We Are Called...

The season of Easter and Gospel of John are ending for another year. We celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. This is significant for us because we are called to follow Jesus, not only here on earth, but to follow Him to heaven. We are called to follow where the Good Shepherd leads us. Our true home is in heaven, and we need to learn about our place in the Trinity. Jesus wants us to follow Him to heaven to be with Him forever. It is our destiny; it is why we were created, and we are called to celebrate and live out this grace in our lives here on earth to show our appreciation for what He has done. Do we recognize the significance of this?

If Jesus only rose from the dead and did not ascend into heaven, we would not be able to rise to new life in heaven. We would not have access to heaven because Jesus alone can give us access to His heaven. He is the "Way, the Truth, and the Life." He must give us entrance because we do not know the way and cannot earn our way in. Heaven is not a place that we can point to, so how can we get directions? We cannot do enough work to earn it, nor can we buy our way in. We can only travel the path of Jesus, who said in the Gospel of John, "I will come back again to take you to myself, so that where I am, you also will be." We should want to be with Him. We should be glad that He has ascended to heaven because we can be with Him forever, living in His presence. He did all of this for us, and we must live in gratitude and live out grace.

The significance of the Ascension should be on our minds and in our hearts because it shows us the love that God has for us. God wants us in His presence forever! He wants us to live in love with those who we have relationship with here on earth. Who do you love? How many people have you shared time, talent, and treasure with? Giving your best and allowing them to enter your life and heart. Is there anyone that you long to be with forever, or maybe again? This is the grace of the Ascension and the reason that we should rejoice that Jesus overcame the last barrier to being in paradise forever! We must celebrate in thanksgiving for the work that God has done for us, realizing that He is the only one who could, and He did not spare His only begotten Son. That is how much God loves you.

Be grateful, give thanks, live like you mean it.

God Bless,

Fr. May Col

Shedding light on brain aneurysms.

FAMILY. FRIENDS. COWORKERS. NEIGHBORS.
EVERYBODY KNOWS SOMEBODY.

Brain Aneurysms are a silent killer, and we need your help to break the silence. It's time to start shedding light on brain aneurysms.

Mission: To foster a national dialogue and understanding around Brain Aneurysms and drive better patient outcomes through pioneering education, research, and support.

What they do: Communicate the signs, symptoms, and risk factors of brain aneurysms through innovation and collaboration with best-in-class partners across the globe.

Discovering a loved one has a brain aneurysm can be devastating. They will be providing insight into potential signs of a brain aneurysm and what the next steps might be in the aftermath of one.

Wednesday, June 4 at 6:30pm or

Sunday, June 22 at 12:30 pm.

We welcome everyone to attend! If you have someone you know that has been touched or affected by a brain aneurysm, they are welcome to join us!

On March 19, 2015, our parishioner, Todd Crawford, received news that changed his life. Lisa Colagrossi, his loving wife, had a brain aneurysm rupture. When their family was by her side to say their goodbyes, Todd made a promise to her, "Lisa, I love you. Please go be with God. I promise I will raise the boys the way you want me to, and I promise to do everything

I can to prevent this from happening to others." Todd's promise sparked The Lisa Foundation. It has emerged as the leader of awareness and education for brain aneurysms in the U.S. The Lisa Foundation is a Catholic Foundation that could use your support, and allows us the opportunity to put our faith to work.
