We Are Called...

Happy New Year!

The celebration of the Christmas season continues, and the wisdom of the Church leads us into a greater celebration of what God wants for us: to be martyrs to our will and to accept His will for us. The deeper reason He came to earth is to invite us into the kingdom of heaven here on earth. We celebrate the Octave of Christmas as the eight days of Jesus' birthday. The day after Christmas, we have the Feast of Saint Steven, the next day is the Feast of Saint John the Evangelist, and then the Feast of The Holy Family. These are significant celebrations in the season of Christmas. They remind us of what God wants us to become: martyrs, evangelists, and being holy examples proclaiming the love of God.

The call to martyrdom is realizing that God's will is what is best for us. Knowing that our God has created us for a purpose that only we can do. He wants us to fulfill the design He has for our lives, and we must choose to do it, just like Mary the Mother of Jesus. Her example and intercession help us do that for which we were made. Our actions either help build the kingdom or work against the kingdom. Our work is either through Christ or on our own. White martyrdom is living life, not a blood martyrdom, but surrendering our daily actions to do God's will rather than our own. It is following God's command to live in love, doing what benefits others instead of looking out for ourselves. Living for the benefit of communion among our brothers and sisters is the best thing for each of us. Saint Steven is the exemplary model of giving our lives for the kingdom. Saint John brings another gift of Christmas into our lives.

Saint John has two major books in the New Testament: The Gospel of John and the Book of Revelation, along with two letters. John's Gospel is unique to the other Gospels because it does not follow the flow of the Synoptic Gospels. John has a unique perspective that focuses on the relationship with those that encounter Jesus. He begins with who Jesus is as the Word made flesh who dwells among us. Everything was made through Him and for Him. Jesus encounters people in their lives doing their daily tasks and changes their lives. Jesus shares the Mandatum in the washing of the feet. John is the only Gospel to write about this. He also shares Jesus' Priestly Prayer, where He prays for us saying, "I pray also for those who will believe in Me because of their word." John gives us a perspective of relationship with God that we must incorporate into our lives. It is the message that we need to encounter and then share. We become a part of the Holy Family when we are willing to experience our encounter with Jesus, then like the woman at the well, run and tell everyone about the Man "that told me everything that I have ever done."

We enter the life of the Holy Family because we have encountered the One who can change lives. The first Sunday after Christmas is the gift of the Holy Family. It is the example of what we can be if we follow God's teaching and live by His grace. Strive for holiness and foster it in your home so your family may live with Jesus and grow in grace. The Octave of Christmas has blessings for us if we are attentive to what lies beneath and within. God wants more for us and the Church wants to introduce these blessings through celebration. Just like the Wedding Feast at Cana, if we invite Jesus into our homes, we can witness miracles, because this is what God wants for us so we can experience Jesus and let Him enter our lives. This is Christmas. Celebrate it and live it well.

God Bless,

End-of-the-Year Reminder for Those with IRAs

For those who are 70 1/2 years old and older, the required minimum distribution (RMD) from an IRA for each year must be taken by year-end. If a check is written directly to a charity of your choice, taxable income to the donor is not created nor is a charitable contribution allowed on the individual's federal tax return. Charitable contributions directly from an IRA account are referred to as a "qualified charitable contribution" on the individual's federal income tax return. Contributions to charities are not limited to the amount of RMD. Your IRA Charitable Rollover Gift will not only benefit Holy Angels, but may benefit you by meeting your annual required minimum distribution and reducing your taxable income. These transfers are income tax-free so long as the gift is made by December 31. Consider an IRA Charitable Rollover transfer to benefit your parish family. Contact your financial advisor to see if the IRA Charitable Rollover is a good option for you. If interested, please contact Don Maar in the Parish Office.

May God in His unceasing love send many gifts your way. And may He fill your heart with peace and be forever near, blessing you and guiding you throughout the coming year.

Epiphany

House Blessing Bags

House Blessing Bags will be available following all Masses the weekend of the Epiphany. These bags are used to invite Christ into your home and to bless all those who enter.

SAINT THÉRÈSE MINISTRY

The Saint Thérèse Ministry lets someone know that people are praying to St. Thérèse, asking her to intercede with Our Lord on their behalf.

To make a request, submit the name of the person in need - it can be for anyone, anywhere!

You can fill out a prayer card and place it in the wooden box in the Gathering Area, or request it through the email below. Include the recipient's name, mailing address, your name, and your relationship to the person.

After receiving a request, the St. Thérèse Coordinator prepares a packet for the individual containing a letter from the Men of the Rosary explaining why they are receiving the packet, a framed prayer icon, a background on St. Thérèse, a blessed rosary, and instructions on praying the Rosary. The Coordinator will then mail the package. If you would like to personally deliver it, please indicate so on the request and provide your phone number or email, so you can be notified when it is ready to be picked up.
