Deacon Peter LeTourneau, Operations Director
Ms. Annette Wynn, Coordinator of Religious Ed.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

In each of our lives, we need time for silence and prayer. One of the best opportunities for this is an evening of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Raphael church. Even ten or fifteen minutes of prayer before Jesus in the Eucharist can help us spiritually and help build a closer bond with the Lord. Tuesday, August 6 there will be adoration from 6:00pm - 8:00pm in the church. I will be available for confession during that time.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration is taking place now for our Religious Education program which will begin meeting on Wednesday, September 4. Please note that there is a meeting for parents/guardians on Wednesday, August 28 in our Fellowship Hall. While parents and guardians are the "first teachers" of the Catholic faith for their children, our parish program is meant to assist in the formation of Catholic youth. Please contact Annette Wynn, our Coordinator of Religious Education if you have any questions.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Thursday, August 15 is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holy day of obligation. St. Raphael will have Mass at 7:00am, 8:30am, Noon, and 7:00pm. Please mark your calendars and join us as we thank God for the life and holiness of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

ANOIDING OF THE SICK

Each year our parish offers the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick during the celebration of Mass on a Sunday. On September 1, the Anointing of the Sick will take place at the 11:00am Mass. Please see the instruction in the bulletin about who may be anointed and how to register so you may receive the sacrament. Father Brian Welter and I will both be present to anoint the sick during the liturgy.

BECOMING CATHOLIC

If you are aware of an adult in our area who has expressed an interest in learning more about the Catholic Faith, or what is required to be baptized or become a Catholic, please encourage that person to contact me or Deacon Greg Webster. In September we will begin a series of conversations for those who are seeking baptism or reception in the Church. Your personal invitation to a family member, neighbor, or friend can encourage people to make inquiry. Thank you!

AWAY FROM MY DESK

I plan to be away from the parish from July 8 through July 12. If you have any pressing matter you wish to discuss, please contact me this week. Thank you.

In our Lord,

Fr. Mike McGovern

St. Raphael will be collaborating with our neighbors at Our Lady of the Lakes Parish (St. Peter and St. Bede) in offering a one-week program this summer for youth. Totus Tuus ("All yours"- the motto of St. Pope John Paul II) is the name of the program and it has been well received in different parishes of the archdiocese for several years. St. Raphael will host the program for 7-12th grades on our campus from Sunday, July 21 through Thursday, July 25. The program will be held in the evenings (the program for younger children will be at the St. Peter campus in Antioch during the day). While there will be a team of young adults leading the program, I could use the assistance of a couple of adults from our parish to help prepare for this event. If you can help, or have questions, please let me know. Thank you. Father Mike

A PATRON SAINT FOR THE MEDIA?

July 27 is the feast day of Blessed Titus Brandsma, O. Carm. (23 February 1881 - 26 July 1942). While not well known outside of his native Holland, Father Brandsma is someone who I think could become a patron saint for men and women working in the media.

Father Brandsma was a member of the Carmelite Order, a professor of philosophy and a writer for the Catholic newspapers of Holland in the 1930s. Brandsma was vehemently opposed to Nazi ideology and spoke out against it many times both before and during the Second World War. After the invasion of the Netherlands by the Third Reich in May 1940, more and more media outlets felt pressure from the Nazi party to print their propaganda, Brandsma untiringly met with newspaper editors and encouraged them to resist the Nazi party. Eventually Father Brandsma was arrested and imprisoned in the Dachau concentration camp. He was executed by lethal injection on July 26, 1942.

Beatified by St. John Paul II in 1985, Father Brandsma is honored as a martyr. I hope that he will soon be canonized as a saint. Given his commitment to the truth, and the way he risked his own life in encouraging the newspapers to refrain from printing Nazi propaganda, I hope Father Brandsma will emerge as a patron saint for those working in the media. In this era of "fake news" it is important that those working in the media use it responsibly and be committed to the truth. May Blessed Titus Brandsma pray to the Holy Spirit on behalf of all those in journalism and media today.

Each year our parish invites those seeking the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick to receive the anointing during a Sunday Mass. This year we are scheduling the Mass with the Anointing of the Sick at 11:00am on Sunday, September 1. Also, for those who are ill and homebound, please contact the parish office for Fr. Mike to schedule a date to come to your home for the anointing. For more information, please call 847.395.3474.
