THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

The beginning of the year is a time when we make resolutions about things we could put into practice in the New Year. To that end, let me offer some good advice on parish etiquette as we are at the beginning of a New Year. These reflections were first presented by Barbara Budde in a pamphlet (which is no longer in print) for the National Pastoral Life Center. Let me mention some things that we could do to prepare well for the Sunday liturgy.

PREPARING FOR LITURGY

Preparing for liturgy—mentally, spiritually, and physically—speaks of its importance and value to us. When people come to worship completely unprepared and seemingly not at home, we welcome them in charity as newcomers or as seekers who have joined the assembly at the urging of the Spirit. As a rule of thumb, though, good preparation for worship makes every experience richer and more rewarding.

- Schedule liturgy into the family or household weekend activities.
- Plan ahead as you would for any important occasion.
- Prepare for Mass in your household as part of your observance of the Lord's Day.
- Allow enough time to account for any transportation problems (traffic or parking) that might arise.

Dressing Appropriately

As "business casual" has become the dress code in some workplaces, it is becoming more difficult to know whether dressing up for Sunday Mass is necessary. Liturgy is the Lord's inclusive banquet, but it is neither a state dinner nor a beach picnic. So, what is the dress code? The answer isn't always clear since customs differ. What is appropriate at a parish located at a beach resort may be much more informal than what is appropriate at the downtown cathedral. Thought, charity, and flexibility are required by all parishioners, lest looking at what people wear become the near occasion of sin called "judging."

- Choose clothing that will not be distracting to you or to others.
- Notice regional and ethnic expectations regarding Sunday dress.
- Err on the side of dressing up, not down; presume that most people will wear their best, most appropriate clothing, and do likewise.

Next week I shall talk about arriving and leaving, particularly I want to make some suggestions about what to do if Mass has already begun or if you need to leave early.

Until next week,
Fr. John Dillon

A THANK YOU FROM THE NEW NEIGHBOR
INTERFAITH ALLIANCE

Members of the New Neighbor Interfaith Alliance (NNIA) would like to express our deep appreciation to St. Francis parishioners who contributed to our fundraising efforts through the Spirit Tree project and Alternative Christmas cards. We were simply amazed at your generosity. Please know that your gifts support the day-to-day needs of over 120 families. The gift cards are being used to purchase groceries, clothing, and necessary household items. The money donated to purchase Alternative Christmas cards will be used to support emergency needs (medical, dental, transportation, etc.) of our families. We also want to thank Parish Secretary Donna Zezzo and Alternative Christmas Gift Co-Ministry Coordinator Doris Chung for their support in making these projects so successful. In these difficult times, we are comforted in knowing that we can rely on our St. Francis community to help our vulnerable families feel supported on their way to independence. May our loving God continue to bless each one of you in the coming year.

WOMEN, JOIN THE GOSPEL OF JOHN BIBLE STUDY
ON JANUARY 22

Two Walking With Purpose women's bible studies here at St. Francis concluded this fall. But the Touching the Divine: The Gospel of John bible study will continue throughout the school year. Stop by the Kuehner Room at 10:15 am Thursday, January 22, for coffee, refreshments, and a video. For this "Connect Coffee" Open House, all women participating in the Thursday morning study are together. The video is a good way to learn more about truths the beloved apostle, John, reveals in his Gospel and to see whether this group might be for you. New members are always welcome.

Are daytime meetings inconvenient? A new, six-session Bible study for women will begin at 7 pm Friday, January 30, in the Kuehner Room. Rooted and Radiant was written for any woman who wants to live her life grounded in Jesus. In this Bible study, we learn the Book of Colossians, verse by verse. We will seek to understand the challenges that faced the Colossians, recognizing that they are similar to our challenges today.

To order your book and learn more please go to www.walkingwithpurpose.com.

Done su ropa de invierno usada en buen estado a la Colecta de Abrigos de Caridades Católicas

¿Recibió un abrigo nuevo para Navidad? Si es así, por favor, done sus abrigos usados en buen estado a la Colecta de Abrigos de Caridades Católicas del 12 al 22 de enero.

Invitamos a los feligreses a dejar cualquier abrigo de invierno en buen estado en el contenedor marcado en el Espacio de Reunión. Caridades Católicas recogerá las donaciones y las pondrá a disposición de quienes necesitan ropa de abrigo este invierno.

Si puede ayudar a clasificar los abrigos, por favor, acérquese al Espacio de Reunión a las 9:30 a. m. del jueves, 22 de enero para ayudar con esta tarea antes de que los recojan. Para más información, contacte con Tony Bosnick, Director de Asuntos Sociales y Formación en la Fe para Adultos, en abosnick@sfadw.org.

Mujeres, únanse al Estudio Bíblico del Evangelio de Juan el 22 de enero

Dos estudios bíblicos para mujeres de "Caminando con Propósito" aquí en San Francisco concluyeron este otoño. Sin embargo, el estudio bíblico "Tocando lo Divino: El Evangelio de Juan" en inglés continuará durante todo el año escolar. Visiten la Sala Kuehner a las 10:15 a. m. el jueves, 22 de enero para tomar un café, refrigerios y ver un video. Para esta jornada de puertas abiertas "Café Conecta", todas las mujeres que participan en el estudio del jueves por la mañana estarán juntas. El video es una excelente manera de aprender más sobre las verdades que el amado apóstol Juan revela en su Evangelio y para ver si este grupo podría ser para ustedes. Las nuevas integrantes siempre son bienvenidas.

¿Les resultan incómodas las reuniones diurnas? Este invierno, por las tardes, comenzará un nuevo estudio bíblico de seis sesiones de "Caminando con Propósito". Consulten los próximos boletines para obtener más detalles.

Agradecimiento de la Alianza Interreligiosa de Nuevos Vecinos

Los miembros de la Alianza Interreligiosa de Nuevos Vecinos (NNIA) desean expresar su profundo agradecimiento a los feligreses de San Francisco que contribuyeron a nuestra recaudación de fondos a través del proyecto Árbol Espiritual y las tarjetas navideñas alternativas. Estuvimos simplemente maravillados por su generosidad. Sepan que sus donaciones apoyan las necesidades diarias de más de 120 familias. Las tarjetas de regalo se utilizan para comprar alimentos, ropa y artículos domésticos esenciales. El dinero donado para comprar tarjetas navideñas alternativas se utilizará para cubrir necesidades de emergencia

(médicas, dentales, transporte, etc.) de nuestras familias. También queremos agradecer a la Secretaria Parroquial, Donna Zezzo, y a la Coordinadora del Co-Ministerio de Regalos Navideños Alternativos, Doris Chung, por su apoyo para el éxito de estos proyectos.

En estos tiempos difíciles, nos reconforta saber que podemos contar con la comunidad de San Francisco para ayudar a nuestras familias vulnerables a sentirse apoyadas en su camino hacia la independencia. Que nuestro Dios amoroso continúe bendiciéndolos a cada uno de ustedes en el próximo año.
