Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Reading: Wis 11:22 -- 12:2; Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14; 2 Thes 1:11 -- 2:2; Lk 19:1-10

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who rebuke[s] offenders little by little (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the chief tax collector -- a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be worthy of God's calling, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Zacchaeus, come down quickly

Why do good things happen to bad people? Does this question strike you as odd? Aren't we usually struggling with the bad things that happen to good people? True enough, but when good things happen to others, especially those we consider undeserving, it can seem natural to grumble. How do some people always seem to get away with it, while we spend our lives trying to act as God would want? As a tax collector, Zacchaeus cheated and got rich off of his own people. Why does Jesus want to be so nice to him? It's just not fair!

Today I must stay at your house

This problem of good things for bad people can cause as much distress as the problem of bad things happening to good people. Both touch on one of the deepest mysteries of human existence: Is the universe fair? Is God just? This is what is making the crowd grumble about Jesus favoring Zacchaeus. Why is Jesus befriending such a sinner? This is the third such complaint about Jesus in Luke's Gospel (see Luke 5: 27-33 and 5:25-15). However, the encounter with Zacchaeus is different. In the other accounts, Jesus responds to his critics himself, but here, it is Zacchaeus who speaks up. Not only does Zacchaeus announce compensation for those he has cheated, he vows to give away half of his goods to the poor. At this point in the Gospel, Jesus is traveling to Jerusalem, where he knows he will be put to death. No one else that Jesus meets on this journey has responded as readily as Zacchaeus to his summons -- first, to come down from the tree, then to come down from his wealthy lifestyle and the corruption that supported it. Although he did not travel to Jerusalem with Jesus, Zacchaeus clearly understood the demands of discipleship. This story gives us a hint as to why good things might happen to bad people: it is God's patience, with Zacchaeus and with us as well, as God awaits our response, for us to become the disciples God is calling us to be.

Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Abuse by Diocesan Clergy (ICP)

As part of our long-standing commitment to provide pastoral care and to support the healing process for victim-survivors, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, along with five other dioceses in California, is participating in the new Independent Compensation Program by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Diocese of Fresno, Diocese of Orange, Diocese of Sacramento, Diocese of San Bernardino, and Diocese of San Diego for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests (ICP). The ICP is administered independently of the Church by Kenneth Feinberg and Camille Biros, widely recognized as premier dispute resolution administrators in the country. The program is now accepting registrations from any person who has been sexually abused as a minor by diocesan priests of the participating dioceses, no matter when that abuse might have occurred. Funding for the program in our Archdiocese will come from self-insured reserves, monies set aside for this purpose. We pray that this new program might provide another avenue toward healing and hope. For more information on the ICP, please visit www.californiadiocesescip.com. **Stewardship of Time*

Zaqueo, bájante pronto

¿Por qué pasan cosas buenas a las personas malas?

¿No te parece que esta es una pregunta extraña? ¿No estamos acostumbrados a luchar con las cosas malas que les pasan a las personas buenas? Es cierto, pero cuando cosas buenas le pasan a los demás, especialmente a quienes no lo merecen, quejarse es lo más natural. ¿Por qué algunas personas parecen que 'se salen con la suya' mientras dedicamos nuestras vidas ser guiadas por la voluntad de Dios? Así como el recolector de impuestos, Zaqueo estafó y se hizo rico a costa de su propio pueblo. ¿Por qué Jesús quiere ser amable con él? ¡No es justo!

Hoy me voy a quedar en tu casa

El tema de las cosas buenas para las personas malas puede ocasionar demasiada angustia, igual que el problema de cosas malas que le pasan a las personas buenas. Ambas situaciones tocan uno de los misterios más profundos de la existencia humana: ¿es el universo justo? ¿Es Dios justo? Esto es lo que hace que la multitud se queje de Jesús favoreciendo a Zaqueo. ¿Por qué Jesús se hace amigo de ese pecador?

En el Evangelio de Lucas, esta es la tercera queja hacia Jesús (ver Lucas 5:27-33 y 5:25-15). Sin embargo, ese encuentro con la persona de Zaqueo es diferente. En los otros eventos, Jesús responde a sus críticos, pero aquí es Zaqueo quien habla. No solamente Zaqueo se compromete a retribuir a quienes estafó y a dar la mitad de sus bienes a los pobres. En este punto en el Evangelio, Jesús está viajando a Jerusalén, en donde él sabe que va a morir. Ninguna otra persona que Jesús encuentra en este viaje ha respondido tan fácil como lo hizo Zaqueo a la llamada de Jesús; primero, bajar del árbol, después bajar de su vida de rico y la corrupción que lo sustentaba. Aunque Zaqueo no viajó con Jesús a Jerusalén, Zaqueo entendió con claridad las exigencias del discipulado.

Esta historia nos da una pista de por qué cosas buenas podría pasarles a las personas malas: es la paciencia de Dios, con Zaqueo y también con nosotros, mientras Dios espera nuestra respuesta, para que seamos los discípulos que Dios nos llama a ser.

