Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Reading: Is 8:23 — 9:3; Ps 27:1, 4, 13–14; 1 Cor 1:10–13, 17; Mt 4:12–23 [12–17]

Two readings today refer to the northeast region of ancient Israel: “the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali.” Upon hearing these names, some of us might consult maps and determine exactly where these regions lie. Others might let the unfamiliar names drift by unnoticed. If no maps are handy—but we don’t want to ignore the references completely—consider this: we might not know the latitude and longitude of Zebulun and Naphtali, but God does. We praise God for watching over every inch of land and sea, caring perfectly for each creature on the planet. While Isaiah celebrates the depth of God’s care with “abundant joy and great rejoicing,” Saint Paul begs us to remember how the Lord shows this loving care: through the cross. In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls Peter, James, and John to follow him. We follow too, confident that God accompanies us, wherever we are.

Beauty and truth

Today the poetry of Isaiah washes over us with stunning beauty: Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. Isaiah’s lines enchant us with their music as well as with their meaning. Haven’t we all felt burdened by gloom and distress? Don’t we all long for an end to darkness? Isaiah promises that God’s majestic strength crushes our anguish, blowing away our troubles on a breeze. These words are lovely, but what do they mean for us really, when our day-to-day struggles are so real? How can it be true that darkness is dispelled, when so many of us suffer terribly?

Daily doses of light

Jesus assures us: “God is light, and in him there is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5b). But how, exactly, does God’s light overcome the darkness that we still experience? Saint Paul shows us how: through the cross. Today’s reading from Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians implores Jesus’ followers to get along with one another, to “be united in the same mind and in the same purpose.” We believe that two thousand years ago, Jesus saved the world and destroyed darkness; but until Jesus comes again, we must unite as the Body of Christ to continue pushing back the gloom of sin and division. As followers of Jesus, we work against these evils in simple ways. We intentionally attempt genuine conversation with a person we find irritating; we ignore gossip and refuse to talk behind someone’s back; we befriend an awkward or needy individual. These daily doses of light bring hope to our world, which is both redeemed and not yet finished. Jesus wants our help. Like Peter, James, and John in today’s Gospel, we are called by Christ to participate in salvation. Jesus chooses us, calls us, and invites us to accompany him—and imitate him—as we live in, and wait for, the Light of the World.

Did you Know?

Evaluate relationships based on context

We may think we know enough about appropriate boundaries in relationships, but boundaries are complicated, even for adults. Children rely on adults to define what is appropriate and what isn’t, in the context of the relationship. For example, some touches are “safe” or “unsafe” depending on who is in the relationship — a parent, a stranger, a teacher, etc. For more information, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions” from <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Is 8:23 — 9:3; Sal 27 (26):1, 4, 13-14; 1 Cor 1:10-13, 17; Mt 4:12-23 [12-17]

Belleza y verdad

Hoy la poesía de Isaías nos lava con una belleza impresionante: el sufrimiento se ha ido, disipado en la oscuridad: ya no hay tristeza ahora donde hubo dolor.

Estas palabras de Isaías nos encantan con su música y también con su significado. ¿Acaso no nos hemos sentido cargados de tristeza y dolor? ¿No llegamos anhelar el fin de la oscuridad? Isaías promete que la fuerza majestuosa de Dios derrota nuestra angustia, haciendo volar nuestros problemas en una brisa. Estas palabras son agradables, pero ¿qué significan para nosotros verdaderamente, cuando nuestras dificultades del día a día son reales? ¿Cómo puede ser verdad que la oscuridad se desvanece, cuando muchos de nosotros sufrimos terriblemente?

Dosis diarias de luz

Jesús nos asegura: “Dios es luz y no hay en él oscuridad alguna” (1 Juan 1:5b). Pero cómo, exactamente, ¿la luz de Dios vence la oscuridad que todavía experimentamos? San Pablo nos muestra cómo: por medio de la cruz. La lectura de hoy de la primera carta de san Pablo a los corintios implora a los seguidores de Jesús a llevarse bien entre ellos, “conserven la armonía en el pensar y en el sentir”. Creemos que hace dos mil años, Jesús salvó al mundo y destruyó la oscuridad; pero hasta que Jesús vuelva otra vez, debemos unirnos como el cuerpo de Cristo para continuar rechazar la oscuridad del pecado y la división. Como seguidores de Jesús, nos empleamos en contra de estos males en formas sencillas. Deliberadamente intentamos conversaciones genuinas con una persona que nos parece fastidiosa; ignoramos el chisme y rehusamos hablar a las espaldas de alguien; nos hacemos amigo de una persona difícil y necesitada. Estas dosis diarias de luz nos traen esperanza a nuestro mundo, el cual es tanto a la vez redimido, pero no terminado. Jesús quiere nuestra ayuda. Como Pedro, Santiago y Juan en el Evangelio de hoy, estamos llamados por Cristo a participar en la salvación. Jesús nos elige, nos llama y nos invita a acompañarlo, y a imitarlo, en donde vivamos, y esperamos por la Luz del Mundo.

