

Good morning, everyone!

It's me, Titan, again.

Over the weekend, I explored your beautiful Church.

Now, more than ever, the world can use the hope that God gives us. It is so cool that you all get to go to Church each month as a class!

Here's my close up!
It's such a nice view
from up there!

(It is not recommended
for children to try this!
Only elves can safely get a view like this!)

It was so special to listen to Monsignor Berardi at the Mass on Sunday. I understand that you can watch Mass at home, too! How awesome! Even if you can't be together in Church, you can still be part of the Mass! Just like school when some of you are working from home! It's so great that the whole Blessed Sacrament family can all stay connected in so many ways.

I also learned about the Advent wreath when I was sitting outside of the Church on Sunday. I have one with me here! It has three purple candles and one pink candle, just like in the Church. We light one more candle each week as we prepare for the coming of Jesus. It's so beautiful!

That's it for today! Try to guess where I may be tomorrow! Any ideas?

Love, Titan
