THE KEYS TO HOLINESS

Holiness will help us to get to Heaven and comes when we surrender to God's will and put all of our trust in him.

- Courage. During the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5), Jesus said, 'blessed are the poor in spirit, blessed are they who mourn,' and promised that when we turn to God in times of trial, we will be comforted and cared for. Trusting God in difficult times takes courage.

- Discipline. Jesus makes it clear that we must apply the correct principles to our habits and use God's laws as our standards. When he talked about 'the meek, the merciful, those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,' he was giving us a ruler. We are to measure our behavior against these standards to see if we are on the right path to holiness.

- Endurance. Only a true follower of Christ can put the Sermon on the Mount fully into practice. It takes endurance to combine holy inner attitudes with these outward actions and keep it up for life.

CONFERENCES FOR CATHOLICS TEACHING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

There will be a conference for Catholics who teach in public school on Saturday, February 2nd from 9 am – 1:30 pm at Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers 55 Ryder Road - Ossining, NY 10562

Bishop Walsh will celebrate Mass at 9 am, Sr. Deanna Sabetti is presenter. Delicious hot lunch at 12:30 pm. Donation is $20. Information: 914-965-0490 zelide.ceccagno@archny.org

It's been a rough time for faithful Catholics recently in our state government's frantic rush for "progressive" ideas.

I'm thinking first of the ghoulish radical abortion-expansion law, which allows for an abortion right up to the moment of birth; drops all charges against an abortionist who allows an aborted baby, who somehow survives the scissors, scalpel, saline and dismemberment, to die before his eyes; mandates that, to make an abortion more convenient and easy, a physician need not perform it; and might even be used to suppress the conscience rights of health care professionals not to assist in the grisly procedures. All this in a state that already had the most permissive abortion laws in the country.

As if that's not enough, instead of admitting that abortion is always a tragic choice, and that life-giving alternatives should be more vigorously promoted, the governor and his "progressive" supporters celebrated signing the bill. At the governor's command, even the lights of the Freedom Tower sparkled with delight.

Those who once told us that abortion had to remain safe, legal and rare now have made it dangerous, imposed and frequent.

Then our governor insults and caricatures the church in what's supposed to be an uplifting and unifying occasion, his "State of the State" address.

The bishops of this state have long supported a reform of the inadequate laws around the sexual abuse of minors. Yes, we and many others expressed reservations about one element, the retroactive elimination of the civil statute of limitations, but urged dramatic reform that, in many ways, was tougher than what was being proposed by legislators. A month ago we renewed that stance, and even dropped our objections to the "look-back" section if all victims would benefit. The governor was aware of all this.

Why, then, would he use his address to blame the church, and only the church, for blocking this bill? Why would he publicly brag in a political address about his dissent from timeless and substantive church belief? Why would he quote Pope Francis out of context as an applause line to misrepresent us bishops here as being opposed to our Holy Father? Why did he reduce the sexual abuse of minors, a broad societal and cultural curse that afflicts every family, public school, religion and government program, to a "Catholic problem?"

I'm a pastor, not a politician, but I feel obliged to ask these questions, as daily do I hear them from my people, as well as colleagues from other creeds. I've been attacked in the past when I asked — sadly and reluctantly — if the party that my folks proudly claimed as their own, the Democrats, had chosen to alienate faithful Catholic voters. Now you know why I asked.

As an American historian, I am very aware of our state's past record of scorn and sneers at Catholics. It used to be called "know-nothings." Now it's touted as "progressivism."

Genuine progressives work to pass a "DREAM act," a "voters rights act," a "prison reform act," and we pastors of the church pitch in to support them. That's government at its best. I pray that spirit returns.