¿Sabía Usted?

Evalúe las relaciones con base en el contexto

Podemos pensar que sabemos suficiente sobre los límites apropiados en las relaciones, pero los límites son complicados, aun para los adultos. Los niños dependen de los adultos para definir lo que es apropiado y lo que no es, en el contexto de las relaciones. Por ejemplo, algunas caricias son “seguras” o “inseguras”, dependiendo de quién haga las caricias, un padre de familia, un extraño, un profesor, etc. Para más información, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Keeping in Touch with Important Distinctions” (Manteniéndose al tanto de distinciones importantes), en <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>. *Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT: MR. YUMUL

Teaching is certainly no easy task. At Saint Genevieve High School, we are so lucky to have so many great and amazing teachers who strive to prepare their students for life after high school. Mr. Dennis Yumul, chair of the theology department and current religion teacher, is a shining example of our excellent faculty.

Mr. Yumul is an alumnus of Saint Genevieve High School; he graduated in 1996. He is also a parent at Saint Genevieve High School, his daughter currently attends elementary school. When asked about his history with the school, Mr. Yumul explained, "I've been to other schools and I can tell you that I would not trade our students for anyone else". Mr. Yumul has been teaching at Saint Genevieve High School for over eighteen years. He has worked with different ages and in many different roles at the school during his time at Saint Genevieve High School. Mr. Yumul is a great teacher, with a great attitude. We are so lucky to have him at our school!

SG Valiants and Their 2020 Resolutions

Say goodbye to 2019, a year of so many memories and accomplishments. A new decade, 2020 has entered the door with new beginnings and goals. Many Valiants have set prodigious goals for the year, promising to make themselves better people and to take on new opportunities. We hope to see everyone will grow in their mindset and find their true voices. Happy New Year to all our families!

Kinder Starting the New Year Strong

"The kindergarten class has been working very hard on being fluent in reading and being able to add and subtract 40 problems in 5 minutes," says Kinder teacher Ms. Sanders. "Students accomplished so much in the first trimester! They learned numbers from zero to twenty using ten frames and are now moving onto counting numbers up to 100. Kindergartener Levi Stevenson says, "I'm excited to be able to do my homework on my own and to read independently. My favorite part about school is my teacher. She helps me to learn, and we have fun!" As you can see, the kindergarteners have learned so much and will continue to learn more in the next few months to come. Students are looking forward to their 100th day of school! "Parents and students have been working on a special project, and we can't wait to see them on February 4th," says Instructional Aide, Mrs. Hernandez.

Growing a Sisterhood/Brotherhood Through Basketball

This past week, student athletes have been working hard during after school practices to prepare for the basketball season. There are currently four teams, two girls and two boys. They comprise of students in grades 4-8th. They are currently learning the fundamentals of basketball. "As team captain, I am very excited for this upcoming season. We've been working hard and have continued to grow and support each other everyday. I am very excited for what my team has to show in the next few weeks," states Roberto Casillas-Martin in 8th grade. "Throughout the season, will respect our coaches, teammates and especially opponents. Basketball teaches us the value of teamwork and dedication and this creates a brotherhood/sisterhood." The Girls B Team (4-6th grade) started off the season with a strong win of 64-0. We hope to see many families join us for our annual Tournament of the Champs which will be held in February. We hope to bring home a championship. Please come out and support our Valiants games!

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. Quote: "I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character." Fact: Martin Luther King Jr. is most remembered for leading the African American Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and '60s to end segregation (the separation of black people from white people in schools, restaurants, and other public places in the U.S.). He fought for equal rights and fair treatment for people of all races or skin colors. What Kids Can Do: Treat all people the way you want to be treated — with kindness and fairness. Think about how we all are different from each other in some ways, but we are the same in so many ways: Inside we all have feelings and deserve to be happy. - Family Education
