The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
From the Pastor

One of my first memories of going to Mass happened sometime when I was about 3 ½ years old. We had moved into our house in August 1965. In September 1965, my oldest sister started 1st grade at the then-new OLPH School in Bethlehem Township. Our parish was founded on Trinity Sunday, 1963, and our family was one of the original families that made up the parish. So my memory must be from the Spring of 1966. Our founding Pastor, Father Harry Hynes, was a good and holy Irish-American priest, originally ordained for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia in 1942. He was a canon lawyer, educated at Saint Charles, Philadelphia, then Rome, and then because of the war, back to the US to finish at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. I remember during the Mass, rambunctious little kid that I was, standing up on the pew, and imitating Father Hynes as he elevated the Sacred Host just after the consecration. I also remember having my imitation squelched by my father.... And not much more. As I grew, I always loved going to Mass. I loved the beauty with which Father Hynes reverently offered Mass, and although he died on July 11, 1975, when I was just about to enter into 8th grade, I can still hear his voice chanting "Through Him, with Him, and in Him...." Many of my conscious actions when I offer Mass are taken from the ritual habits that Father Hynes did when he offered Mass, as I correctly [or incorrectly] recall them, having served as an altar boy at his feet.

Father Hynes also celebrated an annual Forty Hours Devotion in our parish. I remember the mysterious beauty of the Psalm chants, the Litany of the Saints, and the Eucharistic Hymns. I was mesmerized, and awed, by the majesty and reverence of these celebrations. I loved to see the procession of priests and altar boys around the church. One of the Eucharistic Hymns which I grew up with was "Humbly We Adore Thee." It is an English translation of Saint Thomas Aquinas' Eucharistic hymn, "Adoro Te Devote."

In 2004, Capuchin Father Raniero Cantalamessa, a preacher to the Papal Household, wrote of this hymn:

"Like other venerated Latin liturgical hymns of the past, it belongs to the community of the faithful that have sung it for centuries, have made it their own and almost re-created it, no less than to the author who composed it, often, however, remaining anonymous... In every stanza of the Adoro Te Devote there is a theological affirmation and an invocation which is the prayerful response of the soul to the mystery. The theological truth recalled in the first stanza refers to the manner of the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic species. The Latin expression 'vere latitas' is charged with meaning, it means: he is hidden, but he really is (where the accent is on 'vere,' only the reality of the presence) and it also means: he truly is, but hidden (where the accent is on 'latitas,' on the sacramental character of this presence)."

I always pray before each Mass that I may celebrate the Mystery of the Holy Eucharist with reverence and awe, such as I had when I was just a small boy. I count Father Hynes as a kind of "patron" for me, even 51 years after his passing, to help me, as a priest remain "in love" with Christ and His Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Happy Feast of Corpus Christi!
