BLACK HISTORY MONTH ACTIVITIES

- ⇒ STATIONS OF COLOR – Participate in short reflections and prayers about 16 Black Catholic saints and role models. Tuesday, Feb. 3, at 7 pm (Virtual)
- ⇒ MOVIES – Enjoy highly acclaimed African-American films shown in the parish hall. Free entry. Concessions for purchase. Pre-registration appreciated. Movies TBD.
- ⇒ BOOK REVIEW – Read and discuss "Kindred" by the Black sci-fi author, Octavia E. Butler. It's a riveting story following a young Black woman who unwillingly time-travels between 1976 Los Angeles and a pre-Civil War Maryland plantation, where she meets her ancestors and becomes entangled in the dread of slavery. This award-winning novel (audible too), now banned in some places, is popular with book clubs and readers 15 yrs.+ (some offensive words). It's available at public libraries, local book stores, and on Amazon ($8.60 for paperback). Pre-registration appreciated. Sunday, Feb. 15 at 4 pm (Virtual)
- ⇒ REGINALD F. LEWIS MUSEUM – A visit to this Baltimore treasure is planned to inspire and educate all ages about the art, history and culture of Blacks throughout Maryland's 400-year history. Museum fees and travel costs. PRE-REGISTRATION IS A MUST. Saturday, Feb. 28

HERITAGE RECEPTION

(Parish Hall, Sunday, Feb. 22 at 1:30 pm)

- ⇒ ARTWORK & EXHIBITS – Come see beautiful works of art created and artifacts donated by Holy Family Parishioners and Friends and test your Black History knowledge through fun trivia.
- ⇒ FAMILY LEGACIES – Learn the early history of Holy Family Church through oral, written, and pictorial accounts from descendants of those pioneer families.
- ⇒ ENTERTAINMENT – Enjoy good music and more.
- ⇒ GIFT BASKET RAFFLE & 50/50 – Take a chance to win great prizes and the proceeds will support charitable causes.
