picked up by Catholic Charities and made available to people in need of warm outerwear this winter. Thanks for your generosity! CONCRETE WORK FUNDED BY OUR CAPITAL CAMPAIGN IS COMPLETE

As we begin the new year, please check out the recently completed new concrete work on the parish grounds that are part of the campus improvements funded through our recent capital campaign. Last month, two concrete companies completed restoration of the Rectory steps, the two short flights of steps leading to the church's side entrances, and the long staircase near the outside entrance of the Parish Center to the church level. They also installed three new yellow metal mats at the church's entrance that make it compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act and built a new sidewalk with hand railing that connects the area near the Parish Center main entrance to the walkway leading to the nearest side entrance of the church.

We would like to thank all those parishioners who contributed to the capital campaign for helping make these campus improvements a reality. We'd also like to thank Deacon Jim Datovech and parishioner Brian Pettit for their work in orchestrating the work and seeing it through to fruition.
