The Immaculate Conception, December 8th

Although the belief that Mary was sinless, or conceived without original sin, has been widely held since Late Antiquity, the doctrine was not dogmatically defined in the Catholic Church until 1854 when Pope Pius IX, declared ex cathedra, i.e., using papal infallibility, in his papal bull Ineffabilis Deus<sup>[2]</sup> the Immaculate Conception to be doctrine. The Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8; in many Catholic countries,

THE SOULS OF OUR DEPARTED LEGIONARIES

The end of the campaigning has come and a legionary lies nobly dead. Now at last he is confirmed in legionary service. Through all eternity he will be a legionary, for the Legion has shaped that eternity for him. It has been the fiber and the mold of his spiritual life. Moreover, the might of the united petition, uttered daily and earnestly by active members and auxiliaries alike, that the Legion should reassemble without the loss of any one, has helped him through the dangers and the difficulties of the long way. What a joyful thought for all legionaries — on his account and on their own! But for the moment, there is sorrow at the loss of friend and comrade, and there is need of prayer so that the deliverance of the departed soldier from the realm of Purgatory may be speedily accomplished.

The praesidium should without delay have a Mass offered for the soul of each one of its active members who may die; and each member of that praesidium should specially recite all the legion prayers, inclusive of the rosary, at least once for the same intention. But these duties do not extend to the deceased relatives of members. As many legionaries as possible, and not those of the particular praesidium alone, should attend the Mass and accompany the remains to burial. It is recommended that the rosary and other legion prayers should be recited while the interment is actually taking place. This could be done immediately after the official prayers of the Church. This practice, besides being of much benefit to the deceased, will be found to be a source of deep consolation to the sorrowing relatives, to the legionaries themselves, and to all the friends present. It is trusted that the same prayers will have been said more than once beside the remains during the period of laying out. Nor should the duty of remembrance be deemed then to cease. In the month of November each year, each praesidium shall have a Mass celebrated for the souls of the legionary dead, not of that praesidium alone but of all the world. In this, as on all other occasions where prayer is offered for departed legionaries, all grades of membership are comprised.

"Purgatory forms part of the realm of Mary. There, too, are her children, who in a passing spell of pain await their birth to the glory which will never pass. St. Vincent Ferrer, St. Bernardine of Siena, Louis de Blois, as well as others, explicitly proclaim Mary to be Queen of Purgatory; and St. Louis-Marie de Montfort urges us to think and act in accordance with that belief. He wishes us to place in Mary's hands the value of our prayers and satisfactions. He promises us that, in return for this offering, those souls which are dear to us will be more abundantly relieved than if we were to apply our prayers to them directly." (Lhoumeau: La Vie Spirituelle a l'Ecole de St. Louis-Marie de Montfort)

ALLOCUTIO

By Fr. Victo Perez

Spiritual Director of the Houston Senatus

Every day we wake up we can make a difference for the Kingdom. Does that move you? It is easy for us to fall into routine and do our prayers out of duty. But do we really pray? Do we speak to God as our friend. It is important every day that we take time to have silence and listen to God. God is a God of love, He speaks to us words of Love. Mary helps us to silence our soul and to be still. She kept the word of God in her heart and meditated on it as it says in the Gospel, "Mary kept all these things pondering on them in her heart." Do we ponder in our heart all God has done for us? Do we ponder in her heart how close Jesus has come to us that we receive in truly present in the Eucharist? Or is the Eucharist and prayer just a religious work for you. Too much emphasis can be on ourselves, Every morning we need to arise and put ourselves in the hands of our mother.

We renew our consecration to Mary, put our day in her hands, She will walk with you the whole day, helping to guide you in the path of surrender to the Father, the path of faith, the way of prayer and silence, listening. We also pray our Catena everyday to remember how we are not just by ourselves but that we are supported by a Legion, brothers and sisters who are baptized into Christ who take Mary as their mother and have committed themselves to be her instruments to help serve the Body of Christ the Church with her heart, just as she served Christ while on earth. We have committed ourselves to the Holy Spirit to be moved by him to be docile to Him as Mary was. We have committed ourselves to do one good Legionary work a week. We come together and pray the rosary together, the power center of the Legion's activity [besides of course the Holy Mass) and we in cooperation and fellowship speak about what we have done or what Our Lady and therefore God has done through us. We also together hear a spiritual reading from the manual to feed us and give us inspiration. The allocutio should help the Legionary not just grow in Theological knowledge but so that they can apply the Legionary spirituality and ideal to their lives and live it. The Legion Spirit is mostly caught and not just taught. We have to have the attitude of Mary and humility and this includes obedience and docility and sweetness, all the virtues of Mary's heart. We also need zeal. Zeal to make a difference, zeal to be Christ's hands and feet. Zeal to pray and offer sacrifices. If we are in the state of grace our good works if done with love have eternal merit for us and help us grow in holiness. Also when we pray for others we can help other people to be blessed. Our good works and prayers also can be offered for others and they will be blessed and grow in the life of grace. Also our good works and prayers can help atone for the sins of others. Let our hearts expand in love for the mystical body to help others through our prayer and by putting all of our good works every day at Mary's hands and she will help to distribute the graces and merits to those who need them. Let us make our legion holy by all of us being holy. We are not alone, we are united in the body of Christ and the Legion will be strong if we each allow God to be the center of our lives and allow Mary's virtues, Mary's heart to live in us.
