WEEKLY OFFERING – January 15, 2023
“NOT AVAILABLE AT PUBLISHING TIME”
THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!

Father Joe is enjoying time with family and friends in India. He sends his love and prayers to you and your families. Please keep him in your prayers.

MASS OFFERINGS—Please remember that you may offer masses for your loved ones, living or deceased. You may do so by filling out a mass intention located in the vestibule and turn in to the Parish office. The Church considers the Mass as the greatest possible prayer of intercession insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection.

Because of the particular role of the priest as mediator between God and man, acting "in persona Christi" when offering the holy sacrifice of the Mass, it is usually considered that special graces may be obtained when he applies the Mass to a particular intention.

Masses are offered at the daily masses at Annunciation, and on Sundays at St. Francis.

Eucharistic Adoration will resume in 2023 once Father Joe returns from India. "Take the opportunity to adore the Blessed Sacrament at any neighboring Church while he is gone. To visit the Blessed Sacrament is...a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, and a duty of adoration toward Christ our Lord."

First Friday and First Saturday Masses: MARCH 3 & 4. A FIRST FRIDAY is a special devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus since Jesus died for us and won our salvation on a Friday and in reparation for sins and to show love to Jesus. Continue to pray for the reparation of souls each FIRST SATURDAY as our Blessed Mother asked us at Fatima. Our Lady requested us to do this in addition to the Daily Rosary, as our particular role in bringing about the triumph of her Immaculate Heart and world peace. See our webpage for more information about these devotions: <https://annunciationchurchks.org/>

Nicholaus Pumphrey, Religious Studies professor at Baker University, brought his class to Annunciation Church as they study "sacred space." They are traveling to different religious services and buildings to examine and compare how sacred space is constructed. This was the first time to visit Annunciation. Father Joe gave them a tour and they were "pleasantly surprised to see such a beautiful church."

ARCHBISHOPS CALL TO SHARE

What would it have been like for Jesus to hear that his cousin John had been imprisoned? Bravely, John called the Pharisees, Israelites, and Herod alike to repentance. Even before his birth, John showed that he was wholly given to proclaiming Christ's coming—even leaping in the womb.

Such tenacity could not have been lost on Jesus. John's total commitment to preaching repentance must have moved Jesus. Just as Jesus wept at the death of his friend Lazarus, Certainly, he must have been deeply grieved by his cousin John's arrest and eventual murder.

Through such trials, Jesus saw his heavenly Father moving. Today's Gospel implies that Jesus may have viewed John's incarceration as the "hour" to begin preaching the message of repentance himself. Jesus "picked up the baton" in Matthew 4:17. This included both a message of love for the lost and condemnation for the wicked in power. It also began the chain of events that would end in his execution. Yet, he didn't do it alone. He asked many to join him. Today, he invites our parish community into the same mission: to preach the good news and repentance. Please support our Archbishop's Call to Share appeal as one way of helping our parish preach His word. The resistance is mighty, and the audience is hungry for it. Pray for Call to Share and join in whatever way God asks you!