HOMECOMING DANCE

The 2019-2020 St. Genevieve High School Homecoming dance was held at the Bonaventure Brewing Company on October 19, 2019. The theme for this year's dance was Once Upon a Time.

The venue had a lovely dining area outside, a dance floor in a hallway, a resting area inside, and an amazing view of the L.A. skyscrapers. The venue was small but sufficient to the amount of people attending the dance. The tables in the dining area had picture frames with quotes from Disney characters inside of them to go along with the theme. Once everyone was settled, in dinner was served. Dinner consisted of chicken, pasta, salad, cooked vegetables, and bread rolls. Caramel ice cream and cookies were served as dessert afterwards.

After students ate, the DJ played songs that made many students join the dance floor. Music ranging from modern rap to 2000 hits was played throughout the night. Andrea Hurtado, a student who attended the dance, said "The dance had great energy and the skyscrapers were an amazing view".

HOMECOMING PARADE

This past week was one of the most exciting weeks at St. Genevieve High School—it was Homecoming week! We had different activities each day, and Friday was the homecoming football game. Before watching the game, the whole school participated in the parade. The police cleared the way for the teachers and the students to safely make their way to the football game. Passing cars honked their horns to cheer for teachers and students as we walked by.

The parade had plenty of special floats for the different groups on campus. The dance team, basketball team, band, volleyball team, football team, and the choir all rode in style on special vehicles. Justin Wu said, "This is my first year in the parade, and I think it's very interesting and is something I've never done before. I'll definitely do it again."

GIRLS SOCCER BEGINS

GOAL! Soccer season is fast approaching and that begins with tryouts. Tryouts began on Thursday, October 24, 2019. Trying out is a good opportunity to make new friends and play your heart. It doesn't matter if you are new to soccer because everyone is welcome, so come and tryout. If you have questions about tryouts or are interested in being on the team, see Coach Archey or any member of the girl's soccer team.

Homecoming Parade Is Here

Homecoming Week was a celebration of school spirit! The week's activities led up to Friday for the parade and football game. Before the high school football game against St. Anthony, the school community paraded down Coldwater Canyon Blvd. from St. Jane Francis Church to Los Angeles College. As the school walked, many teams held titled banners and magnificent floats drove down the street. The elementary cheer, dance, majorette, drumline, and football teams walked together along with other students. The flag football team rode on the back of a flatbed truck. They waved and sang chants to showcase their Valiant spirit. They also got the privilege of watching the first half of the football game right on the sidelines! Eighth grader, Briana Reyes said, "The best experience in the annual homecoming parade is getting closer to everyone and cheering. When someone honked their horn while we walked, when we all sang songs, or when we waved at people who saw us walking, that was the true delight of the event!" At the Homecoming game, the SG Football team fought long and hard. The score was 14-20. Even though the team lost in overtime by one touchdown, the players showed great sportsmanship!

'Mad' Middle School Madness

The middle school theme was Mad Middle School, meaning dressing up like villain characters from fairy tale stories. The seventh and eighth graders participated in many ways Battle, Dancing with the Valiants, and so many more. Several middle schoolers danced, sang to "This Is Us", and placed 3rd in the competition. Homecoming Mass followed by Dancing with the Valiants was a night to remember! The middle school Dance Drill team participated, dancing to a catchy salute song led by captain, Caila Molales. During the homecoming morning, the middle school student council and Ms. Yao, the middle school Homecoming moderator, decorated their themed float with paper flowers. After it was done, the magnificent villain float drove down the streets to the game. This 2019 Homecoming week was wonderful! Students can't wait for the next one.

THE ELEMENTARY STUDENTS SPREAD THEIR EXCALIBUR SPIRIT!

Although Homecoming week was mainly surrounded around high school, the elementary school still had fun! Second grader Kayla Garcia said, "I really like the days when we dress up. My favorite dress up day was the medieval day because I love princess and queens." Amelia Zepeda shares, "I loved mismatched day because we got to wear goofy and funny clothes that didn't even match! It was so fun to see my friends, teachers, and me dressed in a weird way." Although they are in different grade levels, they both had a mutual liking in the Lip Sync Battle and Magic Carpet Ride. The magic carpet ride was a racing activity. Students were pulled on rugs by their high school brothers and sisters. Thank you K-6 parents who worked really hard on their themed float, Excalibur Elementary. It was surely a wonderful sight!

To anyone interested in learning more about your faith and the Church:

Fr. John plans to offer four evenings of class/discussions during Advent, and at least six more during Lent, on two topics, about which he invites feedback. One topic will be the history of the Church, from the time just after the apostles until the present day (or however far we get). The second topic would be the teachings of the Church—its traditions, its sacraments, etc. with a special focus on the Eucharist. Fr. John would require a minimum of 20-25 persons committed to each session to make it worthwhile.

Please consider this, and offer the following feedback: which topic would most interest you? would you prefer time spent on both? which night would you prefer—Monday, or Thursday? There will be a sign up sheet available in the Parish Office. You may leave a note with this feedback for Fr. John in the Parish Office.
