We Are Called...

Faith is amazing, and God gives us opportunities to experience faith and the gift of participating in His kingdom. Simeon is an example of this and the opportunity to see what He has for us. We should long for and ask for the blessing of Simeon. We all should want the Holy Spirit to participate in our lives, just like him! Think about how many times the Holy Spirit is mentioned in this passage. It is to create a desire in us. It is a part of God's revelation to us of our participation of His love in His kingdom.

Think of how Simeon is introduced; There was a man who was righteous and devout, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. This would be a Very Special Gift if we were granted the presence of the Spirit! This would allow us to see the world differently and encounter our lives with heaven in our mind and hearts. This is one gift from God to allow us to proclaim His kingdom and to share that others should look forward to it also. What if we were able to hear God speak and know in our hearts something of our destiny. God can change our perspective on all things, and He invites us to be a part of His heaven. Simeon was given this gift.

In the next sentence, the Spirit is shared again, "The Spirit revealed to him." If we are open to God and await His proclamation, the Spirit can reveal things to us. Jesus says to us that we are called friends, not slaves, because He has revealed to us what the Father has shared. When we open our hearts and minds to Him, He pours more into us. When we use what He has given, we open ourselves for more of what God wants to fill us with. God gave him a glimpse of what he would encounter.

God gave him insight into his life with God now and for his future. God wants us to know our future with Him; to know our destiny in God through Christ. This was the opening of this door to participate in the glory of God. He is giving us insight through the gift of Jesus' consecration to God for our salvation and our inheritance. Then Simeon follows Jesus' action of letting the Spirit move him to where God wants him to do His will.

Because he was righteous and devout, he has the privilege of this blessing of doing more of God's will. "He came in the Spirit into the temple." This is like the Spirit sending Jesus into the desert after His baptism. The Holy Spirit can move us also when we are open to Him. We should want to go where He leads us, to do His work where He commands us. We should strive to be righteous and devout, so God can lead us to bring others to know and love God also.

It is our privilege to participate in the kingdom and to have an awareness of the presence of God and the work of the Holy Spirit. We have been given a great gift to belong to God and be children of God. It is the blessing of eternal life starting here in this life. We must acknowledge the presence of God and live lives pleasing to Him that He may give us a greater participation in His kingdom and celebrate the inheritance that He gives to us. Not that we can earn it, but that He offers to us for believing in His only begotten Son. Even at Jesus' youthful age, He was guiding people to Our Father.

God Bless,
Fr. Maf Col

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO FIGHT THE FIRES!

With the devastation of the Los Angeles fires, the diocese has received many inquiries about how to help the victims of this tragedy. The USCCB's Office of National Collections has notified us that Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA) is assisting with relief through the local agencies on the ground and will continue to help during the recovery.

We ask that you pray for the victims of the fires. Any donations are appreciated and should be remitted directly to CCUSA, which will ensure that funds are quickly available for critical relief efforts, including shelter, food and other aid for those most in need.

The mailing address is:

Catholic Charities USA • 2050 Ballenger Ave., #400 • Alexandria, VA 22314

You can also promote giving online to CCUSA's fire relief using this QR code:

Music Ministry Minute

Dear parishioners,
Once a month or so, I will provide a column with information about hymns, texts of songs, copyright info, Music Ministry News and other topics of interest. I am happy to share the first today.
Lorrie

Words Matter

These words have become very popular recently, and nowhere is it more important than in the text of the hymns we sing. At Christmas Mass, Fr. Max shared the story of his Dad playing Handel's Messiah for three straight days preceding Christmas. His Dad's goal was to have the children learn the stories of their faith through music. People use music to learn many things, and in matters of faith, we have to be sure the words we sing accurately reflect our faith. Many hymns we sing were originally written by composers that were/are not Roman Catholic. In the case of hymns written by Bach, Charles Wesley, Martin Luther and others, the Catholic lyrics have been rewritten from the original. For contemporary religious music, music directors have to carefully read the text to be sure that the lyrics align with the Catholic Church's teachings. If the song is contained in a Catholic hymnal, there is an approval on the first page saying that it is published with the approval of the Committee on Divine Worship, United States Catholic of Bishops (USCCB). The music we sing invites us more deeply into the mystery of God's love. As you sing, reflect on the words of each song and how they speak to you of God. Not every person will connect deeply to every song, but by choosing songs in a wide variety of styles, our hope is that each person will find something on which to reflect each week.

All-powerful
Father,
Christ your Son became man for us and was presented in the temple.
May he free our hearts from sin
and bring us into your presence.
Amen.

Ark Encounter Overnight Tour with Rooms & 3 Meals

Saturday-Sunday, May 17-18, 2025

While we do not see any extended rain in the forecast, at least for forty days and forty nights, we do know of a fellow named “Noah” who was spared from a flood by loading his family and many of the world’s animals into an Ark that he built from instructions he had been given. While no one has ever discovered the “original Ark,” we will be seeing a new, recently completed version built in a similar fashion on what was formerly a farm. The Ark is a massive wooden structure . . . with the indication that the cost of building this vessel was considerably more than Noah spent, $92 million. It is being built as described in the Book of Genesis using the original dimensions.

Day 1

- Great Day! Tours pre-departure package (7-10 days prior) – Includes itineraries, baggage tags, name tags and candy
- Transportation aboard a fully equipped motorcoach
- Coffee/restroom stop(s) as requested (on own)
- Admissions to the Ark Encounter - The Ark Encounter features a full-size Noah’s Ark, built according to the dimensions given in the Bible. Spanning 510 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high, this modern engineering marvel amazes visitors young and old
- Buffet Meal Voucher for Lunch at Emzara’s (inside the Ark Encounter complex)
- Admiral’s Dinner Cruise aboard the BB Riverboats – Take in the skyline, watch the river go by, and enjoy a fantastic meal aboard one of Cincinnati’s top attractions
- One night of hotel rooms in the Cincinnati/Newport, KY area (Fairfield Inn & Suites or similar)

Day 2

- Breakfast included at the hotel
- Sunday Morning Service at Holy Spirit Catholic Church
