

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Dear Parishioners,

I want to thank Brother Dominic Koester, O.P., for his work here in the parish these past two months. Whether he was greeting parishioners after Mass or serving or lecturing during Mass, Brother Dominic was always helpful and also eager to engage in a little conversation. His highlight though, I think, was his summer series of video/lectures in Caffè Lepanto. He gave insightful commentary and also answered difficult questions like a good Dominican! We will continue to pray for him as he prepares for Solemn Profession and his ordination to the diaconate and priesthood. Hopefully, his hard work with the video/lecture series will continue with the groups he formed choosing new Catholic material on the internet for further formation and discussion.

I also want to thank Fr. Fernando Reta, O.P., for his continued help in the parish with hearing Confessions, celebrating Mass, and his preaching. Unfortunately (OR fortunately!) his flight back to Argentina has been cancelled by his government so we get to enjoy his company a little bit longer. He will be away this week enjoying New York City in July and we will welcome him back for more more fun in the sun here at Saint Pius V. Thank you for your warm welcome of both Brother Dominic and Father Fernando.

Just a reminder that anyone interested in helping with our upcoming "Grateful for God's Providence" Diocesan Capital Campaign is warmly invited to our first informational meeting on Wednesday, July 28 at 7:00pm in Caffè Lepanto. I'm looking forward to working on this campaign both for the needs of the Diocese and the remaining capital improvements to the interior of the Church.

Thank you once again for your generous contributions to the Diocesan Catholic Charity Appeal. As you may have noticed in the bulletin, we surpassed our goal and I am very grateful for reaching this benchmark.

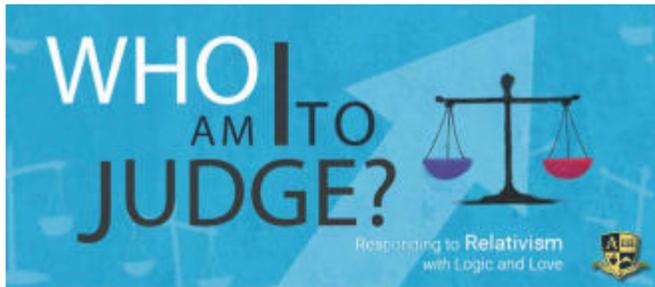

Let us continue to pray for the good of the Parish and for an increase in gratitude for all the gifts the Lord gives us through the intercession of Pope Saint Pius V.

In Saint Dominic,
Fr. James, O.P.

If you have an uncomplicated pregnancy of 17 weeks or less and are in prenatal care, would you be interested in having an ultrasound for the training of medical professionals? You will be able to see the Center and services we offer, see your little one, and experience loving support. Please contact Mother of Life Pregnancy Center at 421-0820 for more information.

Who Am I to Judge?

Responding to Relativism with Logic and Love

Saturday, July 31, Session 8:

What is Truth?

Answering Common Questions

Ever wonder what Jesus meant when he said “judge not”? Sometimes, should we judge? Is what’s right for you or right for me? Is there a right and wrong for every-one, all the time?

We will explore these questions and much more in this 8-part video-and-discussion series led by Br. Dominic, O.P.

Each Saturday at 9:00 AM in Caffe Lepanto

LETTER OF POPE FRANCIS

Letter of His Holiness Pope Francis to Brother Gerard Francisco
Timoner, O.P.,
Master General of the Order of Preachers
For the VIII Centenary of the Death of Saint Dominic of Caleruega

Part 3

The Gospel message of our inalienable human dignity as children of God and members of the one human family challenges the Church in our own day to strengthen the bonds of social friendship, to overcome unjust economic and political structures, and to work for the integral development of every individual and people. Faithful to the Lord’s will, and prompted by the Holy Spirit, Christ’s followers are called to cooperate in every effort “to give birth to a new world, where all of us are brothers and sisters, where there is room for all those whom our societies discard, where justice and peace are resplendent” (Fratelli Tutti, 278). May the Order of Preachers, now as then, be in the forefront of a renewed proclamation of the Gospel, one that can speak to the hearts of the men and women of our time and awaken in them a thirst for the coming of Christ’s kingdom of holiness, justice and peace!

Saint Dominic’s zeal for the Gospel and his desire for a genuinely apostolic life led him to stress the importance of life in common. Again, Blessed Jordan of Saxony tells us that, in founding your Order, Dominic significantly chose “to be called, not sub-prior, but Brother Dominic” (Libellus, 21). This ideal of fraternity was to find expression in an inclusive form of governance, in which all shared in the process of discernment and decision-making, in accordance with their respective roles and authority, through the system of chapters at all levels. This “synodal” process enabled the Order to adapt its life and mission changing historical contexts while maintaining fraternal communion. The witness of evangelical fraternity, as a prophetic testimony to God’s ultimate plan in Christ for the reconciliation and unity of the entire human family, remains a fundamental element of the Dominican charism and a pillar of the Order’s effort to promote the renewal of Christian life and the spread of the Gospel in our own time.

At Treasured VBC, kids will come to know that they are made for Jesus, by Jesus, and through Jesus. Contact Fr. Lee at 831-3503 or frcomet90@gmail.com. $40/child; $75 for 2; $100 for 3 or more.

Rosary for Vocations

Reflections on the Luminous Mysteries

The Fourth Luminous Mystery

THE TRANSFIGURATION

Prayer Intention: Vocations to Religious Life.

Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain apart. And He was transfigured before them, and His face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light. (Matthew 17:1-2)

In Christ's radiant transfiguration on the mountaintop, He revealed to the world a glimpse of the glory of the world to come. In their own way, those who are called to the consecrated life also signify and proclaim the glory of the world to come. The religious state of life points to the heavenly realities already present in this life, witnessing to the new and eternal life that is ours in Christ.

“Jesus said to him, ‘If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.’” (Matthew 19:21)

With Mary, model of consecrated life, we pray that all those with a vocation to religious life will answer the call to seek the perfection of charity in the service of God's kingdom, as signs of the glorious destiny to which He calls us all.
